Peasants and Nationalism in Eritrea Jordan Gebre-Medhin,1989 This text shows how and why Eritrea was federated with Ethiopia by a UN mandate Eritrea Mussie Tesfagiorgis G. Ph.D.,2010-10-29 This authoritative overview serves as a comprehensive resource on Eritrea s history politics economy society and culture Located in eastern Africa bordering the Red Sea between Djibouti and Sudan Eritrea is a poor but developing East African country the capital of which is Asmara Formerly a province of Ethiopia Eritrea became independent on May 24 1993 following a 30 year struggle that culminated in a referendum vote for independence Written materials on most aspects of Eritrean history and culture are quite scarce Eritrea fills that gap with an exhaustive thematically organized overview It examines Eritrean geography the history of Eritrea since the ancient period and the government politics economy society cultures and people of the modern nation Though based largely on the documentary record the book also recognizes the value of oral history among the people of Eritrea and incorporates that history as well Leading sources are quoted at length to provide analysis and perspective

Self-Determination and Secession in Africa Redie Bereketeab,2014-08-07 This book provides a unique comparative study of the major secessionist and self determination movements in post colonial Africa examining theory international law charters of the United Nations and the Organisation of African Unity OAU African Union s AU stance on the issue The book explores whether self determination and secessionism lead to peace stability development and democratisation in conflict ridden societies particularly looking at the outcomes in Eritrea and South Sudan The book covers all the major attempts at self determination and secession on the continent extensively analysing the geo political economic security and ideological factors that determine the outcome of the quest for self determination and secession It reveals the lack of inherent clarity in international law social science theories OAU AU Charter UN Charters and international conventions concerning the topic This is a major contribution to the field and highly relevant for researchers and postgraduate students in African Studies Development Studies African Politics and History and Anthropology To Fight and Learn Leslie David Gottesman,Leslie Gottesman,1998 This study examines the remarkable testimony of Eritrea s fighter teachers the teenagers who spent years behind enemy lines teaching peasants and nomads to read and write during Eritrea s independence struggle Eritrea Roy Pateman,1998 This work traces the Eritrean response to Ethiopian occupation of their land and the origins of the war The book provides a survey of Eritrean history with a special inside look at the military and other developments in the last two decades Completely updated and revised to provide readers with an insight into developments in the last five years Third World Colonialism and Strategies of Liberation Awet Tewelde Weldemichael,2013 This book shows how Eritrea and East Timor developed sophisticated strategies to liberate their countries from colonialism and emphasizes that these insurgencies avoided terrorism The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold,2009-09-02 Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups As with many conflicts outside forces were drawn into these wars and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons political ideology Cold War considerations ethnic alignments and stemming the flow of violence Whether referring to Algeria's struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria's internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts major political and military figures child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds

The to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02 The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts maj
The Horn of Africa Paul B. Henze, 2016-07-27 There are many books on individual countries of the Horn but this one is unique in treating the region as a whole stressing interactions among as well as within Sudan Ethiopia and Somalia and in turn their relations with neighbouring regions of Africa and the Middle East The author summarizes the history of the region from earliest times to the 19th century and then concentrates on Russian and American involvements
The Ethiopian Revolution Gebru Tareke, 2009-06-23 Revolution civil wars and guerilla warfare wracked Ethiopia during three turbulent decades at the end of the 20th century Here Tareke brings to life the leading personalities in the domestic political struggles strategies of the warring parties international actors and key battles

Eritrea at a Crossroads Andebrhan Welde Giorgis, 2014 I congratulate Andebrhan Welde Giorgis on his high quality and extremely informative book that has not only the merit to be an update on the political situation in Eritrea but also asks the pertinent questions on the future of his marvelous country He does it with tact and success based on his long experience as freedom fighter as senior public servant as Ambassador and his rich experience of Africa Each country in Africa must be able to determine its own future Freedom responsibility control over its destiny and solidarity are the key ideas of the new vision for international cooperation that will help ensure the sustainability of the development process The urgent need to create a democratic government resonates throughout the book Good governance respect for human rights principles of democracy and rule of law are essential universal values underpinning it Andebrhan is one of those men visionaries and open to dialogue reform and change Eritrea at a Crossroads is key to understanding the challenges facing Eritrea and Africa It is an eye opener on a complex and little understood crisis that is festering in Africa and holding the continent back The book provides a solid intellectual foundation to understanding the region and will give anyone who wants to build a better future for Africa a great starting point I congratulate him on this most valuable book which finds its place among all the lovers of Africa Louis Michel Member of European Parliament European Commissioner for Development and Humanitarian Aid 2004 2009 and Foreign Minister of Belgium 1999 2004 Freedom fighter scholar central banker diplomat and now unhappy exile no one could be better placed than Andebrhan Welde Giorgis to trace Eritrea's distressing slide from triumph to tragedy It's a harrowing story but the author tells it comprehensively objectively and lucidly in this excellent study The future can be rescued as Andebrhan makes clear but only if the past is understood and the present confronted by decent concerned Eritreans acting with the moral political and economic support of the wider international community May his voice be heard Gareth Evans Chancellor Australian National University President International Crisis Group 2000 09 and Foreign Minister of Australia 1988 96

