Peace Christian Living In A Violent World:

Peace Mary I. Farr,1995 Intersections are those crossroads in life where life experiences can draw us together and draw us closer to God The Intersections Small Group series helps church members integrate faith into their daily lives as they discover Bible based answers to questions about common life experiences The books are interactive easy to use and focus on important issues shared by all members Who Are Our Enemies and How Do We Love Them? Hyung Jin Kim

Sun,2020-10-27 Who are our enemies And what would it mean to love them Hyung Jin Kim Sun leads us on an exploration of God s call to love our enemies What did Jesus demonstrate and teach about loving enemies How is nonviolence connected to Christian faith and spirituality Isn t violence sometimes necessary Does loving our enemies really work What is the goal of enemy love and how can it be applied in our everyday lives This book won t answer every question about a Christian practice of nonviolence but it will lead toward a deeper faith as we consider how to live with enemies in a violent world The Jesus Way Small Books of Radical Faith delve into big questions about God s work in the world These concise practical books are deeply rooted in Anabaptist theology Crafted by a diverse community of internationally renowned scholars pastors and practitioners The Jesus Way series helps readers deepen their faith in Christ and enliven their witness Living Without Enemies

Samuel Wells,Marcia A. Owen,2011-05-31 Through her friendships with both victims and offenders Marcia Owen learned that being present was precisely the opposite of violence it was love In this book she and Samuel Wells offer deep insights into what it takes to overcome powerlessness transcend fear and engage in radical acceptance in our dangerous world

