Peking Susan Naquin,2001-01-15 The central character in Susan Naquin s extraordinary new book is the city of Peking during the Ming and Qing periods Using the city s temples as her point of entry Naquin carefully excavates Peking s varied public arenas the city s transformation over five centuries its human engagements and its rich cultural imprint This study shows how modern Beijing s glittering image as China s great and ancient capital came into being and reveals the shifting identities of a much more complex past one whose rich social and cultural history Naquin splendidly evokes Temples by providing a place where diverse groups could gather without the imprimatur of family or state made possible a surprising assortment of community building and identity defining activities By revealing how religious establishments of all kinds were used for fairs markets charity tourism politics and leisured sociability Naquin shows their decisive impact on Peking and at the same time illuminates their little appreciated role in Chinese cities generally Lacking most of the conventional sources for urban history she has relied particularly on a trove of commemorative inscriptions that express ideas about the relationship between human beings and gods about community service and public responsibility about remembering and being remembered The result is a book that will be essential reading in the field of Chinese studies for years to come Greatest Cities in the World You Should Visit Paul J. Christopher, 2006-08 Imagine holding the whole world in your hands or at least the greatest cities of the world That is exactly what this book is about The excitement and allure of the exotic beautiful legendary and famous cities of the world Fascinated by history geography travel and culture Each chapter contains little known facts and figures unique to the city its people its economy and its culture Learn everything from the basics population and square miles to the most famous sites and arts Cities are listed alphabetically making them easy to find Find out which city was chosen by the experts as the most popular and important travel destination in the world How helpful will a little book like this be when planning that trip of a lifetime With just a quick read you can easily narrow down your travel choices to those most attractive to you Which Cities are your favorites Mapping Modern Beijing Weijie Song, 2018 Mapping Modern Beijing investigates the five methods of representing Beijing a warped hometown a city of snapshots and manners an aesthetic city an imperial capital in comparative and cross cultural perspective and a displaced city on the Sinophone and diasporic postmemory by authors travelling across mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Sinophone and non Chinese communities The metamorphosis of Beijing's everyday spaces and the structural transformation of private and public emotions unfold Manchu writer Lao She's Beijing complex about a warped native city Zhang Henshui's popular snapshots of fleeting shocks and everlasting sorrows illustrate his affective mapping of urban transition and human manners in Republican Beijing Female poet and architect Lin Huiyin captures an aesthetic and picturesque city vis vis the political and ideological urban planning The imagined imperial capital constructed in bilingual transcultural and comparative works by Lin Yutang Princess Der Ling and Victor Segalen highlights the pleasures and pitfalls of collecting local knowledge and presenting Orientalist and Cosmopolitan visions In the shadow of World Wars and Cold War a multilayered displaced Beijing appears in the Sinophone postmemory by diasporic Beijing native Liang Shiqiu Taiwan sojourners Zhong Lihe and Lin Haiyin and migr martial arts novelist Jin Yong in Hong Kong Weijie Song situates Beijing in a larger context of modern Chinese language urban imaginations and charts the emotional topography of the city against the backdrop of the downfall of the Manchu Empire the rise of modern nation state the 1949 great divide and the formation of Cold War and globalizing world Drawing from literary canons to exotic narratives from modernist poetry to chivalric fantasy from popular culture to urban planning Song explores the complex nexus of urban spaces archives of emotions and literary topography of Beijing in its long journey from imperial capital to Republican city and to socialist metropolis Journal of the American Asiatic