The African Metropolis Toyin Falola, Bisola Falola, 2017-08-07 On a planet where urbanization is rapidly expanding nowhere is the growth more pronounced than in cities of the global South and in particular Africa African metropolises are harbingers of the urban challenges that lie ahead as societies grapple with the fractured social economic and political relations forming within these new often mega cities The African Metropolis integrates geographical and historical perspectives to examine how processes of segregation marginalization resilience and resistance are shaping cities across Africa spanning from Nigeria and Ghana to Kenya Ethiopia and South Africa The chapters pay particular attention to the voices and daily realities of those most vulnerable to urban transformations and to questions such as Who governs Who should the city serve Who has a right to the city And how can the built spaces and contentious legacies of colonialism and prior development regimes be inclusively reconstructed In addition to highlighting critical contemporary debates the book furthers our ability to examine the transformations taking place in cities of the global South providing detailed accounts of local complexities while also generating insights that can scale up and across to similar cities around the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies urban development and human geography Paths toward the Nation Joseph L. Venosa, 2014-05-15 In the early and mid 1940s during the period of British wartime occupation community and religious leaders in the former Italian colony of Eritrea engaged in a course of intellectual and political debate that marked the beginnings of a genuine national consciousness across the region During the late 1940s and 1950s the scope of these concerns slowly expanded as the nascent nationalist movement brought together Muslim activists with the increasingly disaffected community of Eritrean Christians The Eritrean Muslim League emerged as the first genuine proindependence organization in the country to challenge both the Ethiopian government's calls for annexation and international plans to partition Eritrea between Sudan and Ethiopia The league and its supporters also contributed to the expansion of Eritrea's civil society formulating the first substantial arguments about what made Eritrea an inherently separate national entity These concepts were essential to the later transition from peaceful political protest to armed rebellion against Ethiopian occupation Paths toward the Nation is the first study to focus exclusively on Eritrea's nationalist movement before the start of the armed struggle in 1961 Ethiopia in Theory: Revolution and Knowledge Production, 1964-2016 Elleni Centime Zeleke, 2019-10-14 Between the years 1964 and 1974 Ethiopian post secondary students studying at home in Europe and in North America produced a number of journals In these they explored the relationship between social theory and social change within the project of building a socialist Ethiopia Ethiopia in Theory examines the literature of this student movement together with the movement's afterlife in Ethiopian politics and society in order to ask what does it mean to write today about the appropriation and indigenisation of Marxist and mainstream social science ideas in an Ethiopian and African context and importantly what does the archive of revolutionary thought in Africa teach us about the practice of critical theory more generally The African Garrison State Kjetil Tronvoll, Daniel Rezene Mekonnen, 2014 When Eritrea gained independence in 1991 hopes were high for its transformation In two decades however it became one of the most repressive in the world effectively a militarised garrison state This comprehensive and detailed analysis examines how the prospects for democracy in the new state turned to ashes reviewing its development and in particular the loss of human rights and the state's political organisation Beginning with judicial development in independent Eritrea subsequent chapters scrutinise the rule of law and the court system the hobbled process of democratisation and the curtailment of civil society the Eritrean prison system and everyday life of detention and disappearances and the situation of minorities in the country first in general terms and then through exploration of a case study of the Kunama ethnic group While the situation is bleak it is not without hope however the conclusion focuses on opposition to the current regime and offers scenarios of regime change and how the coming of a second republic may yet reconfigure Eritrea politically Kjetil Tronvoll is Professor of Peace and Conflict Studies at Bjoerknes College founding and senior partner of the International Law and Policy Institute Oslo and a former Professor of Human Rights at the University of Oslo Daniel R Mekonnen is Senior Legal Advisor International Law and Policy Institute Oslo and former Judge of the Zoba Maekel Provincial Court in Eritrea Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Veronica Fynn Bruey, 2021-03-25 This timely and expansive multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary collection dissects precolonial colonial and post independence issues of male dominance power and control over the female body in the legal socio cultural and political contexts in Africa Contributors focus on the historical theoretical and empirical narratives of intersecting perspectives of gender and patriarchy in at least ten countries across the major sub regions of the African continent In these well researched chapters authors provide a deeper understanding of patriarchy and gender inequality in identifying misogyny resisting male supremacy reforming discriminatory laws embracing human centered public policies expanding academic scholarship on the continent and more The Dynamics of an Unfinished African Dream: Eritrea: Ancient History to 1968 Mohamed