About to Die Barbie Zelizer, 2010-12-01 Due to its ability to freeze a moment in time the photo is a uniquely powerful device for ordering and understanding the world But when an image depicts complex ambiguous or controversial events terrorist attacks wars political assassinations its ability to influence perception can prove deeply unsettling Are we really seeing the world as it is or is the image a fabrication or projection How do a photo's content and form shape a viewer's impressions What do such images contribute to historical memory About to Die focuses on one emotionally charged category of news photograph depictions of individuals who are facing imminent death as a prism for addressing such vital questions Tracking events as wide ranging as the 1906 San Francisco Earthquake the Holocaust the Vietnam War and 9/11 Barbie Zelizer demonstrates that modes of journalistic depiction and the power of the image are immense cultural forces that are still far from understood Through a survey of a century of photojournalism including close analysis of over sixty photos About to Die provides a framework and vocabulary for understanding the news imagery that so profoundly shapes our view of the world
