too often seen as a clash of civilizations some believe there is another way a path that involves engagement dialogue and respect In Thomas Michel s new book Peace and Dialogue in a Plural Society he explores how Fethullah Gulen is one of those speaking most vocally in favor of a world community where different faiths and nations can come together at one table to solve the multitude of problems facing today s world Exploring the spiritual roots of Gulen and the Hizmet Movement as well as drawing parallels between his own work as a Catholic priest Michel shows how Hizmet has helped build a blueprint for intercultural communication in a time when too many voices are trying to stoke the fires of discord Through education dialogue and a respect for basic human dignity Michel finds a foundation in Gulen s faith and Hizmet s service upon which a healthy diverse society can be built

Peace on Earth Edwin Jones, 2016-05-27 This book posits that it is not possible for a civilization to maintain a human and humane culture without the assistance of religion Religion can be misused or abused into having a negative effect but an authentic religion when properly managed is the only effective source of durable common and humane values throughout society Religion s assertion of the existence of God who alone provides the transcendent power is the only logical basis for asserting and maintaining common values for all people going far above and beyond the indiscriminate and multifarious opinions of diverse and imperfect human beings Some people can maintain certain values derived from their own consciences but human history and psychoanalysis shows that the majority of people cannot sustain a whole culture or civilization from a purely utilitarian and materialistic basis Human nature is imperfect and needs the help of a transcendent power to support its spiritual needs in a humane society and to create a culture or civilization that lasts

Dialogue Analysis IX: Dialogue in Literature and the Media, Part 2: Media Anne Betten, Monika Dannerer, 2011-12-22 These two volumes offer a selection of the papers held at the conference of the International Association for Dialogue Analysis IADA in 2003 Volume I contains 38 articles devoted to dialogue and the phenomenon of dialogicity in literature ranging from antiquity to a large number of modern languages and literatures The conversation analytic approaches drawn upon are notable for their methodological diversity This is also true of the 32 articles in Volume II The main focus here is on present day types of dialogue in the new electronic media and their traditional counterparts press radio television film The examples are taken from various countries and they are discussed in terms of the intercultural semiotic translatorial and general pragmatic issues they pose The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2003 Dialogue Among the Faith Communities Lucien F. Cosijns, 2008 After twenty five centuries of rapid human evolution dialogue has now come to be a word and concept of daily use in the media and a theme of discussion all over the world In this current period of our human history the centuries long struggle for survival and our belligerent confrontation with each other is being replaced by a new era of collaboration in dialogue The most intriguing aspect of this new dialogue is that the interfaith conversation has extended worldwide within the past fifteen years Ultimately this new conversation has resulted in efforts towards a corroborative dialogue between the world of faiths and the political world This book's aim is to sketch this striking movement in its philosophical and religious evolution and expression The State of Things for 1831, Exhibited in a Dialogue Between the Old Year and the New Year. By a Clergyman CLERGYMAN., 1831 Christ in the Gospels of the Liturgical Year Raymond E. Brown, 2012-05-03 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner A decade after the untimely death of renowned Scripture scholar Father Raymond E Brown SS he continues to inspire and inform scholars and preachers students and pastoral ministers lay and ordained It was only days after Father Brown's death that his final book was published by Liturgical Press That book Christ in the Gospels of the Ordinary Sundays completed his six volume series on preaching the Scriptures a series that had begun in the mid 1970s with the publication of his popular An Adult Christ at Christmas Those six volumes are collected here in one convenient commemorative edition to mark the tenth anniversary of Brown's death Brown's work is left largely untouched and readers will find that his wisdom is lasting Yet Brown being a scholar's scholar would recognize the need for some enhancement in a work being republished some thirty years after the first volume appeared Appropriately then this edition contains introductory essays by Brown's colleagues and friends John R Donahue SJ and Ronald D Witherup SS as well as useful indexes and a bibliography of resources for preaching the word of God in the context of the lectionary As Witherup notes in his preface Brown had the rare capacity to simplify complex biblical studies in a manner that did not dumb down the material but allowed it to be understood by a wide audience He did this in a fashion that was both inspiring and educational That very broad audience those who grew up with Brown so to speak as well as a whole new generation of readers and preachers of the word will find this book to be a source of inspiration and knowledge that they will turn to again and again Raymond E Brown S S 1928 1998 was the Auburn Distinguished Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York City He was author of some forty books on the Bible and past president of three of the most important biblical societies in the world By appointment of two popes Pal VI in 1972 John Paul II in 1996 Brown was a member of the Roman Pontifical Biblical Commission Time magazine called him probably the premier Catholic Scripture scholar of the U S The United States Institute of Peace Journal ,1991
