Prester Quest The:

The Prester Quest Nicholas Jubber, 2005 In 1177 Pope Alexander III keen to secure a Christian ally from the other side of the Dar al Islam whose reputed wealth would prove invaluable to the Crusades wrote a letter to the elusive King of the Indies otherwise known as Prester John The person the Pope personally selected to deliver this letter into the hand of Prester John was a physician called Master Philip He was never heard of again Eight hundred and twenty four years later armed with a copy of Pope Alexander s letter and with a redoubtable travelling companion from his university days Nick Jubber set out from Venice with the express intention of somewhat belatedly completing Master Philip s mission Over the next four months he would travel by bus train tractor and horse drawn cart around the Eastern Mediterranean through the Middle East and North Africa before homing in on Ethiopia and the closely guarded tomb of a medieval king who legend links with the mythical mystical figure of Prester John From insights into medieval history and mysticism through observations on politics and religious tensions to accounts of eccentric customs ranging from the different names for the Middle Eastern water pipe to the unusual nature of Ethiopian time keeping and the day to day hurdles encountered while travelling through strange sometimes alien lands THE PRESTER QUEST is an ebullient eccentric erudite enlightening and extremely readable account of an extraordinary journey

The African Repository and Colonial Journal , 1829 The African Repository , 1828 The European Opportunity Felipe Fernández-Armesto, 2019-10-28 These 15 articles follow on from those in The Global Opportunity in that they examine how and why the Europeans expanded worldwide Part one explores the means in terms of science technology and material resources part two examines the motives primarily as a result of restricted resources in Europe while part three concludes with the reasons that the expansion continued and grew the momentum

A Compendium of the Earth, and of the People of the Earth, and of the Wars They Fought James Navarra, 2018-08-17 Since the dawn of mankind there has been war And though the cause of each may be different all have one thing in common the quest for power of one man or group over another Explore the entire history of human warfare from the very beginning of humanity to modern times and beyond and witness a lust for power that has not diminished with age

Medieval Ethiopian Kingship, Craft, and Diplomacy with Latin Europe Verena Krebs, 2021-03-17 This book explores why Ethiopian kings pursued long distance diplomatic contacts with Latin Europe in the late Middle Ages It traces the history of more than a dozen embassies dispatched to the Latin West by the kings of Solomonic Ethiopia a powerful Christian kingdom in the medieval Horn of Africa Drawing on sources from Europe Ethiopia and Egypt it examines the Ethiopian kings motivations for sending out their missions in the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries and argues that a desire to acquire religious treasures and foreign artisans drove this early intercontinental diplomacy Moreover the Ethiopian initiation of contacts with the distant Christian sphere of Latin Europe appears to have been intimately connected to a local political agenda of building monumental ecclesiastical architecture in the North East African highlands and asserted the Ethiopian rulers claim of universal kingship and rightful descent from the biblical king Solomon Shedding new light on the self identity of a late medieval African dynasty at the height of its power this book challenges conventional narratives of African European encounters on the eve of the so called Age of Exploration

The Shaping of Africa Francesc Relano, 2019-06-04 This title was first published in 2002 When did Africa emerge as a continent in the European mind This book aims to trace the origins of the idea of Africa and its evolution in Renaissance thought Particular attention is given to the relationship between the process of acquiring knowledge through travel and exploration and its representation within a discourse which also includes previously acquired cosmographical elements Among the themes investigated are How did the image of Africa evolve from the conception of a symbolic space to a Euclidean representation How did the Renaissance rediscovery of Antiquity interact with the Portuguese discoveries along the African coast And once Africa was circumnavigated how was the inner landmass depicted in the absence of first hand knowledge Also overall in this whole process what was the interplay of myth and reality

Peoples of the Apocalypse Wolfram Brandes, Felicitas Schmieder, Rebekka Voß, 2016-05-24 This volume addresses Jewish Christian and Muslim future visions on the end of the world focusing on the respective allies and antagonists for each religious society Spanning late Antiquity to the early modern period the collected papers examine distinctive aspects represented by each religion s approach as well as shared concepts

The Quest for Eastern Christians Francis M. Rogers, 1962-10-11 The Quest for Eastern Christians was first published in 1962 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Most writers have considered that the great European explorations during the Age of Discovery were motivated primarily by a thirst for knowledge of other lands desire for international trade or missionary zeal Professor Rogers demonstrates that there was another significant reason why Europeans traveled to the East during the late medieval and Renaissance period This was the dream of a Christian Indies which in turn led to a quest for the Christians of the Farther East The author specifically seeks to establish a direct relation between the knowledge of Indian and Ethiopian Christians which was available in Jerusalem from early Christian times onward and which returning pilgrims disseminated in the West and the presence of the Portuguese in South India and the Ethiopian highlands in the early sixteenth century Throughout his presentation of the evidence for the chain of events which links Palestinian knowledge with Portuguese action Professor Rogers places emphasis on the early printed books and tracts which circulated both accurate information and rumor Specimen pages from some of these books are reproduced as illustrations and there is a double page chart showing the genealogy of the nations and the sects of the Christians There is a list of the early printed books which the author has used in his study as well as a bibliography

The Quest for Eastern Christians , Geography and Religious Knowledge in the Medieval World Christoph Mauntel,2021-06-08 In the medieval world geographical knowledge was influenced by religious ideas and beliefs Whereas this point is well analysed for the Latin Christian world the religious character of the Arabic Islamic geographic tradition has not yet been scrutinised in detail This volume addresses this desideratum and combines case studies from both traditions of geographic thinking The contributions comprise in depth analyses of individual geographical works as for example those of al Idrisi or Lambert of Saint Omer different forms of presenting geographical knowledge such as TO diagrams or globes as well as performative aspects of studying and meditating geographical knowledge Focussing on texts as well as on maps the contributions open up a comparative perspective on how religious knowledge influenced the way the world and its geography were perceived and described in the medieval world Travel Writing, Form, and Empire Julia Kuehn,Paul Smethurst,2008-11-19 This collection of essays is an important contribution to travel writing studies looking beyond the explicitly political questions of postcolonial and gender discourses it considers the form poetics institutions and reception of travel writing in the history of empire and its aftermath Starting from the premise that travel writing studies has received much of its impetus and theoretical input from the sometimes overgeneralized precepts of postcolonial studies and gender studies this collection aims to explore more widely and more locally the expression of imperialist discourse in travel writing and also to locate within contemporary travel writing attempts to evade or re engage with the power politics of such discourse There is a double focus then to explore further postcolonial theory in European travel writing Anglophone Francophone and Hispanic and to trace the emergence of postcolonial forms of travel writing The thread that draws the two halves of the collection together is an interest in form and relations between form and travel Misadventure in the Middle East Henry Hemming, 2010-11-26 Experience the tale of a hapless young artist Yasmine the pick up and an extraordinary journey across the world
