Pekina Century And Beyond:

Pekina Walter Czernezkyj,1974 Memory, Place and Aboriginal-Settler History Skye Krichauff,2017-09-27 Taking the absence of Aboriginal people in South Australian settler descendants historical consciousness as a starting point Memory Place and Aboriginal Settler History combines the methodologies and theories of historical enquiry anthropology and memory studies to investigate the multitudinous and intertwined ways the colonial past is known represented and made sense of by current generations Informed by interviews and fieldwork conducted with settler and Aboriginal descendants oral histories site visits and personal experience Skye Krichauff closely examines the diverse but interconnected processes through which the past is understood and narrated Memory Place and Aboriginal Settler History demonstrates how it is possible to unsettle settler descendants consciousness of the colonial past in ways that enable a tentative connection with Aboriginal people and their experiences Never See a Need Marie Therese Foale,2016-06-30 Never See a Need is an account of the lives and works of the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart in South Australia from the time of their foundation in 1866 until Mary MacKillop s canonisation in 2010 Much happened during those 144 years There were dark times and bright times times of growth and expansion interspersed with times of decline times of stability and times of change and through it all the members of the Congregation never forgot their call to do what they could to remedy the evils and ills of their society They were educators but they also looked out for the welfare of the poor and disadvantaged in different ways as they moved across the landscape to wherever they were needed always a people on the move but always stable in their devotion to their ministry South Australiana Libraries Board of South Australia,1973 National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases South Australian Regional History and Geography State Library of South Australia. South Australian Collection,1975 South Australiana ,1975 Sources for South Australian History Andrew Guy Peake,1987 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1978 Subject Catalog, 1976 Library of Congress,1976 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills Ian Clark,Fred Cahir,2013-07-22 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is the first major study of Aboriginal associations with the Burke and Wills expedition of 1860 61 A main theme of the book is the contrast between the skills perceptions and knowledge of the Indigenous people and those of the new arrivals and the extent to which this affected the outcome of the expedition The book offers a reinterpretation of the literature surrounding Burke and Wills using official correspondence expedition journals and diaries visual art and archaeological and linguistic research and then complements this with references to Aboriginal oral histories and social memory It highlights the interaction of expedition members with Aboriginal people and their subsequent contribution to Aboriginal studies The book also considers contemporary and multi disciplinary critiques that the expedition members were on the whole deficient in bush craft especially in light of the expedition s failure to use Aboriginal guides in any systematic way Generously illustrated with historical photographs and line drawings The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is an important resource for Indigenous people Burke and Wills history enthusiasts and the wider community This book is the outcome of an Australian Research Council project Longman's Gazetteer of the World George Goudie Chisholm,1895 Debates South Australia. Parliament. Legislative Council,1887 F.J. Gillen's First Diary 1875 F.J Gillen,2019-10-15 This is the first of two diaries by anthropologist and photographer Francis Gillen Written in 1875 it records his experiences as a young man travelling along the Overland Telegraph Line from Adelaide to work in Alice Springs a journey which would form the basis of his later work The diary introduced and with notes by Francis Gillen s grandson Robert Gillen includes a foreword by historian Philip Jones

Russia in Asia Jane F. Hacking,Jeffrey S. Hardy,Matthew P. Romaniello,2020-07-22 This edited volume presents new research on Russian Asian connections by historians art historians literary scholars and linguists Of particular interest are imagined communities social networks and the legacy of colonialism in this important arena of global exchanges within the imperial Soviet and post Soviet eras Individual chapters investigate how Russians imagined Asia and its inhabitants how these different populations interacted across political and cultural divides and how people in Siberia China and other parts of Asia reacted to Russian imperialism both in its formal and informal manifestations A key strength of this volume is its interdisciplinary approach to the topic challenging readers to synthesize multiple analytical lenses to better understand the multivalent connections binding Russia and Asia together The Friend Samuel Chenery Damon,1933 Change on Change Nancy Robinson Flannery,1971 Change on Change is the story of that part of South Australia the Southern slopes of the Flinders Ranges which has referred to in the book as the Northern Highlands Very little is known of the Ngadjuri Aborigines whose tribal grounds included the Northern Highlands Rather than attempt a separate study of them the author has woven into the fabric of the main story some glimpses of their life and their adjustment to white man s ways Monthly Index of Russian Accessions Library of Congress. Processing Department,1953-04 Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1962
Encyclopædia Britannica ,1963
