The Publishers Weekly , 1917 Childlike Peace in Merleau-Ponty and Levinas Brock Bahler, 2016-08-01 By examining the parent child relationship Childlike Peace in Merleau Ponty and Levinas argues that the primordial structure of our personal encounters with others should be understood as a dialectical spiral Drawing on the work of twentieth century philosophers Maurice Merleau Ponty and Emmanuel Levinas and informed by recent advances in cognitive neuroscience and child development Brock Bahler develops a phenomenological description of the parent child relationship in order to articulate an account of intersubjectivity that is fundamentally ethically oriented dialogical and mutually dynamic This dialectical spiral in contrast to Cartesian tradition of the subject and the Hegelian master slave dialectic suggests that our lives are equi-primordially interwoven with both the richness of mutual engagement and the responsibility to be for the other The parent child relationship provides the basis for a theoretical account of intersubjectivity that is marked by a creative interaction between self and other that cannot be reduced to an economic exchange a totalizing structure or a unilateral asymmetrical responsibility In conversation with the philosophical thought of Merleau Ponty Levinas Hegel Sartre and Freud as well as recent research in cognitive neuroscience and child development this work will be of interest for those working in the fields of continental philosophy embodied cognition philosophy of childhood psychoanalysis psychology philosophy for children P4C and education Mindful leadership for sustainable peace Thich Duc Thien, Thich Nhat Tu, 2019-04-16

EDITORS INTRODUCTION BACKGROUND We are experiencing an unprecedented period where wide ranging and disruptive major global change is taking place around us In this context the theme of Mindful Leadership and Sustainable Development provides a point of reference and pathway for understanding the contemporary chaotic situations These disruptive changes challenge our understanding and meaning of humanity and truly question whether or not we are able to live in a society where justice equality peace and prosperity abound In the Buddhist light a focus is placed on understanding the Buddhist teachings to develop solutions for dealing with these wide ranging problems Both the scope of change and the response from a Buddhist approach are core to the content of this volume It is of paramount importance that any investigation and development of solutions for the changes taking place require guidance from the Buddhist philosophy As a starting point for discussion an initial focus is placed on providing a thorough and critical understanding of the character and context of change In doing so we also seek to clarify and outline the nature of a Buddhist approach In completing this review it is productive to see that given the complex issues being dealt with the papers do generate different frameworks and viewpoints within the broad term of approach The frameworks based on the Buddha's teachings are not fully fixed and agreed upon by all Therefore our term approach refers to a set of arrangements and viewpoints that act to inspire further discussion and development Given the above context this volume is a collection of conference papers presented and published for the panel on the first sub theme of UNDV 2019 on Mindful Leadership for Sustainable Peace on 13 May 2019 at the Tam Chuc International Convention Center Ha Nam Vietnam The panel commemorates the occasion of the 16th United Nations Day of Vesak Celebrations 2019 Through the contributions of participants and their papers at this workshop this volume provides a diverse and rich range of thinking and wisdom rather than more traditional mainstream thinking or conventional wisdom

Treating the Buddha's teachings as a basic theoretical reconstruction we examine the relationships between societies and Buddhism. We combine the analyses of the conflicts, trends and dynamics affecting future global development with focused studies on a range of policy areas for improving societies. In the Buddhist light, our two most crucial aims in this period of disruption are to greatly increase the influence and impact of Buddhism as our foremost duty and that the Buddhist responsibility contributes to creating a new foundation for Mindful Leadership and Sustainable Development.

Gāyatrī, the Highest Meditation Keshavadas (Satguru Sant), 1990. The highest Meditation describes the Gayatri, the mantra which helps the higher man to be born in us all. Sant Keshavadas profoundly tells the meaning and many facets: water, rites, sitting posture, time, atmosphere, breath control, pronunciation of sacred sounds of this ancient meditation. There are few books available on the Gayatri meditation in English. Professor T. K. Venkateswaran of the Department of Religious Studies, University of Detroit, praises Sant Keshavadas' work and states that if the Gayatri Mantra is understood, repeated and meditated upon in the manner in which it is presented in this book, it will illumine the intellect and produce the highest bliss, creativity and success in the world.

'Growth in the knowledge of our Lord', meditations, adapted by a 'daughter of the Cross' Charles Michel A. de Brandt, 1883.

Meditation, Defining your Space Elizabeth Banfalvi, 2014-06-06. The practice of meditation is very fulfilling and can be enhanced by using different what I call helpers. They help us keep our meditation practice alive, active and enlivened. Our lives change constantly and our meditations are able to mirror these changes. Celebrate often and learn to honour these victories. At other times we go through low points through loss or dramatic changes and these helpers can help add an encouragement or healing aspect. Whatever the reason, Defining Your Space contains information concerning many different aspects which help us attain what we need or aspire to. Learn about themes, ceremonies and rituals. These familiar practices can help keep us coming back often. The more we learn, the better our practice. Crystals, tarot cards, numerology, colours and candles add dimension. Astrological elements, time and directions help us define or change our course. Scents, music, colours and our senses help guide us to enliven our sensations. Incorporating nature is so important to help keep us grounded and to appreciate what is there for us on this beautiful planet. Whether it is symbology or our senses, incorporating different aspects can help us make life changes. Use Defining Your Space to help you discover and enjoy many different ways to transform your practice. It is the difference between a simple and a more enhanced practice. Even simplicity can be enhanced.

Buddhist Meditation Sarah Shaw, 2006-04-18. Meditative practice lies at the heart of the Buddhist tradition. This introductory anthology gives a representative sample of the various kinds of meditations described in the earliest body of Buddhist scripture, the Pali canon. It provides a broad introduction to their traditional context and practice and supplies explanation, context and doctrinal background to the subject of meditation. The main themes of the book are the diversity and flexibility of the way that the Buddha teaches meditation from the evidence of the canon. Covering fundamental features of Buddhist practice such as posture, lay meditation and meditative technique, it provides comments both from the principal early commentators on Buddhist practice Upatissa and Buddhaghosa and from reputable modern meditation teachers in a number of Theravadin traditions This is the first book on Pali Buddhism which introduces the reader to the wide range of the canon It demonstrates that the Buddha s meditative tradition still offers a path of practice as mysterious awe inspiring yet as freshly accessible as it was centuries ago and will be of interest to students and scholars of Buddhism as well as Buddhist practitioners
