Peasant Politics Religious Sectarianism:

Peasant Politics and Religious Sectarianism Jayne Susan Werner, 1981 Cauldron of Resistance Jessica M. Chapman, 2013-01-25 In 1955 Ngo Dinh Diem organized an election to depose chief of state Bao Dai after which he proclaimed himself the first president of the newly created Republic of Vietnam The United States sanctioned the results of this election which was widely condemned as fraudulent and provided substantial economic aid and advice to the RVN Because of this Diem is often viewed as a mere puppet of the United States in service of its Cold War geopolitical strategy That narrative Jessica M Chapman contends in Cauldron of Resistance grossly oversimplifies the complexity of South Vietnam's domestic politics and indeed Diem's own political savvy Based on extensive work in Vietnamese French and American archives Chapman offers a detailed account of three crucial years 1953 1956 during which a new Vietnamese political order was established in the south It is in large part a history of Diem's political ascent as he managed to subdue the former Emperor Bao Dai the armed Hoa Hao and Cao Dai religious organizations and the Binh Xuyen crime organization It is also an unparalleled account of these same outcast political powers forces that would reemerge as destabilizing political and military actors in the late 1950s and early 1960s Chapman shows Diem to be an engaged leader whose personalist ideology influenced his vision for the new South Vietnamese state but also shaped the policies that would spell his demise Washington's support for Diem because of his staunch anticommunism encouraged him to employ oppressive measures to suppress dissent thereby contributing to the alienation of his constituency and helped inspire the organized opposition to his government that would emerge by the late 1950s and eventually lead to the Vietnam War Religion and Politics John T. S. Madeley, 2019-07-15 This title was first published in 2003 This subject area of this work cross cuts conventional disciplinary boundaries in the study of comparative politics Connections between religion and politics can be identified in all of the thematic areas covered by the articles within Handbook of East Asian New Religious Movements Lukas Pokorny, Franz Winter, 2018-04-24 This Handbook has won the ICAS Edited Volume Accolade 2019 Brill warmly congratulates editors Lukas Pokorny and Franz Winter and their authors with this award A vibrant cauldron of new religious developments East Asia China Taiwan Korea Japan and Vietnam presents a fascinating arena of related research for scholars across disciplines Edited by Lukas Pokorny and Franz Winter the Handbook of East Asian New Religious Movements provides the first comprehensive and reliable guide to explore the vast East Asian new religious panorama Penned by leading scholars in the field the assembled contributions render the Handbook an invaluable resource for those interested in the crucial new religious actors and trajectories of the region The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer, 2011-08-25 This is a reference for understanding world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity Comprising 60 essays the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites The contributors are leading scholars of world religions many of whom are also members of the communities they study In Search of Moral

Authority Van Nguyen-Marshall, 2008 In Search of Moral Authority The Discourse on Poverty Poor Relief and Charity in French Colonial Vietnam is a pioneering exploration of the discourses on poverty and poor relief activities in early twentieth century Northern Vietnam Treating poverty as a socially constructed idea Van Nguyen Marshall argues that poor relief was a domain where both French colonialists and Vietnamese intellectuals vied for moral authority For the French colonial officials poor relief fell within the purview of the French civilizing mission the official justification for imperialism However the colonial agenda racial prejudices and the French administrators own ambivalent attitudes toward the poor made any attempt at poor relief doomed for failure For Vietnamese intellectuals the discourse and activities on poor relief became a rallying call for patriotism nationalism and for some anti colonialism In Search of Moral Authority deals with social issues such as charity and poor relief as well as the construction of national and gender identity by Vietnamese intellectuals This book is essential reading for students and specialists of Vietnamese history as well as those interested in issues of poverty public welfare and charity

How Heaven Works Christopher Hartney, 2024-10-21 In 1948 Vietnam s great 20th Century mystic Ph m C ng T c 1890 1959 began a series of sermons making Caodaism s claims to universal salvation the clearest In only two decades Caodaism had stamped its fast growing presence on the nation With potent creative and poetic skill Ph m C ng T c invited his co religionists to take a shamanic journey with him to examine the heavens and literally see how they would be saved The 35 sermons translated here are provided with a commentary and extensive introduction by Hartney How Heaven Works is a fascinating insight into the deep connection between shamanic atmosphere literature and Modern syncretic concepts of salvation

