Peace Without Justice:

Peace Without Justice Margaret Popkin, 2010-11-01 Popkin analyzes the role of international actors notably the United States and the United Nations and the contributions and limitations of international assistance in efforts to establish accountability and reform the justice system in El Salvador The author discusses the essential role of civil society in attempts to establish accountability and an effective justice system for all and looks at the reasons for and the consequences of the limited role played by Salvadorean civil society She also addresses the challenges facing democratic reform efforts in the context of a postwar crime wave Peace Without Justice grew out of Margaret Popkin's extensive experience working as a human rights advocate in El Salvador during the armed conflict and interviews with a variety of Salvadorans and others involved in justice reform and in negotiating and implementing the peace accords

No Peace, No Justice Mary Conway Stewart, 2006-01-05 An account of a trial that polarized a small city a mentally incompetent snitch who derailed a popular mayor defense attorneys and prosecutors who together supported a mythical murder with no grounding in evidence white power rallies that never happened and a local and national media that joined forces with an out of control prosecution and made a circus of the trial This book is a close examination of the original testimony and evidence and the press role in the period between the convening of the grand jury and the end of the trials an examination that no one before has attempted In an epilogue the author suggests ways to prevent such catastrophes from occurring

Peace with Justice? Paul R. Williams, Michael P. Scharf, 2002 In this work two former State Department lawyers provide an account of how and why justice was misapplied and mishandled throughout the peace builders efforts to settle the Yugoslav conflict The text is based on their personal experience research and interviews with key players in the process

Old Testament Theology Ben C. Ollenburger, 2004 In this extensively revised and updated edition of The Flowering of Old Testament Theology Professor Ollenburger provides help for beginning theological students who are frequently overwhelmed by the proliferation of volumes dealing with Old Testament theology to say nothing of the variety of approaches used in these works This textbook has been re issued with a new title Old Testament Theology Flowering and Future Selected essays include key theological statements of Otto Eissfeldt Walther Eichrodt Theodor C Vriezen George E Wright Gerhard von Rad Walther Zimmerli John L McKenzie Ronald E Clements Walter C Kaiser Jr Samuel L Terrien Claus Westermann Brevard S Childs Rolf Knierim Horst D Preuss Walter Brueggemann Paul R House Bernhard W Anderson Erhard S Gerstenberger Hartmut Gese Phyllis Trible Jon D Levenson John H Sailhamer Gunther H Wittenberg James Barr R W L Moberly and Mark G Brett An appendix contains Johann P Gabler's 1787 seminal essay on biblical theology An extensive bibliography and indexes of authorities and Scripture references conclude the volume Publisher

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremenyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremenjuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenjuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University

No Justice, No Peace David Rapoport, 1999-03-30 In No Justice No Peace David Rapoport uses detail insights and anecdotes from over 150 interviews with picket line captains local executives union leadership journalists mediators and union and management negotiators among others to provide an insider's view of the strike and its political and economic contexts often told in the strikers own voices Vice president from 1991 to 1997 of OPSEU's huge Region 5 covering Toronto Rapoport describes how the election of the Harris government and the early Common Sense Revolution cutbacks led to a large opposition movement the labour social justice coalition the Days of Action and the province wide OPSEU strike No Justice No Peace traces the politics involved from ideology and belief in free trade to the downsizing of public and private enterprises from the restructuring and privatization of the public sector to collective bargaining between OPSEU and the Ontario Government and finally to the strike vote and the picket line

Transitional Justice, Peace and Accountability Jessica Lincoln, 2011-03-18 The book looks at the outreach and communication strategies employed by internationalised courts to try to understand the wider impact of international justice This book critically examines the role of outreach within international justice focusing specifically on the role of outreach at the Special Court for Sierra Leone SCSL It contributes to understanding of the relationship between international courts and the affected populations an area currently underexplored and little understood The assumption that justice brings peace underpins much of the thinking and indeed action of international justice yet little is known if this is actually the case Significant questions surrounding the link between peace and justice remain do trials deter would be war criminals is justice possible for the most heinous crimes can international justice replace local justice This book explores these questions in relation to recent developments in international justice that have both informed and shaped the creation of the hybrid tribunal in Sierra Leone Through empirical analysis Transitional Justice Peace and Accountability answers these questions and provides an insight into individual and community perceptions of international justice This book will be of much interest to students of transitional justice war crimes peace and conflict studies human rights international law and IR in general

