Literary Annuals and Gift Books Frederick Winthrop Faxon,1912      The Pearl; Or, Affection's Gift ,1834      The Battle for Christmas Stephen Nissenbaum,2010-12-01 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST Drawing on a wealth of research this fascinating book The New York Times Book Review charts the invention of our current Yuletide traditions from St Nicholas to the Christmas tree and perhaps most radically the practice of giving gifts to children Anyone who laments the excesses of Christmas might consider the Puritans of colonial Massachusetts they simply outlawed the holiday The Puritans had their reasons since Christmas was once an occasion for drunkenness and riot when poor wassailers extorted food and drink from the well to do In this intriguing and innovative work of social history Stephen Nissenbaum rediscovers Christmas s carnival origins and shows how it was transformed during the nineteenth century into a festival of domesticity and consumerism Bursting with detail filled with subversive readings of such seasonal classics as A Visit from St Nicholas and A Christmas Carol The Battle for Christmas captures the glorious strangeness of the past even as it helps us better understand our present      Bulletin of Bibliography ,1912      Bulletin of Bibliography and Magazine Subject-index ,1909      Early Feminist Pioneers, Their Lives, and Their Reform Efforts Satish Sharma,2020-12-24 Early feminist pioneers contributed much to the functioning and reform of society including making women s status and privileges equal to those of men However we still do not know enough about their efforts strategies sacrifices and attainments As such through a focus on the lives and contributions of eight early female pioneers of England and America from the seventeenth century to the early twentieth century this book helps to fill this gap Among these women were religious and educational reformers political activists social advocates abolitionists feminists community organizers pacifists internationalists and historians These women noticed many injustices done to their kind by men and society over the centuries and took brave actions at great personal costs to provide remedies Their respective backgrounds and interests were different but all of them desired more protection and the welfare of vulnerable populations nationally and internationally This book will be of interest to scholars and students in many fields and can also be adopted as a textbook in colleges and universities      Dorothea Dix Thomas J. Brown,1998 The disastrous failure of one of the most widely admired heroines in the nation provides a dramatic measure of the transformations of northern values during the war      The Lady and the President Charles M. Snyder,2021-10-21 When the private papers of Millard Fillmore thought to have been destroyed in 1889 were discovered they proved to include a large number of letters to Fillmore from Dorothea Dix the renowned crusader for the humane treatment of the insane Almost simultaneously the letters of Fillmore to Dix which had lain forgotten in a private collection since 1887 became available Thus overnight a correspondence of more than a hundred and fifty letters spanning nearly twenty years opened new perspectives upon two prominent Americans whose friendship was known to few during their lifetimes and had long been forgotten by historians All the extant correspondence between the thirteenth President of the United States and the humanitarian reformer is published here for the first time Charles M Snyder provides an illuminating background on the principles and a running commentary on the events that shaped their lives and their relationship The Lady the President provides a wealth of raw material for a reinterpretation of these two neglected figures offering new insights into their warm personal relations their roles as national leaders and the perilous times in which they lived Dorothea Dix and Dr. Francis T. Stribling: an Intense Friendship Alice Davis Wood,2008-10-21 This is primarily the story of the long time friendship between Dorothea Dix and Dr Stribling as told by them in their unedited letters The letters are preceded by summaries of their life experiences at the time their friendship began Dix was the most politically active and well traveled woman her time She enlarged or founded thirty two mental hospitals in fifteen states and other countries fifteen schools for the feeble minded a school for the blind and several training schools for nurses Dix successfully petitioned Congress to create the Government Hospital for the Insane in Washington D C Dix petitioned Congress in 1854 to sell twelve million acres of public land whose proceeds would benefit the insane blind and paupers throughout the nation After it was passed by Congress but then vetoed by Congress a devastated Dix too ill to work traveled to England to recuperate By the late 60s Western State and similar institutions were filled with incurable patients leaving little room for those who could be cured By 1871 only eight of Stribling's patients were expected to be cured twenty six others were doubtful and the remaining three hundred and six patients were decidedly unfavorable The situation was depressing for Stribling his staff and the caretakers who constantly drew on their skills energies and goodness of heart to soothe patients depressed spirits and replace their delusions with pleasant thoughts It would have been far easier to restore curable patients who would be in the hospital only for the brief duration of their illness Stribling died in 1874 Because of his crusade to cure the insane in the South he had been one of the most influential Virginians of his time Dix continued her crusade until the Civil war when she became head of the Union nurses Afterwards she resumed her efforts to help those who could not help themselves Dix died on July 17 1887 at the New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton Past and Promise The Women's Project of New Jersey, Inc.,1997-05-01 This unique book explores the lives and work of nearly 300 New Jersey women from the Colonial period to the present century Included are biographies of notable often nationally known individuals as well as less celebrated people whose vibrant personal stories illustrate the richness of women's experiences in New Jersey and really in America from 1600 to the present Researched written and illustrated by The Women's Project of New Jersey this volume both recovers and re tells the life stories of women who have helped shape our world Past and Promise is a long overdue celebration of the accomplishments of these individuals who succeeded often against overwhelming odds Past and Promise Lives of New Jersey Women incorporates an inclusive view of history that understands the past as the history of all of the people not merely those who held a monopoly of power As such this work contains biographies of artists activists entertainers scientists scholars teachers factory and agricultural workers businesswomen social engineers and community builders This easy to use and beautifully presented volume is indexed and full of illustrations The biographies are arranged alphabetically within four sections covering the following time periods 1600 1807 1808 1865 1866 1920 and 1921 to the present Each section is introduced by a historical overview and each biographical entry includes a brief bibliography for further reading and research This unique and very readable collection of biographies belongs in every public and personal library and deserves a wide audience of general readers from high school age through college and beyond