Practicing Discipleship Nicole L. Johnson,2009-06-01 Despite a plurality of doctrinal statements on war peace and nonviolence some United Methodists sustain a commitment to nonviolence Through qualitative research Practicing Discipleship draws out lived theologies of nonviolence in order to understand how nonviolent United Methodists define ground and practice nonviolence and to give that voice opportunity to challenge church doctrine and thereby the wider church An analysis of statements from the Book of Disciplines and the Book of Resolutions reveals the plurality of Methodist teachings on moral issues related to war and peace While such plurality is indicative of the inclusive tradition of United Methodism Johnson shows that it also causes confusion thus hindering the vitality and authority of the church s witness This study s qualitative analysis of in depth interviews with twelve nonviolent United Methodists reveals a lived theology rooted in Scripture and theological reflection it points particularly to a christocentrism that posits nonviolence as central to Christ s teachings and example While study participants affirm the tradition of openness in the United Methodist Church they also call for more tangible and extensive support for and education about nonviolence as a faithful option for Christians Through amicable and constructive practical theological dialogue doctrinal plurality and ecclesial openness are affirmed as appropriate and possible only within the context of the church s profound commitment to serious discipleship which includes transformation toward nonviolence Implications of this interaction include developing and adopting a more truthful conception of a nonviolent ethics moving toward broadly conceived Christian formation in nonviolence and fostering ongoing ecclesial dialogue about difficult moral issues of war peace and nonviolence Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies, Volume 19, Number 1 Dave Johnson, 2017-09-13 THE JOURNAL SEEKS TO PROVIDE A FORUM To encourage serious theological thinking and articulation by Pentecostals Charismatics in Asia to promote interaction among Asian Pentecostals Charismatics and dialogue with other Christian traditions to stimulate creative contextualization of the Christian faith and to provide a means for Pentecostals Charismatics to share their theological reflections Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition Graham Joseph Hill, 2017-06-13 Graham Hill's pioneering classic remains the seminal work on missional ecclesiology The bestselling first edition redefined theology for the missional church Hill builds biblical foundations in conversation with major theologians including Sarah Coakley John Zizioulas Stanley Hauerwas Miroslav Volf and Jurgen Moltmann In this major update he offers new insights and provides fresh examples of missional churches In the first edition Hill interacted with twelve major theologians to build a missional ecclesiology In this thoroughly updated edition he interacts with sixteen major theologians from the Western world This edition includes five new chapters and an expanded treatment on the key convictions of global missional theology It also offers a new study guide that has been uploaded on an innovative website linked to this book This expanded edition now becomes volume 1 in a series on missional ecclesiology In volume 2 Hill will turn our attention to voices from the Majority World Known for his groundbreaking approach to theology theology for the global missional community Hill shows how God is releasing his global church to mission across all cultures and Christian traditions This extensive update to Hill's influential work offers pioneering theology and practices that will continue to shape the global missional church for generations Contributors 1 Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI The Church as Communion 2 Karl Rahner The Church as Community of Witness 3 Hans Kung The Church as Eschatological Community of Salvation 4 Catherine LaCugna The Church as Trinitarian Community Eastern Orthodox 5 Thomas Hopko The Church as Fullness of God 6 Vigen Guroian The Church as Peculiar and Ethical Community 7 John Zizioulas The Church as Eucharistic Communion 8 Frederica Matthews Greene The Church as Praying and Transformed Community Protestant 9 Letty Russell The Church as Household of Freedom 10 Jurgen Moltmann The Church as Messianic and Relational Koinonia 11 John Webster The Church as Communion of Saints 12 Dana L Robert The Church as Global and Missional People Free Church 13 John Howard Yoder The Church as New Redeemed Community 14 Barry Harvey The Church as Altera Civitas 15 Miroslav Volf The Church as Image of the Trinity 16 Reta Halteman Finger The Church as World Transforming Homes Dictionary of Ethics, Theology and Society Paul A. B. Clarke, Andrew Linzey, 2013-11-05 This Dictionary provides a unique and groundbreaking survey of both the historical and contemporary interrelations between ethics theology and society In over 250 separately authored entries a selection of the world's leading scholars from many disciplines and many denominations present their own views on a wide range of topics Arranged alphabetically entries cover all aspects of philosophy theology ethics economics politics and government Each entry includes a concise definition of the term a description of the principal ideas behind it analysis of its history development and contemporary relevance a detailed bibliography giving the major sources in the field The entire field is prefaced by an editorial introduction outlining its scope and diversity Selected entries include Animal Rights Capital Punishment Communism Domestic Violence Ethics Evil Government Homophobia Humanism Liberation Theology Politics Pornography Racism Sexism Society Vivisection Women s Ordination Witness Is Presence Miika Tolonen,2014-01-07 In a postsecular cultural situation the conditions for understanding and communicating a Christian tradition have changed None of the established religions can any longer claim monopoly in the marketplace of religions A claim of this study is that a postsecular situation characterized among other things by dwindling memberships in established churches as well as a new visibility of alternative religious expressions opens up a need to reflect on alternative ways of understanding Christianity in its context This study focuses on the question how can a Christian tradition be communicated understandably in a postsecular context In traditional terms how can Christian witness be understood in our situation It is to this need according to this study that the ecclesiology of Stanley Hauerwas provides a meaningful perspective This perspective becomes relevant because in a postsecular context a Christian church even a folk church cannot assume to be in a position of majority or power There is therefore a need to ask how to understand Christianity as a community of witness that is neither in power nor a majority The study suggests that embodiment of Christian convictions becomes a central factor in a meaningful postsecular notion of witness The Many Sides of Peace Brayton Shanley,2013-03-05 The Many Sides of Peace comes out of thirty years of living in a Catholic lay community attempting to understand and practice the compelling ideas of gospel centered nonviolent love The book attempts to speak to the signs of these times for those who seek peace and liberation from both war and the looming ecological Armageddon It is a faith based on the revelation of Jesus and the conviction that a love that is nonviolent will save this environmentally threatened planet and its warlike people from an at risk status to a more peaceful and sustainable one This is a message of hope a how to live spiritual manual for human earth survival that can help create a bold and beautiful world God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey,2016-04-22 Who is God The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical pluralistic and interfaith age Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians David Burrell William Placher Bruce Marshall in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology philosophy and faith traditions this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts

