Scotland What Every Visitor Needs To Know:

RSPB Handbook of Scottish Birds Peter Holden, Stuart Housden, 2016-07-28 This is a fully updated second edition of 2009's well reviewed RSPB Handbook of Scottish Birds detailing Scotland's rich birdlife. Over 250 species are covered in detail with one page per species including Gaelic names newly added for this edition. The detailed distribution maps have been fully updated and show when birds are breeding, wintering or on migration. More than a thousand superb colour illustrations by some of the world's leading bird artists have been integrated into the text for easy reference at home or in the field. Each detailed species account includes information on identification, voice, habits, habitat, food, breeding, ecology, seasonal movements, population and conservation.

The Armed Forces Covenant in action? Part 1: Military casualties Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2011-12-15 The Government must show how the excellent medical care being delivered to injured service personnel will continue long after the memory of the Afghan Operation fades. This report, which gives praise to the first class medical treatment provided for the Armed Forces, questions whether the support for injured personnel will be sustainable over the long term. In particular, the committee is concerned about the number of people who may go on to develop severe and life limiting physical, mental health, alcohol or neurological problems. There is still a question mark over whether the Government as a whole fully understands the likely future demands and related costs.

Conférence Internationale "Tourisme Durable, Environnement Et Emploi" Council of Europe, 2002-01-01 This conference was organised within the framework of the Council of Europe's activities to promote the development of all forms of sustainable tourism in Europe with particular attention to the central and east European countries. The issue of employment and local development was one of the conference's main themes and speakers from all fields discussed experiences of job creation and local community development within the framework of sustainable tourism programmes.
