Peace And Persistence Tracing The Brethren In Christ Peace Witness Through Two Generations:

Peace and Persistence Mary Jane Heisey, 2003 This work presents material about the Brethren in Christ a small little known religious group In addition to drawing from official church doctrine statements and records it also features a variety of authors in church related publications records of congregational life and archival sources Relief Work as Pilgrimage M.J. Heisey, Nancy Heisey, 2015-08-20 In 1945 Elsie C Bechtel left her Ohio home for the tiny French commune of Lavercanti re where for nearly three years she cared for children displaced by the ravages of war Bechtel s diary photographs and letters home to her family provide the central texts of this study From 1945 to 1948 she recorded her encounters with French society and her immersion in the spare beauty of rural France From her daily work came passionate musings on the emotional world of human interactions and evocative observations of the American Spanish and French co workers and children with whom she lived As a volunteer with the Mennonite Central Committee MCC Bechtel was part of the war relief efforts of pacifist Quakers and Anabaptists In France between 1939 and 1948 MCC programs distributed clothing shared food and sheltered refugee children The work began in the far southwest of France but by the time Bechtel completed her service in 1948 had moved to the Alsace region where French Mennonites clustered Bechtel s writings emerged from a religious context that included much travel but little reflection on the significance of that travel Yet religiously motivated travel an old tradition in southwest France shaped Bechtel s life The authors consider her experiences in terms of religious pilgrimage and reflect on their own pilgrimage to Lavercanti re in 2006 for a reunion with some of the people marked by the broader effort that Bechtel joined To understand Bechtel s experiences and prose the authors examined archival sources on MCC s work in France gathered oral and written narratives of participants and researched other war relief efforts in Spain and France in the 1930s and 1940s Drawing on these various contexts the authors establish the complexity but also the significance of pilgrimage and humanitarian service as intercultural exchanges Seeking Places of Peace Royden Loewen, 2012-09-01 Perhaps the most inclusive sweeping and insightful history ever written about the North American Mennonite saga Both authors are eminent historians Royden Loewen is Professor of History with a chair in Mennonite Studies at the University of Winnipeg Steven M Nolt is Professor of History at Goshen IN College Both authors of this book bring to the task the insights of social history As such they focus on people in many geographical environments rather than on institutional development and theological controversy Readable understandable and incisive Appeals to all ages and all groups Concise Encyclopedia of Amish, Brethren, Hutterites, and Mennonites Donald B. Philip Fountain,2024-09-03 Founded over a century ago the Mennonite Central Committee MCC is regarded as one of the most important institutional carriers of Canadian and American Mennonite identity Generations of Mennonites and others have served with the organization carrying out development disaster relief and peacebuilding work in over fifty countries globally The Service of Faith offers an ethnography of MCC s Christian development work in Indonesia exploring the challenges conundrums theologies and ethical commitments that shape Mennonite service The success of religious based development work depends on effectively bridging very different cultural and religious worlds Braiding together extensive ethnographic and archival research Philip Fountain analyzes MCC s practices of cultural translation in the Indonesian context While the particularities of Mennonite religious values are deeply influential for MCC s work in practice its humanitarian project involves collaboration with a range of actors who come from widely varied religious positions In taking a nuanced case specific approach to understanding how faith shapes moral projects Fountain challenges mainstream claims to secular neutrality and the tendency to dismiss or disapprove of religious motivations in development work Exploring the diverse ways in which Mennonite convictions permeate MCC s work in Indonesia The Service of Faith confronts the question of whether religion has a legitimate place in international development work From Suffering to Solidarity Andrew P Klager,2016-04-28 As experiences of suffering continue to influence the responses of identity groups in the midst of violent conflict a way to harness their narratives stories memories and myths in transformative and non violent ways is needed From Suffering to Solidarity explores the historical seeds of Mennonite peacebuilding approaches and their application in violent conflicts around the world The authors in this book first draw out the experiences of Anabaptists and Mennonites from the sixteenth century originsthrough to the present that have shaped their approaches to conflict transformation and inspired new generations of Mennonites to engage in relief development and peacebuilding to alleviate the suffering of others whose experiences today reflect those of their ancestors Authors then explore the various peacebuilding approaches methods and initiatives that have emerged from this Mennonite narrative and its preservation and dissemination in subsequent generations Finally the book examines how this combined historical sensitivity and resulting peacebuilding theory and practice have been applied in violent conflicts around the world noting both successes and challenges Ultimately From

Suffering to Solidarity attempts to answer a question How can a robust historical infrastructure be used to inspire empathetic solidarity with the Other and shape nonviolent ways of transforming conflict to thrust a stick in the spokes of the cycle of violence

Mennonite Women in Canada Marlene Epp, 2011-07-15 Mennonite Women in Canada traces the complex social history and multiple identities of Canadian Mennonite women over 200 years Marlene Epp explores women's roles as prescribed and as lived within the contexts of immigration and settlement household and family church and organizational life work and education and in response to social trends and events The combined histories of Mennonite women offer a rich and fascinating study of how women actively participate in ordering their lives within ethno religious communities Crisis of Conscience Amy J. Shaw, 2009-07-01 The First World War's appalling death toll and the need for a sense of equality of sacrifice on the home front led to Canada's first experience of overseas conscription While historians have focused on resistance to enforced military service in Quebec this has obscured the important role of those who saw military service as incompatible with their religious or ethical beliefs Crisis of Conscience is the first and only book about the Canadian pacifists who refused to fight in the Great War The experience of these conscientious objectors offers insight into evolving attitudes about the rights and responsibilities of citizenship during a key period of Canadian nation building