From Violence to Peace Alex Deagon, 2017-08-24 This book contributes to the literature on jurisprudence and theology by arguing for the role of a theoretically robust Christian theology in a legal community dominated by secular and liberal ideology It is not a doctrinal or empirical analysis but a theoretical exposition of the way in which modern law has contingently drifted from its theological origins As a result the legal system and the ideal of individual and communal relationship it envisages is characterised by antagonism and alienation or more broadly violence The book contends that the way to restore a legal community of peace is to return to a Christian theology which is informed by Trinitarian thinking or the notion of unity in diversity and reunites faith with reason Returning reason to its ground in being allows peaceful persuasion by the revelation of God's perfect being through the Trinity and Incarnation which models and enables the peaceful coexistence of difference through self sacrificing love This in turn produces the law of love to love your neighbour as yourself Since love does no wrong to a neighbour a legal community operating by the law of love can fulfil the obligations of law by going beyond merely what is required by law and love individuals as part of a community

Take and Read Paul G. Doerksen, 2016-09-22 Take and Read is a collection of essays first presented as oral theological reflections on books written to stimulate conversations among diverse groups of readers which included farmers physicians teachers poets novelists scientists people involved in business finance relief work and many other walks of life ranging in age from twenty something to eighty These reflections introduce and offer samples of theological readings of a variety of books The result is a collection of essays addressing a wide range of topics from food security to violence from dementia to indigenous issues Perhaps this book is best described as an invitation to joining a conversation about books and more importantly about God

