Arab World Cinemas Marle Hammond, 2024-03-05 From the exaggerated emotions of 1930s Egyptian melodrama to the cryptic allegories of late 20th century Palestinian cinema Arab World Cinemas guides you through 28 Arabic language feature films released between 1933 and 2021 including Muhammad Khan's Dreams of Hind and Camilia 1989 Moufida Tlatli's Silences of the Palace 1994 and Elia Suleiman's Divine Intervention 2002 Written specially for students the book is split into 3 parts Egypt North Africa and the eastern Arab world Each part begins with an introductory essay that highlights the aesthetic and socio historical trends and currents in the cinematic traditions particular to that region Marle Hammond then dedicates individual chapters to a group of films from the highlighted region interpreting their form and content through the lenses of cinematic technique and concepts drawn from various disciplines in the arts humanities and social sciences The Routledge Companion to World Cinema Rob Stone, Paul Cooke, Stephanie Dennison, Alex Marlow-Mann, 2017-09-27 The Routledge Companion to World Cinema explores and examines a global range of films and filmmakers their movements and audiences comparing their cultural technological and political dynamics identifying the impulses that constantly reshape the form and function of the cinemas of the world Each of the forty chapters provides a survey of a topic explaining why the issue or area is important and critically discussing the leading views in the area Designed as a dynamic forum for forty three world leading scholars this companion contains significant expertise and insight and is dedicated to challenging complacent views of hegemonic film cultures and replacing outmoded ideas about production distribution and reception It offers both a survey and an investigation into the condition and activity of contemporary filmmaking worldwide often challenging long standing categories and weighted often politically motivated value judgements thereby grounding and aligning the reader in an activity of remapping which is designed to prompt rethinking Arab Americans in Film Waleed F. Mahdi, 2020-10-21 Selected for Arab America's Best Arab American Books of 2020 list It comes as little surprise that Hollywood films have traditionally stereotyped Arab Americans but how are Arab Americans portrayed in Arab films and just as importantly how are they portrayed in the works of Arab American filmmakers themselves In this innovative volume Mahdi offers a comparative analysis of three cinemas yielding rich insights on the layers of representation and the ways in which those representations are challenged and disrupted Hollywood films have fostered reductive imagery of Arab Americans since the 1970s as either a national security threat or a foreign policy concern while Egyptian filmmakers have used polarizing images of Arab Americans since the 1990s to convey their nationalist critiques of the United States Both portrayals are rooted in anxieties around globalization migration and US Arab geopolitics In contrast Arab American cinema provides a more complex realistic and fluid representation of Arab American citizenship and the nuances of a transnational identity Exploring a wide variety of films from each cinematic site Mahdi traces the competing narratives of Arab American belonging how and why they vary and what's at stake in their circulation Companion Encyclopedia of Middle Eastern and North African

Film Oliver Leaman, 2003-12-16 This unique volume illuminates a fascinating area of cinema Each chapter covers the history and major issues of film within that area as well as providing bibliographies of the leading films directors and actors

Commerce in Culture A. Flibbert, 2007-09-03 Commerce in Culture is an innovative study of how states have responded to the globalization of the film sector Concerned with more than film content or substance the book exposes the ongoing political and economic struggles that shape cultural production and trade in the world The historical focus is on Hollywood's engagement with rivals and partners in two leading developing countries Egypt and Mexico beginning with the birth of their national film industries in the late 1920s State and market institutions evolved differently in each context acting like national prisms to mediate international competition and produce distinctive results As filmmaking has become a dynamic focal point in the new economy Commerce in Culture reveals a vital but neglected part of the global terrain Screens of Life Alia
