Rijckeghem, 2025-06-03 Denmark 870 AD Yrsa knows her place in the village of Mimir's Stool. Though she was born with a crooked foot, she's never let anyone underestimate her. After all, she's the daughter of Toke, the helmsman and granddaughter of the fearsome warrior Gudrun, the Torch, who according to legend stood before the walls of Paris splattered in the blood of Frankish warriors. And no one else in the village shares her ability to see what the Norns, the three weavers who live under the roots of Yggdrasil, the world tree, and craft people's fates have in store for them. One day the men return from a raid with a high ranking hostage, Sister Job, and though the two girls couldn't be more different, they look out for one another. And when one of the villagers viciously assaults Sister Job, and she and Yrsa mortally wound him in self defense, they're forced to take to the sea to escape the wrath of the warriors of Mimir's Stool and worse, the wrath of the gods. Can either of them escape their fate? Do they even want to? From the acclaimed author of Ironhead or Once a Young Lady Comes, Daughter of Doom, a dark historical adventure about fate, faith, and free will set on the rollicking seas in the age of Vikings. Handbook on the History and Culture of the Black Sea Region Ninja Bumann, Kerstin S. Jobst, Stefan Rohdewald, Stefan Troebst, 2024-12-30 Following the annexation of Crimea by the Russian Federation in spring 2014, 160 years after the Crimean War, and the full scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022, the Black Sea region has again become the focus of world history. In this handbook, international scholars from various historical and cultural disciplines provide deep historical insights into the structures of conflict, cooperation, and interrelations between the Balkans, the Middle East, the Caucasus, and Eastern Europe in the space referred to as the Black Sea world. The trans-maritime communication and intra-regional circulations spanning from Antiquity to the present day via Byzantium, the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, the Crimean Khanate, the Venetian, Safavid, Ottoman, and Romanov empires, two World Wars, and the Cold War highlight the autonomy of this historical region in the larger transcontinental setting designated in various times and varying languages as the Pontus Euxinus, the Mare Maggior, the Kara Deniz, the Chernoe More, or the Black Sea. This voluminous edition sheds real light upon the history of the Black Sea region from antiquity until the end of the 20th century. Not only does this first-rate book provide a host of excellent historical essays across time, it also devotes considerable attention to important questions regarding how the Black Sea region is conceptualized and theorized. A very useful contribution. James H. Meyer, Montana State University. In the wake of several research projects, monographs, and journals, this is the first groundbreaking handbook on the cohesive history of the Black Sea as a historical meso-region. It gathers 39 excellent contributions that provide the conceptual apparatus, survey the history of the region from a Greek to Byzantine to Ottoman lake to conflicting rivalries to its recent transformation from a quasi-Soviet to a quasi-NATO lake, examine the ideas that underpin the various national, ethnic, and religious identities, research the different mobilities through migration, transport, infrastructure, and take stock of its turbulent history through conflicts and war. Maria Todorova, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Mostly the work of scholars from Central Europe and the Black Sea region, this massive volume focuses on the relationship between historical research and memory, in particular the difficulty of certain groups living in the region when confronted with empires and nation states whose centers may be quite distant from the Black Sea Attentive readers may thus view the present handbook not merely as a work of reference on history memory and movement but also as a testimony to the historical perspectives developed by a significant number of Central European and Black Sea scholars during the first quarter of the twenty first century Suraiya Faroghi Ibn Haldun University Istanbul