Christians and Violence Jean Lasserre, 2024-11-14 This marks the first English translation of renowned peace theologian Jean Lasserre's seminal work on non violence With introductory remarks from Fr d ric Rognon and the author's daughter Christiane Lasserre this book provides English readers a window into a powerful yet accessible text on Christian ethics In this classic essay Lasserre turns to the problem of physical violence and murder tackling it with a focus on morality and scripture Writing in the aftermath of the Second World War and the Algerian War Lasserre also deftly examines the ethics of military violence and warfare The Church told men for years that one could be an honourable Christian and a soldier this book delves into the two opposing realities of this sentiment with a powerful case for pacifism War in the Bible and Terrorism in the Twenty-First Century Richard S. Hess, Elmer A. Martens, 2008-06-30 In February 2004 Denver Seminary's annual Biblical Studies conference addressed the question of modern war and the teachings of biblical ethics regarding it The conference was envisioned as a collaborative effort between the Association for Christian Conferences Teaching and Service ACCTS and the Biblical Studies division of Denver Seminary A year earlier the invasion of Iraq had taken place The questions created by the outbreak of war prompted an urgency in the consideration of the topic ACCTS which sponsors international symposia in military ethics with officers from armed forces around the globe provided ethicists and practitioners from within the military of both the U S and Great Britain Hess and Martens also solicited papers from leading theologians and advocates representing pacifist and just war views They have succeeded in bringing together in this fine volume a group of Christians representing a wide range of perspectives to debate and discuss their heritage and biblical roots with regard to questions of war and its ethical dilemmas Gathered on the Road to Zion Daniel Lee Hill, 2021-04-26 Churches are filled with human beings It is as a community of human creatures that the church gathers together on Sunday mornings to worship the triune God and it is as a community of creatures that its members participate in the church's liturgical life However merely noting that the church and human beings are related to one another leaves the nature of this relationship unresolved and undefined And this raises an important question How should the doctrine of the church inform our understanding of what it means to be human This project is an exercise in ecclesio anthropology albeit from a Free Church perspective In it Daniel Lee Hill seeks to discover how the nature practices mission and telos of the church robustly inform our understanding of the human creature Issues Facing Christians Today Dr. John R.W. Stott, John Wyatt, 2011-04-19 Terrorism Same sex marriage Debt cancellation The AIDS pandemic These are just some of the critical contemporary issues addressed in this book Issues Facing Christians Today helps thinking Christians sift through and respond to a sweeping array of complex and pressing topics Thoroughly revised and updated by Roy McCloughry and fully endorsed by John Stott this fourth edition continues a two decades plus legacy of bringing important current issues under the lens of biblically informed thinking Combining a keen global awareness with a gift for penetrating analysis the authors examine such vital topics as Pluralism and Christian witness Cohabitation environmentalism and ecological stewardship War and peace Abortion and euthanasia And much more An entirely new chapter on bio engineering has been contributed by Professor John Wyatt of University College London Including a study guide Issues Facing Christians Today is essential reading for Christians who wish to engage our culture with insight passion and faith knowing that the gospel is as relevant and deeply needed today as at any time in history As the culture wars continue this book will remain a critical contribution helping to define Christian social and ethical thinking in the years ahead American Protestant Ethics and the Legacy of H. Richard Niebuhr William Werpehowski, 2002-09-20 In this careful analysis and evaluation of the monumental influence of Niebuhr Werpehowski traces four streams that flow from Niebuhr's theology particularly as it deals with ethics In a tightly knit and comprehensive investigation of the work of four contemporary ethicists important in their own right Paul Ramsey Stanley Hauerwas James Gustafson and Kathryn Tanner Werpehowski explores how the legacy of Niebuhr has made an impact on their thought and work He presents a clear concise nuanced analytical criticism of the development of the four ethicists' construction of ethics and does it in a way that interweaves and puts the four into a dialogue and conversation with Niebuhr and each other Addressing a number of substantive issues including the viability of just war tradition and the relationship between church and world American Protestant Ethics and the Legacy of H. Richard Niebuhr demonstrates that Christian ethics operates within a set of polar tensions and that such conversations as are developed within need to be a part of moral discourse inside and between a variety of communities of faith Ecotherapy Howard Clinebell, 2013-12-19 Here is a trailblazing book on issues of vital interest to the future of humankind Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth sheds light on humankind's most serious health challenge ever how to save our precious planet as a clean viable habitat As a guide for therapists health professionals pastoral counselors teachers medical healers and especially parents Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth highlights readers' strategic opportunities to help our endangered human species cope constructively with the unprecedented challenge of saving a healthful planet for future generations Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth introduces readers to an innovative approach to ecologically grounded personality theory spirituality ecotherapy and education The book shares the author's well developed theories and methods of ecological diagnosis treatment and education so professionals and parents our most influential teachers can rise to the challenge of saving our planet Readers will find that the book helps them accomplish this goal as it explores an expanded ecologically grounded theory of personality development the missing dimension in understanding human identity formation outlines a model for doing ecologically oriented psychotherapy counseling medical healing teaching and parenting describes life saving perspectives for making one's lifestyle more earth caring demonstrates the importance of hope humor and love suggests how these earthy approaches may be utilized in a variety of social contexts and cultures A systematic theory and practice guidebook Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth fills a wide gap in both the counseling and therapy literature and the ecology literature It offers an innovative model for fulfilling the ecological circle between humans and nature with three action dimensions These are self care by being intentionally nurtured by nature spiritual enrichment by enjoying the transcendent Spirit in nature and responding by nurturing nature more responsibly and lovingly The theories and practical applications presented in the book come together to explore long overlooked issues at the boundary between human health and the health of the natural environment Psychotherapists health professionals and teachers pastoral counselors and other clergy who counsel and teach laypersons who are parents and grandparents and individuals and groups interested in environmental issues will find Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth essential for approaching the long neglected earthy roots of the total human mind body spirit organism The God of Peace John Dear, 2005-03-08 The God of peace is never glorified by human violence Thomas Merton The God of Peace John Dear's classic theology of nonviolence broke new ground when it was first published as a breakthrough toward a new understanding of scripture theology social concerns and churches issues from the perspective of Gospel nonviolence in the tradition of Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Dorothy Day This ground breaking study begins not just with the culture of violence but the nonviolence of God and the revolutionary nonviolence of Jesus From the start John Dear explores traditional areas of theology such as Christology Trinitarian Theology anthropology sin redemption theodicy salvation ecclesiology eschatology spirituality liturgy Catholic social teaching the just war theory feminism liberation theology and the consistent ethic of life This text will help university and theology students pursuing the theology and spirituality of nonviolence as well as ordinary Christians and activists interested in the crucial connection between war and violence and God and nonviolence
