and of course our own dogs who eat our money set our houses on fire and in more than one case actually shoot their owners with guns Animals Behaving Badly shows that animals are just like us gluttonous selfish violent lustful and always looking out for number one Using anecdotes from the news and from scientific research Linda Lombardi pokes fun at our softhearted preconceptions about animals makes us feel a little better about humanity's basest impulses and painlessly teaches us a bit more about our furry and feathered friends You'll learn Bees love alcohol even says one researcher more than college students Pandas enjoy pornographic movies they're particularly aroused by the soundtrack and macaques will pay with juice to look at dirty pictures A rabbit who lives in a pub in England is addicted to gambling with a slot machine African elephants raised by teenage mothers form violent youth gangs All in the Best Possible Taste Tom Bromley, 2010-08-19 Television past as LP Hartley might have once said is another country And in the early 1980s it certainly was a different beast There were still only three channels to watch the evening's programmes finished with the playing of the national anthem and the biggest prize on TV was not Chris Tarrant's million pounds but a speedboat on Bullseye But as Tom Bromley suggests in this funny and warming memoir all that was about to change The 1980s saw the end of the original golden era of television and the beginnings of TV as we know it today In 1982 Channel 4 became the first new terrestrial channel for almost twenty years and by the end of the decade Rupert Murdoch's Sky Television was vying to become Britain's first multi-channel provider The result of all this was that slowly but surely British viewers had more choice than ever before and the cost of this choice was the erosion of television as a shared national event And no one felt this change more deeply than Tom Bromley Television played a large part in Tom's childhood His first word was two as in BBC Two and his earliest childhood memory is seeing Johnny Ball at a church fete With great humour and affection Tom Bromley tells the story of a childhood spent with his three siblings and that other all-important family member the television set Norsk Bokfortegnelse, 1995 Animation Magazine, 2006 Animation in Europe Rolf Giesen, 2022-08-24 There is a lot one could say about animation in Europe but above all there is no consistent European animation It is as disparate as the various countries involved Audiences will certainly recognize American or Japanese animation but in Europe it can range from Czech Polish and Hungarian to Greek Italian Spanish Portuguese French and British Animation in Europe provides a comprehensive review of the history and current situation of animation in over 20 European countries It features numerous interviews with artists and producers including rare documents and firsthand accounts that illustrate the rich history of animation in Europe Additional features include An extensive chronology with key events in European animation A Who's Who of producers directors writers and animators working in Europe An examination of the origin of European animation and its influence Animation in Europe is the first book devoted entirely to this topic and therefore will be of value for animation buffs as well as practitioners and researchers
