Towards a regional political class? Klaus Stolz, 2013-07-19 Focussing on professional politicians Klaus Stolz investigates the interrelationship between political career patterns and political institutions in two of the most widely discussed cases of regionalism Catalonia and Scotland The study deals with two different yet closely related sets of questions Firstly how do professional politicians pursue their careers in the regional context And secondly how do they shape and reshape the political institutions in which they pursue these careers The monograph is based on extensive empirical research including a comprehensive data set on the careers of Catalan and Scottish parliamentarians systematic surveys of regional representatives as well as in depth interviews of a wide

The British Constitution Anthony King, 2007 In the nineteenth century Walter Bagehot wrote a classic account of the British constitution as it had developed during Queen Victoria s reign arguing that it was not at all what people thought it was Anthony King argues that the same is true at the beginning of this century The author maintains that while the new British constitution is a mess there is no going back now Grappling with the thorniest issues facing the British polity head on he offers a trenchant analysis of the increasingly divergent relationship between England Scotland and Wales in the light of devolution and a devastating critique of the reformed House of Lords The book is a Bagehot for the 21st Century and essential reading for anyone with an interest in the nature and future of British political life
