Peacekeeping On Arab Israeli Fronts Lessons From The Sinai And Lebanon:

Peacekeeping On Arab-Israeli Fronts Nathan A Pelcovits, 2019-06-04 Since 1948 the United Nations has sponsored virtually every third party peacekeeping mission on Arab Israeli fronts Three recent events however have been responsible for significantly altering the pattern of peacekeeping in the region the Camp David accords which because they were opposed in the U N by the Soviet Union and most Arab nations prevented U N sponsorship of a Sinai peacekeeping force the June 1982 Israeli invasion of Lebanon during which the U N Interim Force was made to look ineffectual and the Sabra Shatila massacres in South Beirut three months later which prompted the deployment of a multinational peacekeeping force Dr Pelcovits analyzes these events to answer the questions they raise about peacekeeping in the Middle East What advantages are afforded by U N peacekeepers compared with non U N missions What net benefits are derived from American participation in a non U N multinational operation And how do they compare to the classic U N peacekeeping rationale of insulating disputed areas from super power confrontation Finally what determines the success of such operations geopolitical circumstance or institutional affiliation

International Peacekeeping In Lebanon Ramesh Thakur, 2019-04-09 Examining the efficacy of U N peace efforts Dr Ramesh Thakur compares limited peacekeeping through U N authority with more coercive means such as the Multinational Force MNF in Lebanon He finds that the role of the U S led MNF coalition cannot be justified in terms of great power responsibility for ensuring a stable international order since the coalition has attempted to substitute military power for authoritative peacekeeping When MNF legitimacy was questioned and authority was challenged the MNF s use of force in response to those challenges switched the coalition s role from third party peacekeeper to factional participant As a result every successive attempt to strengthen the MNF mandate has further subordinated the concept of neutral international peacekeeping to calculated support of national interests If reasoned attempts to keep the peace are not to collapse into exercises in national self interest then peacekeeping responsibilities must remain with the U N supported by the great powers Only the U N can provide an authoritative exposition of values within the context of international society and bestow international legitimacy upon peacekeeping activities only the great powers can back the U N with requisite force

Historical Dictionary of Multinational Peacekeeping Terry M. Mays, 2021-04-10 Conflicts require a process to guide the belligerents from the battle field to mutual cooperation But how does one provide the conflict stabilization for this peace process to operate Peacekeeping emerged as one of these tools and has evolved to become an important element to support the peace process between belligerents in major inter state and intra state conflict This book takes a broad definition of multinational peacekeeping in order to provide a basis for comparison and permit researchers to review operations labeled as peacekeeping by international organizations The goal of this work is to assist researchers scholars and others who are interested in peacekeeping and humanitarian operations to sort through the myriad of peacekeeping or peace operations since 1920 and consider some of the trends and issues behind these missions This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Multinational Peacekeeping contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries peacekeeping operations people organizations countries and events associated with peacekeeping This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about peacekeeping

In the Line of Fire - Peacekeeping in the Golan Heights

Major Jeffery S. Bess, 2015-11-06 This monograph examines the considerations involved in maintaining a peacekeeping force in the Golan Heights The examination is based on the assumption that Israel and Syria have reached an agreement concerning the Golan Heights and that the United States is going to establish a peacekeeping force in the Golan Heights The monograph first examines the historical background of the area since the 1967 War Based on this examination and on lessons learned from previous UN and other multinational peacekeeping operations the monograph addresses national composition of the force command of the peacekeeping force and force structure Next based on the military and political aspects of the region the monograph addresses the future peacekeeping force commander's concerns with military credibility freedom of movement and force protection The study concludes with a summary evaluation of the necessary size and type of force for future peacekeeping in the Golan Heights Based on the assumption and an analysis of the political and military considerations future peacekeeping operations in the Golan Heights would require a MFO type force under the command and control of the United States Due to the essential requirement for force protection due to the potential of pre-emption by either Israel or Syria and of terrorist attacks a heavy brigade would be the most effective force in maintaining the peace while protecting the force

Peacekeeping on the Golan Heights in the Event of an Israeli-Syrian Peace Accord

Gregory Charles Bilton, 1999 In 1996 Syria and Israeli came close to ratifying a peace accord Currently however negotiations are stalled but a change of government in Israel could provide the impetus for them to recommence A peacekeeping force is most likely to be deployed as part of the security arrangements of a peace accord The objective of this study is to determine what type of peacekeeping force would be applicable for deployment on the Golan Heights Two ongoing Middle East peacekeeping missions the Multinational Force and Observers MFO and the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force UNDOF are evaluated to determine their suitability as models upon which to structure a peacekeeping force for deployment on the Golan Heights The purpose of this thesis is to detail the perspectives of the Israelis and the Syrians in formulating a peace accord and rationalize those perspectives to determine the mission and structure of the peacekeeping force The study concludes that a hybrid of the MFO and UNDOF models should be utilized to structure a Golan Heights peacekeeping force with a monitoring mission The political organization of the MFO should be adopted and the military force would be a unique structure using the better aspects of both the MFO and UNDOF The Multinational Force And Observers In The Sinai Mala Tabory, 2019-09-10 After it became clear that the UN Security Council would not set up a peacekeeping force to fulfill the role envisaged for it in the 1979 Egyptian Israeli Peace Treaty supervising the implementation of the treaty and preventing any violation of its terms the Multinational Force and Observers MFO was established in its place This book provides a detailed description of the structure and function of the MFO in order to evaluate its chances for success In addition the author has included various documents regarding the MFO's legal basis and organization The MFO is the first modern multinational peacekeeping force that is independent of any organization in the future it may serve as a prototype for multinational peacekeeping forces in conflicts and areas in which the UN is unwilling or unable to become involved The A to Z of NATO and Other International Security Organizations Marco Rimanelli, 2009-09-14 The North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is a military alliance established by the signing of the North Atlantic Treaty on April 4 1949 The treaty was signed by Belgium the Netherlands Luxemburg France United Kingdom United States Canada Portugal Italy Norway Denmark and Iceland Today there are a total of 26 countries that belong to NATO The A to Z of NATO and Other International Security Organizations covers the Atlantic Alliance's origins structure and organization through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 1 000 cross referenced dictionary entries on its Secretaries Generals its Supreme Allied Commanders Europe plus all affiliated organizations created to enhance NATO's reach in a broader Euro Atlantic security architecture e g North Atlantic Consultative Council Euro Atlantic Partnership Council NATO Russia Charter NATO Ukraine Charter and NATO Mediterranean Dialogue Partners This book also covers other related regional organizations with security responsibilities in Europe and worldwide where they interact with NATO either currently e g ANZUS ASEAN European Union Organization of African Unity Organization of American States Organization on Security and Cooperation in Europe and United Nations or in the past e g CENTO European Defence Community SEATO Warsaw Pact and Western European Union Historical Dictionary of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P R Kumaraswamy, 2015-10-08 Competing Jewish and Arab national claims over the Holy Land form the core of the Arab Israeli conflict thereby transforming it into the most intensely fought struggles in the history of humanity The conflict evokes unparalleled passion and hostility not only among its immediate participants and neighbors but also in the wider international community The involvement of three principal monotheistic religions makes the conflict a truly universal contestation As a result it often contributes to bouts of violence turmoil and terrorism in the Middle East and beyond This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Arab Israeli Conflict covers the history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries important events key personalities official positions of principal states and the UN and other efforts to find a peaceful settlement This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this conflict