Kheir Omer, 2020 Eritrea is located in northeast Africa on the Red Sea coast and boasts one of the oldest human settlements in the region One million year old human remains have been found in the Danakil Depression in the country which is home to one of the oldest written scripts in sub Saharan Africa Ge'ez Eritrea was also pioneer in multi party democracy in Africa and had a democratic constitution based on United Nations principles in 1952 But it is also home to one of the earliest armed liberation movements in Africa a conflict that Mohamed Kheir Omer witnessed firsthand having grown up in Eritrea as a member of the Eritrean Liberation Front ELF In this book he traces the history of the country exploring how ethnicity religion geography colonialism and other factors have shaped its fate and what must be done to ensure its people enjoy a brighter future The history of Eritrea is similar to others on the continent and its people continue to struggle to build a just democratic and inclusive country Eritrea and Ethiopia Amare Tekle,1994 Essays addressing the prospects and problems in the process of creating a single integrated community in the Horn of Africa Borders and Borderlands in Contemporary Culture Aoileann Ní Éigeartaigh,David Getty,2008-12-18 It is entirely appropriate that this book should be produced in Dundalk Located on the Northern rim of the Irish Pale this town has straddled a border for centuries Over the past thirty years it has come to be closely identified with violent Republicanism both by the Unionist community in Northern Ireland and by Constitutional Nationalists in the South Against such a hostile background academics attached to the Institute of Technology there have bravely confronted and interrogated these processes which have so blighted the history not only of Dundalk but of places and spaces throughout the world similarly located In a wide ranging series of articles perhaps the strongest message to emerge is that of border as limitation The notion of border as a liminal space where worlds converge new realities emerge and transcendence is possible rarely surfaces Instead the border as a physical manifestation of divisiveness is repeatedly explored In a passionate statement of solidarity with the Palestinians Lavalette describes the construction of the apartheid wall The wall is eight feet high and has a watchtower every three hundred metres Although there are no maps it is thought it could end up being close to one thousand kilometres in length by the time it is completed p 18 Yndigegn shows how spatial borders gradually become mental borders such that as visual borders disappear new invisible borders appear p 33 The article explores the dualism of borders simultaneously protecting those inside from external threats while also preventing those inside from reaching or engaging with the outside world Ni Eigeartaigh takes up the duality theme in the exploration of individualism as a process either of liberation or one of alienation Taking the title from an aphorism of Kafka s My Prison Cell My Fortress she explores a view of contemporary society as repressive and of its inhabitants as complicit in the repression Drawing on a wide span of literature and disciplines she teases through the paradox of contemporary society that the freedom gained from the liberation of the individual from communal obligations and repression has resulted in a loss of identity and an overwhelming sense of isolation and powerlessness She concludes that in the absence of a restrictive system of social control the individual is forced to take responsibility for his own actions It is to avoid this responsibility that many choose the security of the prison cell above the hardship of the outside world Her paper does not go on to look at the potential role of the State or of fundamentalist movements in playing on the fear and disconnectedness of the citizenry as an equally likely outcome to that of a stronger capability for personal responsibility One could argue for instance that the European Fascist movement and the Nationalist movement of the early to mid twentieth century were both based precisely on the dislocation at personal and social level resulting from the breakdown of pre industrial communitarian ties While there is no attempt in the book to elucidate any particular developmental relationship between the different contributors two broad themes may be detected a concern with borders as socio political and geographical constructs on the one hand and a concern with the formation of identity in the individual s relationship to the wider society on the other Some light is cast on the latter issue by de Gregorio Godeo who posits discourse as a core concept in identity formation This leads to the conclusion that individual identity in this case individualism is in fact socially constructed in a dialectical interplay between the discursive and the social identities included so that they are mutually shaped by each other p 93 Using critical discourse analysis he goes on to explore changing notions of masculinity as evidenced in the Health sections of men s magazines

The Saho of Eritrea Abdul Kader Saleh Mohammed, 2013 This book presents an analysis of the identity of the agro pastoral Saho community in Eritrea which was cemented during centuries of confrontation with Abyssinian rulers and by their rebellion against external domination It examines the emergence of the Saho s national consciousness and the process of political identity formation during the British Military Administration in competition with the pro Ethiopian Unionist Party The book describes the active participation of the Saho in the national liberation struggle of Eritrea and it evaluates the impact of post independence policies of the Eritrean People s Liberation Front People s Front for Democracy and Justice on the Saho community Series African Politics Politiques Africaines Vol 5
