Chapman, 2009 In Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice fourteen leading researchers study seventy countries that have suffered from autocratic rule genocide and protracted internal conflict The Oxford Handbook of Religion in

Modern Ireland Gladys Ganiel, Andrew R. Holmes, 2024 This volume offers a range of sociological political and historical perspectives on religion in Ireland from 1800 to the present Going beyond the usual Catholicism Protestantism dichotomy and adopting an all island approach the book's contributors address religion's interaction with several contemporary themes and debates in modern Ireland

Approaches to Peacebuilding H. Jeong, 2002-08-11 Ho Won Jeong and a cast of experts explore the ways in which the dynamics of post conflict situations can be transformed to sustainable peace Contributors focus on designs and models of peacebuilding functions of peacekeeping capacity building through negotiations reconciliation the role of gender in social reconstruction and policy coordination among different components of peacebuilding The analysis illustrates past and current experiences of peacebuilding and suggests conceptual and policy approaches that can overcome the weaknesses of existing strategies

The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding, Statebuilding, and Peace Formation Oliver P. Richmond, Gözim Visoka, 2021 Peacebuilding and statebuilding is one of the main approaches for preventing managing and mitigating global insecurities dealing with the humanitarian consequences of civil wars and expanding democracy and neoliberal economic regimes Peace formation is a relatively new concept addressing how local actors attempt to shape or work in parallel to international and national projects The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding Statebuilding and Peace Formation serves as an essential guide to this vast intellectual landscape It offers a systematic overview of conceptual foundations political implications and tensions at the global regional and local levels as well as key policies practices examples and discourses underlining all segments of peacebuilding and statebuilding

The Peacebuilding Elements of the Belfast Agreement and the Transformation of the Northern Ireland Conflict Cornelia Albert, 2009 The aim of this book is to analyse whether the implementation of the peacebuilding elements of the Belfast Agreement contributed to the transformation of the protracted Northern Ireland Conflict Therefore this book deals with the following sections of the Agreement Rights Safeguards and Equality of Opportunity Decommissioning Security Policing and Justice and Prisoners The author comes to the conclusion that the majority of the peacebuilding elements contributed to the transformation of the Northern Ireland Conflict The results of the study were obtained in conducting interviews in consulting surveys and in studying reports and other relevant literature on the recent developments in Northern Ireland

Peace at Last? Jörg Neuheiser, Stefan Wolff, 2002 This major book length analysis of developments in Northern Ireland after the beginning of IRA decommissioning in October 2001 examines the impact of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement on politics economy and society in Northern Ireland

The Northern Ireland Conflict John McGarry, Brendan O'Leary, 2004-03-18 This book collects some of the major essays past and new of two of the leading authorities on the Northern Ireland conflict It is unified by the theory of consociation one of the most influential theories in the regulation of conflicts The authors are critical exponents of the approach and several chapters explain its attractions over alternative forms of conflict regulation The book explains why Northern Ireland's national divisions have made the achievement of a consociational agreement particularly difficult The issues raised in the book are crucial to a proper understanding of Northern Ireland's past and future which the authors argue is likely to involve some type of consociational democracy whether or not the one agreed to on Good Friday The issues addressed are not particular to Northern Ireland They are relevant to a host of other divided territories including Cyprus Kosovo Macedonia Sri Lanka Nigeria and Afghanistan The book is therefore vital reading not just for Northern Ireland specialists but also for anyone interested in consociation and in the just and durable regulation of national and ethnic conflict

Power and Influence After the Cold War Ann L. Phillips, 2000 Phillips political science Friedrich Schiller U Germany explores the emerging role of Germany after reunification and asks whether it is likely to be a regional hegemon in East Central Europe She analyses both the politics of reconciliation and the activities German party affiliated foundations and argues that these demonstrate a two sided German approach to regional relations Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The European Union and the Northern Ireland Peace Process Giada Lagana, 2020-10-26 This book examines the economic and political contributions of the EU to the Northern Ireland peace process tracing the genesis of EU involvement since 1979 and analysing how it acted as an arena in which to foster dialogue and positive cooperation Based on extensive archival research and exclusive elite interviews this volume provides the first comprehensive study of how the EU contributed to the reconfiguration of Northern Ireland from a site of conflict to a site of conflict amelioration and peace building The book demonstrates that the relationship between Northern Ireland and the EU has been much more significant in the peace process than previously suggested

