Warner, Edward Cornelius Towne, George Henry Warner, 1898 A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. XLIII (Forty-Five Volumes); Dictionary of Authors (K-Z) Charles Dudley Warner, 2008-01-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Volume 43 is Part Two of a dictionary of authors from Hans Vilhelm Kaalund to Ulrich Zwingli that serves as a handy condensed reference to the authors quoted in the first 40 volumes as well as a guide to thousands more authors whose works are notable but not featured in this set The Baptist , 1920 In the End, God . . . John A. T. Robinson, 2011-01-01 Eschatology is the explication of what must be true of the end both of history and of the individual if God is to be the God of the biblical faith All eschatological statements can finally be reduced to and their validity tested by sentences beginning In the end God J A T Robinson The God revealed in Israel s story is the Lord of history a God with good purposes for his creation and a God capable of bringing those purposes to pass All biblical eschatology arises from this fundamental theological insight If God is this God then what shape must the future have John A T Robinson explores biblical eschatology with an eye both to the text and to contemporary culture Revealing the foundation of eschatology to be the experience of God by the community of faith he calls readers to embrace the eschatological vision of the Bible but to do so in a way that is alert to its mythic character In the course of these explorations Robinson also lays bare his own theology of universal salvation But contrary to what one may expect this universalism is one that seeks to take both human freedom and the reality of hell with the utmost seriousness This special edition of John A T Robinson s classic text also includes a debate between Robinson and Thomas F Torrance played out across three articles from the Scottish Journal of Theology in 1949 an extended introduction by Professor Trevor Hart University of St Andrews Scotland and a foreword by Gregory MacDonald author of The Evangelical Universalist Truce of God Rowan Williams, 2005-04-11 In this powerful meditation Williams probes words such as reconciliation to reveal the profound realism of the concepts of peace and violence as understood in the Bible and in latter Christian tradition I See Men as Trees, Walking Bryan M. Christman, 2024-10-17

He took the blind man by the hand and when he had spit on his eyes and laid his hands on him he asked him Do you see anything He said I see men but they look like trees walking Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again and he saw everything clearly Mark s account of a blind man needing two healing touches from Jesus graphically depicts the stubborn blindness of his disciples Peter epitomized this blindness when he was tempted by the popular view that Jesus was the Rome conquering savior of Israel rather than the suffering Servant of God Also the disciples didn t understand that Jesus miraculously fed the famished crowds with a few loaves and fish to meet immediate need and provide leftover fragments of food for future need Salvation was pictured for all time Essentially Mark s Gospel gathered leftovers historical fragments of Jesus life to convey God s salvation across history to those Kierkegaard called the follower at second hand Like Peter disciples and even the crowds are tempted to false salvations where self is lost But ironically persons only become a self by taking up their own cross enabled by Jesus second touch Star Trek: Signature Edition: Worlds in Collision Judith Reeves-Stevens, 2003-11-04

The Star Trek Signature Edition series continues with this thrilling adventure featuring Commander Spock Captain Kirk and the U S S Enterprise Of all the experiences shared by Captain Kirk and the crew of the Starship Enterprise during their first five year mission two were among the most perilous a journey to the nonphysical realm of Transition where the massive computer known as Memory Prime was situated and the nightmarish mission to Talin IV a world poised on the brink of destruction that Kirk was forbidden to save In the twenty third century a hundred years before a sentient artificial life form would be allowed to earn a Starfleet commission the Federation considers the use of self aware artificial intelligences to be little more than slavery except for the immense computer system of Memory Prime the key hub in the Federation s vast network of interstellar library planets There the A I s known as Pathfinders inhabit Transition a virtual world so different from our universe that the A I s themselves debate whether or not the physical universe is real But when an ancient enemy reaches out from the shadows of Vulcan s darkest history and threatens to destroy the Federation Spock must risk his career and his life to enter the Pathfinders realm Technologically and politically Talin IV is little different from late twentieth century Earth But as a series of mysterious events pushes that world closer to self annihilation the Prime Directive prevents Captain Kirk and his crew from doing anything to prevent it When the worst appears to happen and Kirk takes desperate action to give the Talin a chance to step back from the nuclear abyss Talin IV is consumed by radioactive fire Now with a world destroyed and the Enterprise dead in space the careers of Kirk and his crew are over Disgraced and despised Kirk has only one chance to redeem himself and his crew Somehow he must make his way back to Talin IV and discover what really happened even if it means proving that a world died because he broke Starfleet s most sacred law

Barton,2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God's people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week
