

A scenic landscape featuring a river winding through a valley between mountains. The sun is low on the horizon to the left, creating a warm, golden glow and long shadows. The mountains are covered in dense forest, and the river reflects the light from the sky.

Peace Like A River The Arad And The Jew:

Peace Like a River Josie Juda, 1973 Arab-Jewish Activism in Israel-Palestine Marcelo Svirsky, 2016-04-15 Applying the insights of Deleuze and Guattari's works to Israel Palestine Arab Jewish Activism in Israel Palestine sets out to reconceptualise the relationship between resistance and power in ethnically segregated spaces in general and the Israeli Palestine context in particular Combining many years of ethnographic study and political and social activism with a solid theoretical conceptual framework Marcelo Svirsky convincingly argues that successful efforts to decolonise the region depend on taking the struggle beyond self determination and making it collaborative Decolonisation depends on political and cultural changes that elaborate on the historical partition of social life in the region that have been an issue since the early twentieth century This elaboration means producing a civil struggle aimed at the destabilisation of the Zionist supremacy and resulting in a democratic political community from the Mediterranean Sea to the Jordan River Simply not just another book on Israel and Palestine Arab Jewish Activism in Israel Palestine provides refreshingly new empirical evidence and theoretical analysis on the connection between resistance intercultural alliances civil society and the potential for actualising shared sociabilities in a conflict ridden society An indispensable read to all scholars wishing to gain original insights into the transversal connections which transcend ethnicity Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace, Second Edition Laura Zittrain Eisenberg, Neil Caplan, 2010-07-14 Thoroughly updated and expanded this new edition of Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab Israeli conflict and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that seem to repeatedly derail efforts to achieve peace In a lively and accessible style Laura Zittrain Eisenberg and Neil Caplan examine eight case studies of recent Arab Israeli diplomatic encounters from the Egyptian Israeli peace of 1979 to the beginning of the Obama administration in light of the historical record By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits this book makes possible a coherent comparison of over sixty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and gives readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future We Look Like the Enemy Rachel Shabi, 2009-07-01 Rachel Shabi was born in Israel to Jewish Iraqi parents When she was a child her family emigrated to the United Kingdom in 1974 Their leaving reversed the spiritual trek of the Jewish Diaspora around the world whose members wistfully repeat at the Passover tables Next year in Jerusalem Years later in fact Shabi went back to visit and to live for an extended period but her attitude toward her former homeland is conflicted by the longstanding discrimination suffered by Arab Jews in Israel Shortly after its creation Israel accepted close to one million Jews from Arab lands from Yemen Egypt Morocco Syria Tunisia Algeria Iraq Iran and Turkey Mizrahi Middle Eastern Jews now make up around 50% of Israel's population Yet Ashkenazi Jews have traditionally disparaged the Mizrahi as backward and have systematically limited their opportunities in the classroom and the workplace There is a class split writes Shabi that runs on ethnic lines She traces the history of how the Jewish Diaspora lived alongside Muslims and Christians for centuries and how the dream of Jewish solidarity within Israel in the mid 20th century was fractured by ethnic discrimination as pernicious as racism in the United States Great Britain and other parts of the world Shabi combines scholarly research with intimate oral history to shed light on ethnic injustice and her personal story and passion make We Look Like the Enemy a stunning unforgettable book Jewish Palestine/Arab Palestine Second Edition Debra Cohen,2025-01-27 Jewish Palestine Arab Palestine Second Edition is a fact based historical analysis of the Israeli Palestinian conflict examining the true origins of Palestine British colonial policies failed peace efforts and modern geopolitical struggles Author Debra Cohen challenges revisionist narratives highlighting Jewish indigenous ties to the land while exposing media bias propaganda and political manipulation With updated chapters on Hamas 2023 attacks the refugee crisis and the rise of Zionist advocacy groups this book is an essential resource for scholars policymakers and anyone seeking clarity on Israel s ongoing fight for survival and legitimacy Praying for the Peace of Jerusalem Douglas W.

Kittredge,2023-06-23 About the Book Having the privilege to work with and caring for Palestinian and Messianic Jewish pastors for twenty five years Douglas saw the anguish and suffering of both Palestinians and Jews and longed for reconciliation between the two groups These pastors have become dear friends and both sides have suffered greatly from the injuries caused by the other side Douglas experienced some of the hopelessness of a resolution particularly from their political leaders God promises that He will bring peace for both groups so they can genuinely reconcile with the other This book is written to give hope for both Palestinians and Jews About the Author Douglas W Kittredge is a pastor who has engaged in reconciliation between Messianic Jews and Palestinian believers for over twenty five years The vision is to support the ministry of local Messianic and Palestinian congregations both in Israel and the West Bank The roots of the conflicts in the region are not essentially political but are spiritual The gospel of Jesus Christ alone can heal the fractures and conflicts in the Middle East The author is a graduate of Wheaton College BA Westminster Theological Seminary M Div and Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary D Min The Search for Peace in the Arab-Israeli Conflict Terje Rød-Larsen,Nur

Justice and Peace in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Yaacov Bar Siman Tov,2014-09-19 In this book the late Prof Yaacov Bar Siman Tov argues that the failure of the Israeli Palestinian peace process so far has been mainly the result of the inability of both sides to reach an agreed formula for linking justice to peace The issues of justice and injustice are focused mainly on the outcomes of the 1947 1949 first Arab Israeli War and specifically in the creation of the Palestinian refugee problem The conflicting historical narratives of the two sides regarding the question of responsibility for the injustice done to the Palestinians turn the Israeli Palestinian conflict into a classic case of linking the issues of justice and peace Yaacov Bar Siman Tov maintains that the narratives of justice and injustice in the Israeli Palestinian conflict have proved to be formidable barriers to peace Hence he recommends that justice should be compromised for the sake of peace The link between justice and peace is an important issue requiring both sides attention but given the wide and currently unbridgeable gap separating the two sides it should be postponed to the phase of reconciliation rather than being included in the process of conflict resolution The two state solution is endorsed as the best and practical solution and as a first step for a just peace in this conflict to be followed by reconciliation Highly topical this book is essential reading for scholars and researchers of International Relations Peace Studies and the Arab Israeli conflict

The Other Walls Harold H. Saunders, 2015-03-08 Drawing on intensive firsthand experience gained during the most successful years of Arab Israeli peace negotiations Harold Saunders explains the complexities of the peace process it was not just a series of negotiated agreements but negotiation embedded in a larger political process In the first edition of The Other Walls Saunders argued persuasively that until leaders change the political environment by lowering the human and political barriers to peace negotiators stand little chance Now he places that focus on political process in the context of a new world where familiar concepts of international relations no longer provide adequate explanations for events and where the tools of statecraft do not produce expected results In the wake of the Gulf War Saunders suggests how insights from earlier Arab Israeli peace negotiations can lead to a broader regional process Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
