The Search for Africa Basil Davidson, 1994 Comprises essays published between 1953 and 1992 which illuminate the reinstallation of Africa's peoples within the culture of the world The Search for Africa Basil Davidson, 1994 A collection of short essays various aspects of African history culture and modern politics African Mind, Culture, and Technology

Yamikani Ndasauka, 2024-07-01 This book provides a philosophical investigation of technology in Africa articulating conceptual foundations and analyses rooted in African worldviews and communitarian values It aims to spur discourse and understanding of how technology can be justly shaped for human advancement in Africa Yamikani Ndasauka highlights the need to understand African conceptions of existence ethics and values as foundations for envisioning more humanistic technological applications A historical contextualisation traces the layered origins of African technology philosophy in indigenous innovation resistant adaptation of external systems and creative fusion of endogenous and exogenous knowledge The book develops African frameworks to assess and design technology in accord with human dignity and collective advancement Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1994 Post-Colonial Studies: The Key Concepts Bill

Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2013-06-26 This hugely popular A Z guide provides a comprehensive overview of the issues which characterize post colonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and the crucial part it plays in debates about race gender politics language and identity For this third edition over thirty new entries have been added including Cosmopolitanism Development Fundamentalism Nostalgia Post colonial cinema Sustainability Trafficking World Englishes Post Colonial Studies The Key Concepts remains an essential guide for anyone studying this vibrant field Black Girls Sabrina Marchetti, 2014-06-26 In today's Europe migrant domestic workers are indispensable in supporting many households which without their employment would lack sufficient domestic and care labour Black Girls collects and explores the stories of some of the first among these workers They are the Afro Surinamese and the Eritrean women who in the 1960s and 70s migrated to the former colonising country the Netherlands and Italy respectively and there became domestic and care workers Sabrina Marchetti analyses the narratives of some of these women in order to powerfully demonstrate how the legacies of the colonial past have been at the same time both their tool of resistance and the reason for their subordination

The Political Economy of a Plural World Robert W. Cox, Michael G. Schechter, 2003-08-29 Building on his seminal contributions to the field Robert W Cox engages with the major themes that have characterized his work over the past three decades and the main topics which affect the globalized world at the start of the twentieth century This new volume by one of the world's leading critical thinkers in international political economy addresses such core issues as global civil society power and knowledge the covert world multilateralism and civilizations and world order With an introductory essay by Michael Schechter which addresses current critiques of Coxian theory the author enters into a stimulating dialogue with critics of his work Timely provocative and original this book is a major contribution to international political economy and is essential reading for all students and academics in the field      Unveiling Traditions Anouar Majid, 2000-11-29 Questions the intellectual assumptions that prevent an understanding of potential Islamic contributions toward a more egalitarian world civilization      Cimboa, 1996 Revista caboverdiana de letras artes e estudos a journal of letters arts and studies      Across Cultural Borders Eckhardt Fuchs, Benedikt Stuchtey, 2002 This innovative work offers the first comprehensive transcultural history of historiography The contributors transcend a Eurocentric approach not only in terms of the individual historiographies they assess but also in the methodologies they use for comparative analysis Moving beyond the traditional national focus of historiography the book offers a genuinely comparative consideration of the commonalities and differences in writing history Distinguishing among distinct cultural identities the contributors consider the ways and means of intellectual transfers and assess the strength of local historiographical traditions as they are challenged from outside The essays explore the question of the utility and the limits of conceptions of modernism that apply Western theories of development to non Western cultures Warning against the dominant tendency in recent historiographies of non Western societies to define these predominantly in relation to Western thought the authors show the extent to which indigenous traditions have been overlooked The key question is how the triad of industrialization modernization and the historicization process which was decisive in the development of modern academic historiography also is valid beyond Europe Illustrating just how deeply suffused history writing is with European models the book offers a broad theoretical platform for exploring the value and necessity of a world historiography beyond Eurocentrism      Savage Constructions Wendy C. Hamblet, 2008-03-26 Savage Constructions composes a critical examination of the popular assumption that violence is an essential quality of certain ethnic or racial populations Wendy Hamblet challenges the supposition all too common in the West that darker skinned peoples are inherently violent To challenge this myth Savage Constructions offers a theory of subjectivity transformed by historical violence It rethinks how African peoples once living in simple neighborly communities more democratic and egalitarian than modern states have come to the condition of abjection misery and fierce aggression in which we find them today This rethinking she argues that Western affluence is built upon slaughter slavery and colonial oppression and suggests that prosperous nations of the West owe a great debt to the societies they trampled en route to their prosperity This work is important because Newly independent nations of Africa are a primary example of a much vaster phenomenon Western powers continue to sack poorer weaker countries through covert intrigue outright war crippling debts and unfair global labor and trade policies The violences continue because many Westerners still harbor metaphysical assumptions about the supremacy of white Christians over less civilized darker skinned peoples These assumptions depress the possibilities of ethnic minorities within the West continue to influence foreign policy and frustrate global relations and ensure that the overwhelming collateral damage of modern wars is color conscious Savage Constructions will appeal to all levels of scholars and students      The Chinua Achebe Encyclopedia M. Keith Booker, 2003-12-30 Several hundred A Z entries cover Achebe's major works, important characters and settings, key concepts and issues, and more. Though best known as a novelist, Achebe is also a critic, activist, and spokesman for African culture. This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries. Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe's major works of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies. The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology.

