Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on Arms Control, Oceans, and International Environment,1982 Producing Spoilers Joyce Dalsheim,2014-07-01 Supporters of Hamas and radical religious Israeli settlers seem to serve one purpose in the international peace process to provide an excuse for its failure High level diplomatic negotiators and grassroots peace activists alike blame religious extremists for acting as spoilers of rational negotiation and have often attempted to neutralize co opt or marginalize them In Producing Spoilers Joyce Dalsheim explores the problem of stalled peacemaking by viewing spoilers not as the cause but as a symptom of systemic malfunctions within the concept of the nation state itself and the secular constructs of historicism that support it She argues that spoilers are generated as internal enemies in the course of conflict and used to explain why processes of peace and reconciliation fail In other words peacemaking efforts can work to produce enmity Focusing on the case of Israel and Palestine Dalsheim shows how processes of conflict resolution diplomacy dialogue education and social theorizing about liberation peace and social justice actually participate in constructing enemies thus limiting the options for peaceful outcomes Dalsheim examines the work of politicians and diplomats as well as scholars and grass roots level peacemakers drawing on her research and her own experience as an activist for peace She identifies a number of common techniques and assumptions that help to produce spoilers among them the constraints of the narrative form and how storytelling is employed in conflict resolution and the idea of anachronism which prevents theorists and activists from seeing creative possibilities for peaceful coexistence Dalsheim also looks at the limits of territorial solutions and the consequences of nationalism the context in which spoilers of the Israeli Palestinian conflict are produced She contrasts that nationalism with current theorizing on flexible citizenship and diasporic identity The book culminates by moving beyond national enmity and outside conventional peacemaking to clear a space in which to think about alternative forms of negotiation exchange community and coexistence Encyclopedia of Women and American Politics, Third Edition Lynne Ford,2021-07-01 Encyclopedia of Women and American Politics Third Edition contains all the material a reader needs to understand the role of women throughout America s political history This informative A to Z volume contains hundreds of entries covering the people events and terms involved in the history of women and politics Entries include Abortion Alexandria Ocasio Cortez The birth control movement Black Lives Matter Hillary Rodham Clinton Deb Haaland Domestic violence Equal Rights Amendment ERA Glass ceiling League of Women Voters MeToo movement Michelle Obama Sonia Sotomayor Elizabeth Warren and many more Everybody's Magazine, 1916 Emily Greene Balch Kristen E. Gwinn, 2010-10-01 A well known American academic and cofounder of Boston's first settlement house Emily Greene Balch was an important Progressive Era reformer and advocate for world peace Balch served as a professor of economics and sociology at Wellesley College for twenty years until her opposition to World War I resulted with the board of trustees to refusing to renew her contract Afterwards Balch continued to emphasize the importance of international institutions for preventing and reconciling conflicts She was awarded a Nobel Peace Prize in 1946 for her efforts in cofounding and leading the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF In tracing Balch's work at Wellesley for the WILPF and for other peace movements Kristen E Gwinn draws on a rich collection of primary sources such as letters lectures a draft of Balch's autobiography and proceedings of the WILPF and other organizations in which Balch held leadership roles Gwinn illuminates Balch's ideas on negotiated peace internationalism global citizenship and diversity while providing pointed insight into her multifaceted career philosophy and temperament Detailing Balch's academic research on Slavic immigration and her arguments for greater cultural and monetary cohesion in Europe Gwinn shows how Balch's scholarship and teaching reflected her philosophical development This first scholarly biography of Balch helps contextualize her activism while taking into consideration changes in American attitudes toward war and female intellectuals in the early twentieth century Pluriversal Literacies Romeo Garcia, Ellen Cushman, Damián Baca, 2024-01-02 Decolonial projects can end up reinforcing dominant modes of thinking by shoehorning understandings of Indigenous and non Western traditions within Eurocentric frameworks The pluralization of literacies and the creation of so called alternative rhetorics accepts that there is a totalizing reality of rhetoric and literacy This volume seeks to decenter these theories and to engage Indigenous contexts on their own terms starting with the very tools of representation Language itself can disrupt normative structures and create pluriversal possibilities The volume editors and contributors argue for epistemic change at the level of the language and media that people use to represent meaning The range of topics covered includes American Indian and Indigenous representations literacies and rhetorics critical revisionist historiography and comparative rhetorics delinking colonial literacies of cartographic power and modernity northern and southern hemispheric relations and theorizations of from oceanic border spaces Multidimensional Heart Héléne Konokovi Abiassi, 2022-08-22 When we speak about the heart we often talk about sentimental and emotional matters Nonetheless what I mean to explore here is the heart as a chakra as an energy center as an intelligence and as pure love In the heart one can deal with and work on all subjects However in this day and age human beings are programmed and conditioned to experience life through another energy center the mental chakra which is also very important Today we talk about the heart chakra as a center of energy and strength it is a combination This is about so much more than I can describe We all have many bodies you can imagine them as Russian dolls stacked inside one another Because of our experience and because of the decisions we make as human beings our energy will activate many of these bodies and the heart chakra activates many others Our personal development goes through balancing and aligning all our chakras and energy centers and what our service here is about is to give attention to and to reach the heart chakra This approach is very enriching and it expands this chakra We develop ourselves in a personal and deep way throughout our evolutionary journey The heart chakra is very caring with us in the true sense of the word care First of all it loves us and it teaches us to find this love in ourselves I am not talking about vanity nor narcissism I am talking about a real deep love about accepting our reality and the being that we truly are