Misalliance Edward Miller, 2013-04-15 Diem s alliance with Washington has long been seen as a Cold War relationship gone bad undone by either American arrogance or Diem s stubbornness Edward Miller argues that this misalliance was more than just a joint effort to contain communism It was also a means for each side to shrewdly pursue its plans for nation building in South Vietnam

The Third Force in the Vietnam War Sophie Quinn-Judge, 2017-01-30 It was the conflict that shocked America and the world but the struggle for peace is central to the history of the Vietnam War Rejecting the idea that war between Hanoi and the US was inevitable the author traces North Vietnam s programs for a peaceful reunification of their nation from the 1954 Geneva negotiations up to the final collapse of the Saigon government in 1975 She also examines the ways that groups and personalities in South Vietnam responded by crafting their own peace proposals in the hope that the Vietnamese people could solve their disagreements by engaging in talks without outside interference While most of the writing on peacemaking during the Vietnam War concerns high level international diplomacy Sophie Quinn Judge reminds us of the courageous efforts of southern Vietnamese including Buddhists Catholics students and citizens to escape the unprecedented destruction that the US war brought to their people The author contends that US policymakers showed little regard for the attitudes of the South Vietnamese population when they took over the war effort in 1964 and sent in their own troops to fight it in 1965 A unique contribution of this study is the interweaving of developments in South Vietnamese politics with changes in the balance of power in Hanoi both of the Vietnamese combatants are shown to evolve towards greater rigidity as the war progresses while the US grows increasingly committed to President Thieu in Saigon after the election of Richard Nixon Not even the signing of the 1973 Paris Peace Agreement could blunt US support for Thieu and his obstruction of the peace process The result was a difficult peace in 1975 achieved by military might rather than reconciliation and a new realization of the limits of American foreign policy The American War in Vietnam Jayne Werner, David Hunt, 2018-05-31 As suggested by the title this collection of essays focuses upon American involvement in the Vietnamese War These essays were originally written for a symposium in 1988 in which for the first time since 1975 scholars from both the U S and Vietnam met to discuss and debate the war and its impact on their respective nations Thus these works by American authors though alternately probing and guarded are always thought provoking They display the mind at work in its search for answers explanations and meaning Questions of politics and history diplomacy the Tet offensive Chinese involvement U S war veterans are considered and reconsidered by such authors as Allen Whiting Jayne Werner Nyo Vinh Long and Paul Comacho Fluid Iron Tony Day, 2002-08-31 Fluid Iron is the first extended treatment of state formation in Southeast Asia from early to contemporary times and the first book length analysis of Western historical and ethnographic writing on the region It includes critical assessments of the work of Clifford Geertz O W Wolters Benedict Anderson and other major scholars who have written on early colonial and modern Southeast Asian history and culture Making use of the ideas of Weber Marx Foucault and postmodern and postcolonial theory Tony Day argues that culture must be restored to the study of Southeast Asian history so that the state and historical developments in the region can be returned to their own alternative historical contexts and trajectories He employs a wide range of contemporary scholarship as well as Southeast Asian literary and historical texts inscriptions and temples to explore the kinds of concepts and practices kinship networks cosmologies gender identities bureaucracies rituals violence and aesthetics that have been used for centuries to build states Highly readable and accessibly written Fluid Iron demonstrates that Southeast Asian state building has taken place in a part of the world that has always been a crossroads of cultural and transcultural change Day urges Southeast Asians to learn more about the history of their own state formations so they can safeguard not only human freedom but also the incongruity of their unique region in the years ahead Vietnamese Supernaturalism Thiện Đỗ, 2003 Popular religion in southern Vietnam is so often regarded as an indefinable mix of many different beliefs meanings and symbols with little pattern of explanation In contrast this book highlights that the beliefs of the Vietnamese can be categorized into four distinct yet overlapping spheres and that the varying attitudes which exist towards the spirit world are a direct result of unique historical and environmental circumstances Vietnamese Supernaturalism examines a wide range of religious customs from trancer possession practices to styles of self cultivation against several different backgrounds including migration settlement and the effect of colonialism Despite the ostensible differences within the practices of popular religion Thien Do controversially demonstrates two consistent similarities an abiding interest in the altered state of consciousness and the daily acts of survival employed in order to evade identity construction By brining together oral histories reports and fiction writing alongside more conventional documented sources this book reveals an area of history which has been largely neglected It will prove to be a valuable resource to students of Asian studies anthropology and all of those with an interest in the history of Vietnam