Economic Assistance and the Northern Ireland Conflict Sean Byrne, 2009 However it is important to note that economic aid to promote a change in Northern Ireland's economic well being is also tied into the 1998 Good Friday Agreement which has at its center a comprehensive range of new political power sharing institutions

Teaching Peace amidst Conflict and Postcolonialism Christopher P. Davey, Cris Toffolo, Maria Paula Unigarro Alba, 2023-05-26 In a world where post conflict and postcolonial countries struggle to heal from the past and meet new challenges peace education is often neglected and instrumentalized for political agendas Drawing on case studies from Afghanistan Bolivia Burundi Colombia Myanmar Nepal New Zealand Northern Ireland Sri Lanka and Uruguay this book shows that cultural and structural violence can in turn lead to direct violence An effective program of peace education responds to these dynamics meeting our urgent problems and opening up new opportunities for peacebuilding With this direction in mind this book addresses the practices of peace education from around the world The fundamental question answered here is can peace be taught especially where the scars of war and legacies of colonialism are entrenched in society Peace education is foundational to a more equitable future where global citizens share a planet in justice equity with human security and all the elements of sustainable resilient peace Foremost it is an essential pillar for societies scarred by violence

The Moral Psychology of Terrorism Nathan Lean, Jalil Roshandel, 2013-07-29 Terrorism of the past ten years has been driven by the interface of psychology morality faith religion and politics This modern terrorism reflects terrorists pursuit of their beliefs and the aggressive promotion of the exclusivity of their world views at the expense of the lives of those who do not share them In this sense acts of terrorism are fueled by arguments of morality and views that are rooted in the psyches and beliefs of terrorists Thus it is critically important to examine the growing phenomenon of terrorism through not only a political lens but a psychological one as well where questions about the cognitive mappings of those who are considered terrorists are probed The examination of the moral psychology of terrorism opens up new insights into the real threats that face the global community This important volume brings out that discussion and seeks to understand what motivates people to kill both themselves and innocent bystanders How can we better understand this tragic human path towards violence Providing perspectives from several continents and academic disciplines the editors and contributors of this work move the study of terrorism away from its traditional center in the academic worlds of political science and security studies and present a wide range of perspectives that focus on psychology philosophy and questions of morality linguistics history religious studies and ethics Intended for the academic community and the general public alike these rich presentations and analyses are sure to foster a healthier more productive and more effective conversation about terrorism the minds of terrorists and how to reach a place where this violent phenomenon is less prevalent

Reconciling Enemy States in Europe and Asia Seunghoon

Emilia Heo, 2012-04-24 Heo conceptualizes reconciliation in International Relations theory and fills a gap by building a theoretical framework for interstate reconciliation Combining historical and political scientific approaches she analyses case studies from Europe the Middle East and Northeast Asia

Regional and Ethnic Conflicts Judy Carter, George Irani, Vamik D

Volkan, 2015-07-02 This book provides readers alternative first hand front line perspectives and insights on some of the major ethno-political conflicts plaguing the planet It promotes the cultivation of a global culture of conflict prevention and peace promotion

Theorising Civil Society Peacebuilding Emily E. Stanton, 2021-06-24 Using empirical qualitative research this book conceptualises and demonstrates the value of local practical knowledge for peacebuilding in the context of Northern Ireland There are increasing calls to involve local people to ensure legitimacy relevance and sustainability when seeking to build peace and transform violent conflict However as peacebuilding becomes increasingly professionalised this raises fundamental questions about whose knowledge matters for building peace and what kind of knowledge matters Seeking to address these questions and to learn from applied practice this book provides a qualitative empirical research study investigating 40 practitioners active in conflict transformation at a grassroots level in Northern Ireland over 50 years This research led not only to recapturing lost knowledge from practitioners but also to a neglected virtue the Aristotelian concept of practical wisdom phronesis This book argues that phronesis has deepened our understanding of why local practical knowledge is vitally important and calls for its global rediscovery as knowledge necessary for building sustainable peace This book will be of much interest to practitioners and students in the fields of peacebuilding conflict resolution philosophy and

British and Irish politics Contemporary Conflict Resolution Oliver Ramsbotham, Hugh Miall, Tom Woodhouse, 2011-04-11 Offering an assessment of the theory and practice of conflict resolution in post Cold War conflicts this book addresses a number of questions It explores the nature of contemporary conflict and the development of conflict resolution

Peace Building Through Reconciliation In Northern Ireland: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