Building a Future on Peace and Justice Kai Ambos, Judith Large, Marieke Wierda, 2008-12-04 Results of the 2007 Nuremberg Conference on Peace and Justice Tensions between peace and justice have long been debated by scholars practitioners and agencies including the United Nations and both theory and policy must be refined for very practical application in situations emerging from violent conflict or political repression Specific contexts demand concrete decisions and approaches aimed at redress of grievance and creation of conditions of social justice for a non violent future There has been definitive progress in a world in which blanket amnesties were granted at times with little hesitation There is a growing understanding that accountability has pragmatic as well as principled arguments in its favour Practical arguments as much as shifts in the norms have created a situation in which the choice is increasingly seen as which forms of accountability rather than a stark choice between peace and justice It is socio political transformation not just an end to violence that is needed to build sustainable peace This book addresses these dilemmas through a thorough overview of the current state of legal obligations discussion of the need for a holistic approach including development analysis of the implications of the coming into force of the ICC and a series of hard case studies on internationalized and local approaches devised to navigate the tensions between peace and justice

The Papal Arts of Peace and Civilization Maxim Baz, 2025-03-17 The twentieth century saw a transformation in the Catholic Church's approach to war and peace as the papacy sought to adopt and propose alternatives to traditional Just War doctrine by developing contemporary policies to peacefully resolve both the symptoms and root causes of war This book explores the emergence of a new ethical framework built upon three distinct moral doctrines coined here as AMP War Avoidance for when war is imminent War Mitigation for when war is unavoidable and

Preventive Pacification during periods of relative stability This book examines the shaping of the AMP paradigm from Leo XIII to John Paul II analyzing its theological philosophical and legal underpinnings While AMP co exists alongside Just War doctrine the latter provides a framework for judging the morality of war the former addresses the preemption mitigation and prevention of conflict The book argues that AMP gradually became the primary framework for the Holy See s foreign policy with the potential to further become a crucial ethical guide for the twenty first century s pursuit of more just and peaceful international relations

Winning the War on War Joshua S. Goldstein,2012-07-31 The most important political book of the year Gregg Easterbrook author of The Progress Paradox Everyone knows wars are getting worse more civilians are dying and peacemaking achieves nothing right Wrong Despite all the bad news headlines peacekeeping is working Fewer wars are starting more are ending and those that remain are smaller and more localized But peace doesn t just happen it needs to be put into effect Moreover understanding the global decline in armed conflict is crucial as America shifts to an era of lower military budgets and operations Preeminent scholar of international relations Joshua Goldstein definitively illustrates how decades of effort by humanitarian aid agencies popular movements and especially the United Nations have made a measureable difference in reducing violence in our times Goldstein shows how we can continue building on these inspiring achievements to keep winning the war on war This updated and revised edition includes more information on a post 9 11 world and is a perfect compendium for those wishing to learn more about the United States armed conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan

Peace Versus Justice I. William Zartman,Victor Kremenyuk,2005-04-28 This book examines the costs and benefits of ending the fighting in a range of conflicts and probes the reasons why negotiators provide or fail to provide resolutions that go beyond just stopping the shooting A wide range of case studies is marshaled to explore relevant peacemaking situations from the end of the Thirty Years War and the Napoleonic Wars to more recent settlements of the late 20th and early 21st centuries including large scale conflicts like the end of WWII and smaller scale sometimes internal conflicts like those in

