As an aristocracy based on fortunes recently acquired, these families endeavored to live like Europe's blue-blooded nobility, shedding Puritan restraint as they joyously flaunted their new wealth, especially where their homes were concerned. They erected French chateaus and Italian palazzos on New York's Fifth Avenue, at Newport and elsewhere, often taking inspiration from Parisian styles of the Second Empire. They rejected more modest American styles just as they rejected middle-class society, and for interior decoration they turned to such artisans as Tiffany, Herter Brothers and Allard's of Paris. Immensely readable and illuminated with 250 stunning color and black and white illustrations, this is the fascinating story of America's first millionaire society: the way they lived and partied and the lush artistic and cultural legacy they established.
