through repetition Any time we open our hearts and stretch beyond the limits of our self interest we are accumulating merit
3 The bodhisattva path contains methods for protecting our merit from our own negative tendencies When we set out to do anything positive we can make an aspiration that our actions will contribute to a greater cause our eventual enlightenment for the benefit of all beings 4 Merit is the accumulation of good deeds and it can be dedicated to enlightenment to protect it from destruction When we dedicate our merit we protect it from our habitually self centered mind which can make self destructive mistakes
