

you were peeling an orange over the sink

And all I could think was how much I'd like to peel this skin off my body
Rearrange the bones inside
And let them soak in dirty water

How much i'd like to dissolve into last week's dinner plates to sleep inside their cracks and stains
So i don't have to think of my own

You offered me a segment of orange and all I wanted to say was thank you But all I thought was When does it get better?

You left me in that kitchen
To hold hands with my sadness Till I finally realized her name was you

So I sat there, on the tiles Falling asleep to dreams of orange juice bleeding through my veins
And the skin nobody could peel off of me
