Peasant Mobilization and Rural Development Edgar G. Nesman, 1981 Foreign Affairs Research Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1973 Peasant Mobilization for Land Reform Gerrit Huizer, 1999 Rural Development in Asia United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, 1967 Rural Development in Asia, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs... United States. Congress. House Foreign Affairs, 1967 Thailand's Political Peasants Andrew Walker, 2012-08-06 When a populist movement elected Thaksin Shinawatra as prime minister of Thailand in 2001 many of the country's urban elite dismissed the outcome as just another symptom of rural corruption a traditional patronage system dominated by local strongmen pressuring their neighbors through political bullying and vote buying In Thailand's Political Peasants however Andrew Walker argues that the emergence of an entirely new socioeconomic dynamic has dramatically changed the relations of Thai peasants with the state making them a political force to be reckoned with Whereas their ancestors focused on subsistence this generation of middle income peasants seeks productive relationships with sources of state power produces cash crops and derives additional income through non agricultural work In the increasingly decentralized disaggregated country rural villagers and farmers have themselves become entrepreneurs and agents of the state at the local level while the state has changed from an extractor of taxes to a supplier of subsidies and a patron of development projects Thailand's Political Peasants provides an original provocative analysis that encourages an ethnographic rethinking of rural politics in rapidly developing countries Drawing on six years of fieldwork in Ban Tiam a rural village in northern Thailand Walker shows how analyses of peasant politics that focus primarily on rebellion resistance and evasion are becoming less useful for understanding emergent forms of political society Promised Land Madeleine Adriance, 1995-01-01 Examines the relationship between grassroots Catholic Church groups base Christian communities and the mobilization of peasant farmers in the fight for control of Amazon lands East Asia and Pacific Area [Special Papers Available]. Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1976 Strategies of Rural Development in Indonesia Rex Mortimer, 1975 A Requiem for Peacebuilding? Jorg Kustermans, Tom Sauer, Barbara Segaeert, 2020-12-01 This book assesses the claim that peacebuilding is a moribund international practice Its contributors trace the origins of peacebuilding bring back to memory its moments of triumph and reflect on the reports of its decline The story of peacebuilding parallels the broader story of liberalism's rise and fall in world politics including the attempt to remedy an ailing patient by administering a magic medicine the local turn Its contributors further write about what may come after peacebuilding as we still know it They describe more locally rooted attempts at building peace and how they operate in the shadows of and in an ambiguous relationship with governmental and international peacebuilders The book finally suggests that reports of the pending death of peacebuilding are probably premature Peacebuilding is a resilient international practice apt to adjust itself to a changing environment and too important a source of legitimacy for those that wield power Agrarian Reform In Reverse Birol A. Yesilada, 2019-04-05 This book focuses on the political economic dimensions of the food crisis with case studies from the four regions Africa Asia Latin America and the Middle East of the Third World It examines various international factors that influence agricultural development in the Third World Sociology in India Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-14 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Power and Popular Protest Susan Eva Eckstein, 2023-11-15 Eclectic and insightful these essays by historians sociologists political scientists and anthropologists represent a range of subjects on the cause and consequence of protest movements in Latin America from an examination of the varying faces but common origins of rural guerilla movements to a discussion of multiclass protests to an essay on las madres de plaza de mayo This volume is an indispensable text for anyone concerned with reducing inequities and injustices around the world so that oppressed people need not be defiant before their concerns are addressed A new preface and epilogue discuss recent social movements Eclectic and insightful these essays by historians sociologists political scientists and anthropologists represent a range of subjects on the cause and consequence of protest movements in Latin America from an examination of the varying faces but com The Vietnamese War David Elliott, 2016-04-15 A monumental work of research and analysis this is a history of the Vietnam War in a single province of the Mekong Delta over the period 1930 1975 More precisely it is a study of the Vietnamese dimension of the Vietnam War focusing on the revolutionary movement that became popularly known as the Viet Cong There are several distinctive features to this study 1 it provides an explanation for the paradox of why the revolutionary movement was so successful during the war but unable to meet the challenges of postwar developments 2 it challenges the dominant theme of contemporary political analysis which assumes that people are rational actors responding to events with careful calculations of self interest 3 it closely examines province level documentation that casts light on a number of important historical controversies about the war No other history of the Vietnam War has drawn on such a depth of documentation especially firsthand accounts that allow the Vietnamese participants to speak directly to us No Other Way Out Jeff Goodwin, 2001-06-04 No Other Way Out provides a powerful explanation for the emergence of popular revolutionary movements and the occurrence of actual revolutions during the Cold War era This sweeping study ranges from Southeast Asia in the 1940s and 1950s to Central America in the 1970s and 1980s and Eastern Europe in 1989 Following in the state centered tradition of Theda Skocpol's States and Social Revolutions and Jack Goldstone's Revolutions and Rebellion in the Early Modern World Goodwin demonstrates how the actions of specific types of authoritarian regimes unwittingly channeled popular resistance into radical and often violent directions Revolution became the only way out to use Trotsky's formulation for the opponents of these intransigent regimes

By comparing the historical trajectories of more than a dozen countries Goodwin also shows how revolutionaries were sometimes able to create and not simply exploit opportunities for seizing state power

Malaysian Development Martin Rudner, 1994 Malaysia ranks among the most dynamic of the high growth Southeast Asian economies but the prospects for Malaysian success have not always seemed so positive When Malaysia became independent in 1957 it was a poor and deeply troubled country With weak political and economic structures it faced the added threat of a Communist Insurgency Though the decades since have not been kind to many developing countries Malaysia has managed to avoid the pitfalls that beset others and has initiated far reaching policies designed to restructure its society alleviate poverty and promote economic growth With stable government and a vigorous economy Malaysia today is among the great success stories of East Asian development

Social Mobilization, Global Capitalism and Struggles over Food Renata Motta, 2016-04-28 This book explores the transformation of Brazil and Argentina into two of the world's largest producers of genetically modified GM crops Systematically comparing their stories in order to explain their paths differences ruptures and changes the author reveals that the emergence of the two nations as leading producers of GM crops cannot be explained by technological superiority of biotechnology rather their trajectories are the results of political struggles surrounding agrarian development in which social movements and the rural poor contested the advancement of biotechnologically based agrarian models but have been silenced ignored or demobilized by a network of actors in favour of GM crops Based on rich interview and media material collected amongst activists the author highlights the importance of political struggles over GM crops not only to debates on agrarian futures and food security but also as illustrations of the challenges faced by contemporary democracies An international comparative study this book raises the question of how social mobilization and rights claims can counter the systemic imperatives of global capitalism and political interests at a time when regional governments are reliant on commodity booms whilst globally governments are obliged to introduce programmes of austerity As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and geography with interests in social movements development globalization inequality and political economy
