Chown, 2010-05-11 Look around you The reflection of your face in a window tells you about the most shocking discovery in the history of science that at its deepest level the world is orchestrated by chance that ultimately things happen for no reason at all The iron in a spot of blood on your finger shows you that somewhere out in space there is a furnace at a temperature of 4 5 billion degrees Static on your TV screen proclaims that the universe had a beginning The bulb above your head emits light and the light waves emerging from it are about five thousand times bigger than the atoms that spit them out as paradoxical a thought as the idea of a matchbox swallowing a forty ton truck Marcus Chown takes familiar features of the everyday world and shows us with breathtaking clarity wit and suspense how they can be used to explain profound truths about the ultimate nature of reality This is an essential cosmology primer for anyone curious about their surroundings and their place in the universe Flower World - Mundo Florido Mark Howell, Matthias Stockli, Arnd Adje Both, 2014-12-31 The bilingual series Flower World Music Archaeology of the Americas raises the study of ancient music and music related activities of the pre Columbian Americas to the next level For the first time in the history of science a series offering anthologies featuring scientific investigations in this fascinating multidisciplinary field is available The series encompasses peer reviewed studies by renowned scholars on both past and living music traditions from South Central and North America and thus constitute a platform for the most up to date information on the music archaeology of the continent It features case studies and the results of research projects in the field in which a great variety of music archaeological approaches such as conventional archaeology for the interpretation of the find contexts experimental archaeology for reconstructive instrument making and playing ethnohistory and ethnolinguistics for the interpretation of textual sources music iconology for the interpretation of visual sources organology and acoustics and ethnomusicology for the research on contemporary legacies for the study of the instrument finds are commonly applied The title of the series Flower World refers to a mythological even sacred place filled with the sweet scent of flowers bird calls pleasant sounds and dance It is a place full of happiness and joy even if it belongs to the realm of the Dead which sustains the enduring renewal of life on earth Experimental Music Since 1970 Jennie Gottschalk,2016-08-11 What is experimental music today Recent attempts to define or identify examples of experimental music have been cautious and subjective offering very little guidance to anyone with an interest in this field of activity Is experimental music a historical event that refers only to John Cage and his influence or does it have a greater spread and longevity The development of this musical practice over the last 45 years merits a fresh definition and discussion An experimental approach is not identifiable in specific sounds or techniques and its scope would be drastically limited if it were judged on the basis of social or aesthetic groupings or self identifications of composers The Mineralogists' Monthly ,1885 Anthology of Text Scores Pauline Oliveros,2013 Contains over one hundred pieces that span four decades of creative work Excavating Victorians Virginia Zimmerman,2009-01-08 Excavating Victorians examines nineteenth century Britain s reaction to the revelations about time and natural history provided by the new sciences of geology and archaeology The Victorians faced one of the greatest paradigm shifts in history the bottom dropped out of time and they had to reinvent their relationship to the earth and to time and history These new sciences took the Victorians by storm inundating them with fossils skeletal remains and potsherds artifacts or traces that served at once as relics from the past objects in the present and markers of time s passage Virginia Zimmerman explores how the Victorians utilized a nexus of literature excavation and reflections on time to ease anxieties about the individual s fate in the face of time s overwhelming expanse The function of artifacts is also considered through careful readings of Tennyson s The Princess and Dickens s Little Dorrit and Our Mutual Friend Zimmerman shows how these literary works make use of the language tropes and even generic conventions of excavation and how they participate in the effort to rescue the individual from temporal insignificance Industrial Mineral Report ,1962 The Building and Ornamental Stones of Wisconsin Ernest Robertson Buckley,1898
