Pedro de la Torre John Tate Lanning,2009-05      Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance Alexandra Parma Cook,Noble David Cook,1991 Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance uncovers from history the fascinating and strange story of Spanish explorer Francisco Noguerol de Ulloa in 1556 accompanied by his second wife Francisco returned to his home in Spain after a profitable twenty year sojourn in the new world of Peru However unlike most other rich conquistadores who returned to the land of their birth Francisco was not allowed to settle into a life of leisure Instead he was charged with bigamy and illegal shipment of silver was arrested and imprisoned Francisco s first wife thought long dead had filed suit in Spain against her renegade husband So begins the labyrinthine legal tale and engrossing drama of an explorer and his two wives skillfully reconstructed through the expert and original archival research of Alexandra Parma Cook and Noble David Cook Drawing on the remarkable records from the trial the narrative of Francisco s adventures provides a window into daily life in sixteenth century Spain as well as the mentalit and experience of conquest and settlement of the New World Told from the point of view of the conquerors Francisco s story reveals not only the lives of the middle class and minor nobility but also much about those at the lower rungs of the social order and relations between the sexes In the tradition of Carlo Ginzberg s The Cheese and the Worms and Natalie Zemon Davis The Return of Martin Guerre Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance illuminates an historical period the world of sixteenth century Spain and Peru through the wonderful and unusual story of one man and his two wives
