Lone Star Vistas Astrid Haas, 2021-03-09 Every place is a product of the stories we tell about it stories that do not merely describe but in fact shape geographic social and cultural spaces Lone Star Vistas analyzes travelogues that created the idea of Texas Focusing on the forty year period between Mexico s independence from Spain 1821 and the beginning of the US Civil War Astrid Haas explores accounts by Anglo American Mexican and German authors members of the region's three major settler populations who recorded their journeys through Texas. They were missionaries, scientists, journalists, emigrants, emigration agents, and military officers and their spouses. They all contributed to the public image of Texas and to debates about the future of the region during a time of political and social transformation. Drawing on sources and scholarship in English, Spanish, and German, Lone Star Vistas is the first comparative study of transnational travel writing on Texas. Haas illuminates continuities and differences across the global encounter with Texas while also highlighting how individual writers' particular backgrounds affected their views on nature, white settlement, military engagement, Indigenous resistance, African American slavery, and Christian mission.

Epistemic Colonialism and the Transfer of Curriculum Knowledge across Borders Weili Zhao, Thomas S. Popkewitz, Tero Autio, 2022-02-10. This volume uncovers the colonial epistemologies that have long dominated the transfer of curriculum knowledge within and across nation states and demonstrates how a historical approach to uncovering epistemological colonialism can inform an alternative relational mode of knowledge transfer and negotiation within curriculum studies research and praxis. World leaders in the field of curriculum studies adopt a historical lens to map the negotiation, transfer, and confrontation of varied forms of cultural knowledge in curriculum studies and schooling. In doing so, they uniquely contextualize contemporary epistemes as historically embedded and politically produced and contest the unilateral logics of reason and thought which continue to dominate modern curriculum studies. Contesting the doxa of comparative reason, the politics of knowledge and identity, the making of twenty-first century educational subjects, and multiculturalism, this volume offers a relational onto-epistemic network as an alternative means to dissect and overcome epistemological colonialism. This text will benefit researchers, academics, and educators with an interest in curriculum studies as well as the study of international and comparative education. Those interested in post-colonial discourses and the philosophy of education will also benefit from the volume.
