A Locker Room of Her Own David C. Ogden, Joel Nathan Rosen, 2013-06-03 Female athletes are too often perceived as interlopers in the historically male dominated world of sports Obstacles specific to women are of particular focus in A Locker Room of Her Own Race sexual orientation and the similar qualities ancillary to gender bear special exploration in how they impact an athlete's story Central to this volume is the contention that women in their role as inherent outsiders are placed in a unique position even more complicated than the usual experiences of inequality and discord associated with race and sports The contributors explore and critique the notion that in order to be considered among the pantheon of athletic heroes one cannot deviate from the traditional demographic profile that of the white male These essays look specifically and critically at the nature of gender and sexuality within the contested nexus of race reputation and sport The collection explores the reputations of iconic and pioneering sports figures and the cultural and social forces that helped to forge their unique and often problematic legacies Women athletes discussed in this volume include Babe Didrikson Zaharias the women of the AAGPBL Billie Jean King Venus and Serena Williams Marion Jones Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova Sheryl Swoopes Florence Griffith Joyner Roberta Gibb and Kathrine Switzer and Danica Patrick George Weiss Burton A.
