Seal Woman:

The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 1993 The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 2025-03-01 Portrait of a widow in mourning by one of Australia's most important women writers The Seal Woman was first published to acclaim in 1992 but has been out of print for many years The novel explores the mind of a middle-aged Danish woman mourning the recent death of her husband at sea in a cottage lent to her by friends in the seaside village in Victoria where she had spent her honeymoon Farmer's prose is marked by the suppleness of its language and its extraordinary attention to detail Dagmar's observations of the sea and its creatures the light the mist the wind the life of plants are so intense and evocative it is as if she has dissolved into her surroundings On the other hand her passivity leaves her vulnerable to the deceit of others particularly the man she depends on as her lover Her retreat into wonder is undercut by a persistent questioning as to how far it might lead her into a state of submission The Seal Woman was originally published two years after A Body of Water an imaginative montage of journal commonplace book stories and poems which it resembles in its own use of mixed sources from myth and legend and history In bringing these two books back into print alongside Farmer's first work of fiction Alone and her last books The Bone House and This Water Giramondo is building on its commitment not only to this remarkable author but to the republication of contemporary classics by Australian women authors The Seal Woman Enna Garðshorn Mikkelsen, 2015 The Seal-Woman, 2015 The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991 Mornings in Mexico D.H. Coastal Works Nicholas Allen,Nick Groom,Jos Smith,2017-07-04 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in
