Peace Or War:

Thinking about Peace and War Martin Ceadel, 1987 In the first book to offer a coherent intellectual framework for the study of proposals for the prevention of war Ceadel disentangles three strategic dimensions of the nuclear issue the global balance between the U S and Russia the European crisis and the British position and analyzes the cases for and against nuclear deterrence Peace and War Charlie Ogden, 2017-08 This important series helps young people gain an understanding of values as they increase in complexity beyond their own personal experiences By learning to appreciate the diversity of cultures and faiths of the people around them they will discover what it means to be part of a society We see and hear news about conflict around the world on an almost daily basis Discussions about peace and war encourage us to consider questions about human rights the consequences of war and how peace may be achieved Case studies help readers put information into context including the reasons civil wars break out and the circumstances that lead countries into global conflicts Book jacket Essays on Peace & War William Ladd, 1827 War and Peace and War Peter Turchin, 2007-02-27 From the author of End Times In War and Peace and War Peter Turchin uses his expertise in evolutionary biology to offer a bold new theory about the course of world history Turchin argues that the key to the formation of an empire is a society's capacity for collective action He demonstrates that high levels of cooperation are found where people have to band together to fight off a common enemy and that this kind of cooperation led to the formation of the Roman and Russian empires and the United States But as empires grow the rich get richer and the poor get poorer conflict replaces cooperation and dissolution inevitably follows Eloquent and rich with historical examples War and Peace and War offers a bold new theory about the course of world history with implications for nations today Does Peace Lead to War? Matthew Hughes, Matthew S. Seligmann, 2002 Drawing on a series of pertinent case studies the authors provide a comprehensive and cohesive study that answers the question of why peace has so often failed in the modern era Peace, War, and Computers Chris Hables Gray, 2005 Computers are at the heart of war today but even the best missile defense system envisioned by the military would have been useless against box cutters on September 11 Creator of the cult classic Cyborg Handbook and author of Cyborg Citizen hailed by Wired magazine as a ripping good yarn Chris Hables Gray argues that rapid technological development is the order of the day and our future will be determined by who uses it and for what terror or peace A visionary and disarming overview of cyberwar in the twenty first century Peace War and Computers looks beyond the gadgets of techno warfare and the early predictions of a purely cyberspace war to reveal how electronic culture has changed the way we wage war and strive for peace Unmanned aircraft soon to be followed by remote control naval fleets may appear to make warfare more sterile less bloody But as the fighting in Iraq has shown superior technology does not guarantee quick or bloodless victories Essential reading for anyone interested in computers politics and the cutting edge of military strategy and theory Peace War and Computers unlocks the power and pitfalls of computers for war and peace in a world where total war is as unthinkable as apocalyptic war is possible Book jacket Peace and War ,1823 Why War? Nicholas Murray Butler,1940 Appeals to public opinion made during the years 1938 and 1939 on either side of the Atlantic Their object is two fold first to convince leaders of public opinion that the only sure way to prevent war is for the nations of the world to unite to remove the causes of war and second that violent hostilities having broken out the minds of men must now be turned to such post war settlement of those differences which have brought about hostilities as will pave the way to an orderly and peaceful world Introd Peace/Mir Charles Chatfield,Ruzanna Ilukhina,1994-04-01 This ambitious anthology a unique joint undertaking of the Institute Of Universal History in the United States documents the long search for alternatives to war in order to help students and teachers scholars and civic minded people to explore ways of thinking about peace War, Peace, and the Future Ellen Key,1916 The Advocate of Peace ,1903 The Rights of War and Peace Hugo Grotius,Archibald Colin Campbell,1901 What Young People Ought to Know about War and Peace ... Lucia True Ames Mead,1916 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years 1916-1920 British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1922 Challenging Essays in Modern Thought Joseph Morris Bachelor,Ralph Ledyard Henry,1928 Peace and War W. John Morgan,Alexandre Guilherme,2020-11-02 Peace and War Historical Philosophical and Anthropological Perspectives is an accessible higher level critical discussion of philosophical commentaries on the nature of peace and war It introduces and analyses various philosophies of peace and war and their continuing theoretical and practical relevance for peace studies and conflict resolution Using a combination of both historical and contemporary philosophical perspectives the book is at once eclectic in its approach and broad in its inquiry of these enduring phenomena of human existence A Peace Reader Joseph Fahey,Richard Armstrong,1992 A Peace Reader Revised contains articles reflecting different and even opposing viewpoints offering competing visions of the future They range from the scholarly to the folksy from the philosophical to the satirical from the didactic to the poetic In an effort to help students develop critical thinking skills the authors include study questions after every major article The result is a book as contemporary as today s headlines and as timeless as the wisdom of the ages War and peace graf Leo Tolstoy,1899
