Pekin and Tremont, Illinois in Vintage Postcards Donald L. Nieu Kirk, 2000 From 1898 through the middle of World War I the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age are today considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America's history This fascinating new history of Pekin and Tremont Illinois showcases more than 200 of the best vintage postcards available Leelanau Ken Scott, Jerry Dennis, 2000 Bloomington-Normal in Vintage Postcards Elaine J. Taylor, 2002 Bloomington and Normal have grown from small pioneer settlements into the Twin Cities of central Illinois linked by their proximity and shared history Surviving and rebuilding after a devastating fire in 1900 the area has continued to grow and prosper It is home to many businesses including State Farm the nation's largest auto and homeowners insurance company The vintage postcards in this collection feature the delights and difficulties of Bloomington Normal at the turn of the century These images capture historic events such as the Street Car Strike of 1917 in which workers took their demands to the streets The businesses that closed up shop years ago are opened again through these historic postcards many of which were originally produced by Bloomington based postcard publisher C U Williams
