Ending War, Building Peace Lynda-Ann Blanchard, Leah Chan, 2022-05-18 The US led invasion and occupation of Iraq led to more than a million people being killed displaced five million from their homes and shattered countless more lives It was a colossal premeditated war crime Leaders of governments in the countries responsible for this enormity seek to minimise and forget about it to move on We must not let them because they want to retain the option of making the same political decisions condemning more innocent people to death somewhere else in the future Contributors to this book are united in saying never again They examine how and why this unmitigated disaster for humanity was allowed to happen and how we can prevent it being repeated And they imagine more peaceful ways to engage with conflicts and crises in times to come It raises a question what will you do to help end war and build peace Preacher and Homiletic Monthly, 1910

Saturday Review of Literature, 1925 Feminist Solutions for Ending War Megan MacKenzie, Nicole Wegner, 2021-11-20 War is a man's game or so goes the saying Whether this is true or not patriarchal capitalism is certainly one of the driving forces behind war in the modern era So can we end war with feminism This book argues that this is possible and is in fact already happening Each chapter provides a solution to war using innovative examples of how feminist and queer theory and practice inform pacifist treaties movements and methods from the international to the domestic spheres The contributors propose a range of solutions that include arms abolition centring Indigenous knowledge economic restructuring and transforming how we count civilian deaths Ending war requires challenging complex structures but the solutions found in this edition have risen to this challenge By thinking beyond the violence of the capitalist patriarchy this book makes the powerful case that the possibility of life without war is real Congressional Record United States.

Peace ,1928     The New Art of War Geoffrey F. Weiss, 2021-09-02 Many of war's lethal failures are attributable to ignorance caused by a dearth of contemporary accessible theory to inform warfighting strategy and policy To remedy this problem Colonel Geoffrey F Weiss offers an ambitious new survey of war's nature character and future in the tradition of Sun Tzu and Clausewitz He begins by melding philosophical and military concepts to reveal war's origins and to analyze war theory's foundational ideas Then leveraging science philosophy and the wisdom of war's master theorists Colonel Weiss presents a genuinely original framework and lexicon that characterizes and clarifies the relationships between humanity politics strategy and combat explains how and why war changes form offers a methodology for forecasting future war and ponders the permanence of war as a human activity The New Art of War is an indispensable guide for understanding human conflict that will change how we think and communicate about war     The Fateful Year Mark Bostridge, 2014-01-02 The Fateful Year by Mark Bostridge is the story of England in 1914 War with Germany so often imagined and predicted finally broke out when people were least prepared for it Here among a crowded cast of unforgettable characters are suffragettes armed with axes destroying works of art schoolchildren going on strike in support of their teachers and celebrity aviators thrilling spectators by looping the loop A theatrical diva prepares to shock her audience while an English poet in the making sets out on a midsummer railway journey that will result in the creation of a poem that remains loved and widely known to this day With the coming of war England is beset by rumour and foreboding There is hysteria about German spies fears of invasion while patriotic women hand out white feathers to men who have failed to rush to their country's defence In the book's final pages a bomb falls from the air onto British soil for the first time and people live in expectation of air raids As 1914 fades out England is preparing itself for the prospect of a war of long duration Mark Bostridge won the Gladstone Memorial Prize at Oxford University His first book Vera Brittain A Life was shortlisted for the Whitbread Biography Prize the NCR NonFiction Award and the Fawcett Prize His books also include the bestselling Letters from a Lost Generation Lives for Sale a collection of biographers tales Because You Died a selection of Vera Brittain's First World War poetry and prose and Florence Nightingale The Woman and her Legend which was named as a Wall Street Journal Best Book of 2008 and awarded the Elizabeth Longford Prize for Historical Biography The Fateful Year was shortlisted for the PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize for History 2015     Ending War Chiara De Franco, Anders Engberg-Pedersen, Martin Mennecke, 2021-11-29 Ending War A Dialogue across Disciplines examines how wars end from a multidisciplinary perspective and includes enquiries into the politics of war the laws of war and the military and intellectual history of war In recent years the changes in the character of contemporary warfare have created uncertainties across different disciplines about how to identify and conceptualise the end of war A whole constellation of questions arises from such uncertainties How do philosophers define ethical responsibilities in bello and post bellum if the boundary between war and peace is ever so blurred How do strategists define their objectives if the teleology of action becomes uncertain How do historians bracket the known endings of war and delve into the arguments that preceded them Which answers can international law provide for the ending of wars and which challenges remain or have recently arisen This volume addresses these questions and enables both an understanding of how the end as a concept informs the understanding of war in international relations in international law and in history as well as a reconsideration of the nature of scientific method in the field of war studies as such The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Strategic Studies International Political Science Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-02-14 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels The Central Law Journal ,1919 Vols 65 96 include Central law journal s international law list Toward a Theory of Peace Randall Caroline Watson Forsberg,2019-12-15 Military analyst peace activist teacher and social theorist Randall Caroline Watson Forsberg 1943 2007 founded the Nuclear Freeze campaign and the Institute for Defense and Disarmament Studies In Toward a Theory of Peace completed in 1997 and published for the first time here she delves into a vast literature in psychology anthropology archeology sociology and history to examine the ways in which changing moral beliefs came to stigmatize forms of socially sanctioned violence such as human sacrifice cannibalism and slavery eventually rendering them unacceptable Could the same process work for war Edited and with an introduction by political scientists Matthew Evangelista Cornell University and Neta C Crawford Boston University both of whom worked with Forsberg Sword of the Spirit, Shield of Faith Andrew Preston,2012-02-28 A first major work of history on a crucial but under examined topic Sword of the Spirit Shield of Faith explores the role of religion in American foreign policy From the first colonists to the presidents of the 21st Century Andrew Preston s unparalleled study show us how religion has always shaped America s relationships with other nations and what to expect in the future During the presidency of George W Bush many Americans and others around the world viewed the entrance of religion into foreign policy discourse especially with regard to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan as a new development But despite the official division between church and state the presence of religion in American foreign policy has been a constant since before the Founding Fathers Yet aside from leaders known to be personally religious such as Bush Jimmy Carter and Woodrow Wilson few realize how central faith has always been to American governance and diplomacy and indeed to the idea of America itself In Sword of the Spirit Shield of Faith Andrew Preston starts at the beginning and with revelatory findings shows us how and why Ethics Beyond War's End Eric Patterson,2012-03-02 Rev essays from a conference held in Apr 2010 at Georgetown University Congressional Representation for the District of Columbia United States.