Nigerian writer Chinua Achebe is widely regarded as the most important of the numerous African novelists who gained global attention in the second half of the 20th century. Achebe is certainly the African writer best known in the West, and his first novel Things Fall Apart is a founding text of postcolonial African literature and regarded as one of the central works of world literature of the last 50 years. Though best known as a novelist, Achebe is also a critic, activist, and spokesman for African culture. This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries. Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe's major works of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. Other topics include all of his major fictional characters and settings, important concepts and issues central to his writings, historical persons, places, and events relevant to his works, and influential texts by other writers. Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies. The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology.

Beyond the Political Spider, 2023-01-10 Beyond the Political Spider: Critical Issues in African Humanities by Kwesi Yankah is the first title in the newly established African Humanities Association (AHA) publication series. By integrating his own biography into a critique of the global politics of knowledge production, Yankah, through a collection of essays, interrogates critical issues confronting the Humanities that spawn intellectual hegemonies and muffle African voices. Using the example of Ghana, he brings under scrutiny, amongst others, endemic issues of academic freedom, gender inequities, the unequal global academic order, and linguistic imperialism in language policies in governance. In the face of these challenges, the author deftly navigates the complex terrain of indigenous knowledge and language in the context of democratic politics, demonstrating that agency can be liberatory when emphasising indigenous knowledge, especially expressed through the idiom of local languages and symbols, including Ananse, the protean spider folk hero in Ghana and most parts of the pan-African world.

Making Good the Claim, Rufus Burrow, 2016-02-16 The Church of God Reformation Movement, founded in 1881, has the distinction of having been founded on the two core principles of holiness and visible unity. Standard histories of the group proudly argue that the founder and pioneers exhibited a zeal for interracial unity that began to wane only in the early years of the twentieth century. This book rejects that claim and argues instead that little to no extant hard evidence supports that view. Moreover, Making Good the Claim argues that while blacks eagerly joined the group, they did so not because whites expended much energy evangelizing among them, but because they heard something deeper in the message of holiness and visible unity than God's expectation that members achieve spiritual and church unity. Unlike most whites blacks interpreted the message to call for unity along racial lines as well This book challenges members of the Church of God to begin forthwith to make good their historic claim about holiness and visible unity particularly as it applies to interracial unity Hard Road to Freedom James Oliver Horton,Lois Horton,Lois E. Horton,2002 Since Hard Road to Freedom was released it has garnered universal acclaim Rutgers University Press is pleased to announce the availability of this book in two separate volumes for courses in African American history that span two semesters Volume I includes the following chapters Africa and the Atlantic Slave Trade The Evolution of Slavery in British North America Slavery and Freedom in the Age of Revolution The Early Republic and the Rise of the Cotton Kingdom Slavery and the Slave Community Free People of Color and the Fight against Slavery From Militancy to Civil War Features of Volume I include Timelines for each chapter Sidebars highlighting significant African Americans some well known some lesser known Transcriptions of significant historical documents ranging from autobiographies legal decrees speeches and military orders The Global Resistance Reader Louise Amooore,2005 The Global Resistance Reader provides the first comprehensive collection of work on the phenomenal rise of transnational social movements and resistance politics from the visible struggles against the financial economic and political authority of large international organizations such as the World Trade Organization World Bank and International Monetary Fund to the much less visible acts of resistance in everyday life The conceptual debates substantive themes and case studies have been selected to open up the idea of global resistance to interrogation and discussion by students and to provide a one stop orientation for researchers journalists policymakers and activists

Archives of Empire Barbara Harlow,Mia Carter,2003-12-31 A rich collection of primary materials the multivolume Archives of Empire provides a documentary history of nineteenth century British imperialism from the Indian subcontinent to the Suez Canal to southernmost Africa Barbara Harlow and Mia Carter have carefully selected a diverse range of texts that track the debates over imperialism in the ranks of the military the corridors of political power the lobbies of missionary organizations the halls of royal geographic and ethnographic societies the boardrooms of trading companies the editorial offices of major newspapers and far flung parts of the empire itself Focusing on a particular region and historical period each volume in Archives of Empire is organized into sections preceded by brief introductions Documents including mercantile company charters parliamentary records explorers accounts and political cartoons are complemented by timelines maps and bibliographies Unique resources for teachers and students these volumes reveal the complexities of nineteenth century colonialism and emphasize its enduring relevance to the global markets of the twenty first century While focusing on the expansion of the British Empire The Scramble for Africa illuminates the intense nineteenth century contest among European nations over Africa s land people and resources Highlighting the 1885 Berlin Conference in which Britain France Germany Portugal and Italy partitioned Africa among themselves this collection follows British conflicts with other nations over different regions as well as its eventual challenge to Leopold of Belgium s rule of the Congo The reports speeches treatises proclamations letters and cartoons assembled here include works by Henry M Stanley David Livingstone Joseph Conrad G W F Hegel Winston Churchill Charles Darwin and Arthur Conan Doyle A number of pieces highlight the proliferation of companies chartered to pursue Africa s gold diamonds and oil particularly Cecil J Rhodes s British South Africa Company and Frederick Lugard s Royal Niger Company Other documents describe debacles on the continent such as the defeat of General Gordon in Khartoum and the Anglo Boer War and the criticism of imperial maneuvers by proto human rights activists including George Washington Williams Mark Twain Olive Schreiner and E D Morel Poverty From The Wealth of Nations M. Alam,2016-02-05 In Poverty from the Wealth of Nations the author presents an analysis of the evolution of global disparities that goes beyond the earlier neo Marxist critiques of global capitalism He moves beyond their narrative by inserting two additional asymmetries into the global economy those created by unequal races and unequal states The author analyzes not only the power of markets but the powers that shaped these markets More importantly he marshals cross country evidence to show that loss of sovereignty retarded industrialization human capital formation and economic growth
