Counting Down Deborah Gold, 2018-02-26 When Deborah Gold and her husband signed up to foster parent in their rural mountain community they did not foresee that it would lead to a roller coaster fifteen years of involvement with a traumatized yet resilient birth family They fell in love with Michael a toddler when he came to them yet they had to reckon with the knowledge that he could leave their lives at any time In Counting Down Gold tells the story of forging a family within a confounding system We meet social workers a birth mother with the courage to give her children the childhood she never had herself and a father parenting from prison We also encounter members of a remarkable fellowship of Appalachian foster parents gay straight right left evangelical and atheist united by love loss and quality hand me downs Gold's memoir is one of the few books to deliver a foster parent's perspective and through Michael's own poetry and essays that of a former foster child In it she shakes up common assumptions and offers a powerfully frank and hopeful look at an experience often portrayed as bleak I Saw an Angel in the Stone and I Carved to Set it Free Doug Whitener, 2019-08-01 The imagery of a sculptor chipping away to free an angel from the stone suggests the idea that children have miraculous human qualities that can be released if a sculptor takes the time to free the child In this book Doug Whitener asserts that parents and teachers are the lead sculptors who can help free children to live meaningful and responsible lives Mr Whitener draws upon forty five years of experience as a parent and as an educator to outline key child guidance ideas. The reader is treated to over forty stories that illustrate principles from real life events in homes and schools The near death experiences Mr Whitener has had with cancer have caused him to celebrate every moment he has had as an educator of children In each chapter the reader is invited to pause and reflect about his or her opportunities to appreciate childhood and to help children Strengthen their Wings Key child development concepts in the book include the following unconditional love critical learning activities empathy development and relationship building responsibilities empowerment and child uniqueness family mission statement Key child discipline concepts in the book include the following understanding yourself as an adult positive modeling and support systems defining discipline as a teaching learning process focused upon the development of inner discipline determining expectations teaching expectations and building competencies understanding the purpose of misbehavior meaningful logical consequences restorative justice the intensive care child This book is a must read for parents teachers quidance counselors school psychologists family therapists and school principals This amazing resource not only supports parents and teachers with numerous fantastic strategies to effectively provide discipline and love to students it is written through Doug's remarkable life experiences You will learn how to successfully incorporate respectful solution oriented approaches to challenges faced in the classroom and home You ll discover the power of fundamental principles of child discipline through frequent real world examples ready for immediate application You ll finish the book feeling like you have just gained valuable advice from a parent and educator who knows exactly how it feels to be the Dad Mom and or teacher in today s world Rick Harris Director Northern Nevada Tahoe Leadership AcademyFormer Deputy Superintendent of Washoe County School District Every page of this book expresses the author's optimism belief in and appreciation for the good all children possess and the importance of discipline as a teaching learning process I encourage parents teachers guidance counselors school psychologists family therapists and school counselors to invest the time to read this vital book We can be hopeful that the kindness wisdom and sensibility of his words are embodied in schools and homes across the country Meggin McIntosh PhDThe PhD of ProductivityEmphasis on Excellence Inc Reno NV https meggin com Tales of Successes with Kids Jim Fay, 2003 Only read this book if You want to learn how others were successful using Love and Logic You re looking for ideas on how to implement Love and Logic You want to protect your kids while they learn to protect themselves You want to hear heart touching stories about kids of all ages One of the greatest joys for us at the Love and Logic Institute is reading the many wonderful stories we receive from our supporters It is truly inspiring to hear how Love and Logic has changed the VFW Auxiliary ,1997 lives of parents educators and kids American Twilight Kristopher Woofter, Will Dodson, 2021-06-01 Tobe Hooper's productions which often trespassed upon the safety of the family unit cast a critical eye toward an America in crisis Often dismissed by scholars and critics as a one hit wonder thanks to his 1974 horror classic The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Hooper nevertheless was instrumental in the development of a robust and deeply political horror genre from the 1960s until his death in 2017 In American Twilight the authors assert that the director was an auteur whose works featured complex monsters and disrupted America's sacrosanct perceptions of prosperity and domestic security American Twilight focuses on the skepticism toward American institutions and media and the articulation of uncanny spaces so integral to Hooper's vast array of feature and documentary films made for television movies television episodes and music videos From Egg Shells 1969 to Poltergeist 1982 Djinn 2013 and even Billy Idol s music video for Dancing with Myself 1985 Tobe Hooper provided a singular directorial vision that investigated masculine anxiety and subverted the idea of American
