

A portrait of an elderly woman with short, vibrant red hair and striking blue eyes. She is wearing a large, black, wide-brimmed hat with a feathered detail on the left side. Her expression is gentle and slightly smiling. She is wearing a black garment with a thick, dark fur collar. A small, gold-colored earring is visible on her left ear. The background is a soft, out-of-focus purple and blue.

There seems to be no end in sight of this war which has scattered her family and brought conflict right to the door of Beach View Boarding House but Peggy cannot work miracles and the toll of the war is beginning to weigh on her slender shoulders. Meanwhile Ron Reilly has landed himself in hot water with his sweetheart Rosie and this time his Irish charm will not be enough to get him out of trouble. The war has forever changed the lives of Peggy's loved ones but with the promise of an Allied invasion comes the hope that her beloved husband and family will at last be coming home. It will take an enormous amount of spirit to keep that hope alive and bring harmony back to Beach View. FIND LOVE FIND HOPE FIND CLIFFEHAVEN With a Kiss and a Prayer is set almost exclusively in Cliffhaven in the heart of Ellie Dean's world, the Beach View Boarding House. The Woman in Me Mama Sophia, 2010-09-07 This book contains a two-fold purpose: it shares the experiences of an African woman who developed from powerlessness to great empowering heights and it also attempts to communicate to the world the experiences and stories of the many voiceless African women and their children. The book is an introduction to a five-year on-going research on the African Women and Psychology of Oppression. The contents are mostly stories, beliefs, and philosophies of African women. They are true experiences. Some of them are breathtaking, some are heartbreaking. Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times, 1918 Canadian Saturday Night, 1998 Vocations Gerald O'Donovan, 1922 Negotiating Work, Family, and Identity among Long-Haul Christian Truck Drivers Rebecca L. Upton, 2016-08-12 This book draws upon ethnographic and qualitative research in the United States to demonstrate the means through which long-haul truck drivers navigate work and family tensions in ways that resonate across categories of race, class, gender, and religion. It examines how Christianity and constructions of masculinity are significant in the lives of long-haul drivers and how truckers work to construct narratives of their lives as good moral individuals in contrast to competing cultural narratives which suggest images of romantic, rule-free renegade lives on the open road. Based upon ethnographic fieldwork, interviews, observations of long-haul truckers, and participation in a CDL school, this rich ethnography highlights how Christian trucking opportunities provide avenues through which balance is struck between work and family, masculinity and other identities. Embedded in larger social discourse about the meaning of masculinity and similar to evangelical perspectives such as those of the Promise Keepers, Christian truckers often draw upon older ideas about responsible breadwinning fatherhood in their discourse about being good fathers while on the road This discourse is in some conflict with the lived experiences of Christian truckers who simultaneously find themselves confronted by more contemporary cultural narratives of the work family balance and expectations of what it means to be a good worker or a good trucker The book offers new insight in the field of work and family studies and an extremely relevant voice in the broader contemporary discourse in the United States on the meaning of fatherhood and religion in the 21st century The Better Woman Ber Carroll,2009-04-01 Sarah Ryan grows up in her grandmother s house in a small Irish village Sarah is clever and ambitious and eager to move away from the sleepy village She fully believes that John Delaney the boy next door and her first love will be right by her side until he breaks her heart Jodi Tyler is raised on Sydney s northern beaches amidst a close and loving family But Jodi has a secret a tragic secret which leaves her determined to make a success of her life Like Sarah Jodi s grandmother ends up providing her with a home And when Jodi falls head over heels in love she too ends up with a broken heart This is a story of two remarkable women who face all life s challenges head on and those they love and lose on their journey Set in Ireland Australia London and New York Sarah and Jodi make their way in the world unaware that their lives are running in parallel and it is only when they both want the same thing that their paths will finally cross The Ignatious Nathan Gann Family William R.