Cyprus Armenia and Azerbaijan and Mozambique Cases on Bosnia and the Middle East add extra interest Peace versus Justice William I. Zartman, Victor Kremenjuk, 2005-04-21 This book examines the costs and benefits of ending the fighting in a range of conflicts and probes the reasons why negotiators provide or fail to provide resolutions that go beyond just stopping the shooting What is the desired and achievable mix between negotiation strategies that look backward to end current hostilities and those that look ahead to prevent their recurrence To answer that question a wide range of case studies is marshaled to explore relevant peacemaking situations from the end of the Thirty Years War and the Napoleonic Wars to more recent settlements of the late 20th and early 21st centuries including large scale conflicts like the end of WW II and smaller scale sometimes internal conflicts like those in Cyprus Armenia and Azerbaijan and Mozambique Cases on Bosnia and the Middle East add extra interest Published in cooperation with the International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis this important research is expertly edited by renowned conflict scholars I William Zartman and Victor Kremenjuk and includes original case studies from scholars and practitioners around the globe including Janice Gross Stein Daniel Druckman and Beth Simmons among many others Religion, Tradition, and Restorative Justice in Sierra Leone Lyn S. Graybill, 2017-06-15 In this groundbreaking study of post conflict Sierra Leone Lyn Graybill examines the ways in which both religion and local tradition supported restorative justice initiatives such as the national Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC and village level Fambul Tok ceremonies Through her interviews with Christian and Muslim leaders of the Inter Religious Council Graybill uncovers a rich trove of perspectives about the meaning of reconciliation the role of acknowledgment and the significance of forgiveness Through an abundance of polling data and her review of traditional practices among the various ethnic groups Graybill also shows that these perspectives of religious leaders did not at all conflict with the opinions of the local population whose preferences for restorative justice over retributive justice were compatible with traditional values that prioritized reconciliation over punishment These local sentiments however were at odds with the international community's preference for retributive justice as embodied in the Special Court for Sierra Leone which ran concurrently with the TRC Graybill warns that with the dominance of the International Criminal Court in Africa there are currently eighteen pending cases in eight countries local preferences may continue to be sidelined in favor of prosecutions She argues that the international community is risking the loss of its most valuable assets in post conflict peacebuilding by pushing aside religious and traditional values of reconciliation in favor of Western legal norms 'Crimes Against Peace' and International Law Kirsten Sellars, 2013-02-28 A legal and historical analysis of the first modern attempts to prosecute national leaders for embarking upon aggressive war Know Justice Know Peace Deborah Threadgill Egerton, 2023-09-05 A first of its kind guide to social justice through the lens of the Enneagram a popular personality typing system that shows how people can use their particular type to work on issues such as antiracism and homophobia Know Justice Know Peace is a unique guide told through the lens of the Enneagram that provides readers with a pathway to activating their authentic self so that they may participate in the healing all of humanity Dr Egerton will help the reader discover the indisputable fact of how deeply and intricately we are all connected The reader is invited to explore their own personality archetype and to activate themselves as allies within a beloved community a community that acknowledges that while we come in many shades and colors we are part of one human race This book will serve all Enneagram practitioners regardless of race religion gender or any othering category Readers will explore the cultural challenges of the social construct of race and the intersection of inner work through the nine different lenses of the Enneagram their own meaning of other and allow it to surface in their consciousness perhaps for the first time the full concept of other and their early experience with differences their individual journey and the possibility of healing their own wounds and finding positive outcomes to help heal the world Know Justice Know Peace brilliantly illuminates how the inner work of each of the 9 Enneagram archetypes creates healing elevates the consciousness and aligns us as individuals with the heart of humanity in order to eliminate systemic racism It provides the reader with a guide to activating their authentic self so that they may participate in the healing all of humanity Pursuing Justice and Peace in South Africa Hendrik W. van der Merwe, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1989 and written by a long time peacemaker who commanded respect from most political camps in South Africa this book advocated constructive intervention in the South African conflict It showed the growing element of pragmatic flexibility in the white leadership and argued that this more rational approach combined with moral reform among the white population promised reasonable prospects for the constructive accommodation of conflict in South Africa In 1984 the author arranged the first meetings between government supporters and the ANC in exile in Lusaka breaking a 24 year deadlock and significantly influencing public opinion in South Africa Decolonising Conflicts, Security, Peace, Gender, Environment and Development in the Anthropocene Úrsula Oswald Spring, Hans Günter Brauch, 2021-01-25 In this book 25 authors from the Global South 19 and the Global North 6 address conflicts security peace gender environment and development Four parts cover I peace research epistemology II conflicts families and vulnerable people III peacekeeping peacebuilding and transitional justice and IV peace and education Part I deals with peace ecology transformative peace peaceful societies Gandhi's non violent policy and disobedient peace Part II discusses urban climate change climate rituals conflicts in Kenya the sexual abuse of girls farmer herder conflicts in Nigeria wartime sexual violence facing refugees the traditional conflict and peacemaking process of Kurdish tribes Hindustani family shame and communication with Roma Part III analyses norms of peacekeeping violent non state actors in Brazil the art of peace in Mexico grass roots post conflict peacebuilding in Sulawesi hydrodiplomacy in the Indus River Basin the Rohingya refugee crisis and transitional justice Part IV assesses SDGs and peace in India peace education in Nepal and infrastructure based development and peace in West Papua Peer reviewed texts prepared for the 27th Conference of the International Peace Research Association IPRA in 2018 in Ahmedabad in India Contributions from two pioneers of global peace research a foreword by Johan Galtung from Norway and a preface by Betty Reardon from the
