The Qur'an's

Reformation of Judaism and Christianity Holger M. Zellentin, 2019-03-20 This volume explores the relationship between the Qur'an and the Jewish and Christian traditions considering aspects of continuity and reform. The chapters examine the Qur'an's retelling of biblical narratives as well as its reaction to a wide array of topics that mark Late Antique religious discourse including eschatology and ritual purity, prophetology and paganism and heresiology and Christology. Twelve emerging and established scholars explore the many ways in which the Qur'an updates, transforms and challenges religious practice, beliefs and narratives that Late Antique Jews and Christians had developed in dialogue with the Bible. The volume establishes the Qur'an's often unique perspective alongside its surprising continuity with Judaism and Christianity. Chapters focus on individual suras and on intra-Qur'anic parallels on the Qur'an's relationship to pre-Islamic Arabian culture on its intertextuality and its literary intricacy and on its legal and moral framework. It illustrates a move away from the problematic paradigm of cultural influence and instead emphasizes the Qur'an's attempt to reform the religious landscape of its time. The Qur'an's Reformation of Judaism and Christianity offers new insight into the Islamic Scripture as a whole and into recent methodological developments providing a compelling snapshot of the burgeoning field of Qur'anic studies. It is a key resource for students and scholars interested in religion, Islam and Middle Eastern Studies. The Seventy Faces of Torah Stephen M. Wylen, 2005. Judaism, Christianity and Islam all acknowledge the Hebrew Bible to be Sacred Scripture. And yet these different and often contradictory religions each has its own way of reading the Bible and interpreting it according to its own later sacred literature. The Seventy Faces of Torah explains in clear and accessible language the Jewish art of reading and interpreting the Bible and introduces the reader to the major texts and genres of rabbinic literature.
