

IV. Outcome of the Peace Settlements

- New nations with self-determination: Poland, Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia.

A.) Mandate system:

- Europe's colonies wanted independence, but instead became mandates- territories ruled by European nations.
- Middle East, Africa, and Asia remained under French and British control.

Search For Peace Settlements:

The Search for Peace Settlements Brookings Institution. International Studies Group, Redvers Opie, 1951 In Search of a Peace Settlement M. Gat, 2012-06-28 This is the first examination of the Israeli and Egyptian peace process between 1967-1973 which highlights the rise and fall of Soviet influence after the Six Day War and explores how the increasing importance of America's political leadership affected the region International Law and Peace Settlements Marc Weller, Mark Retter, Andrea Varga, 2021-02-04 International Law and Peace Settlements provides a systematic and comprehensive assessment of the relationship between international law and peace settlement practice across core settlement issues e.g. transitional justice, human rights, refugees, self-determination, power sharing and wealth sharing. The contributions address key cross-cutting questions on the legal status of peace agreements, the potential for developing international law and the role of key actors such as non-state armed groups, third state witnesses and guarantors and the UN Security Council in the legalisation and internationalisation of settlement commitments. In recent years, significant scholarly work has examined facets of the relationship between international law and peace settlements through concepts such as jus post bellum and lex pacificatoria. International Law and Peace Settlements drives forward the debate on the legalisation and internationalisation of peace agreements with diverse contributions from leading academics and practitioners in international law and conflict resolution International Studies Group Brookings Institution, 1951 The Search for Peace Settlements Redvers Opie, 1931 The Search for Negotiated Peace David S. Patterson, 2012-09-10 The First World War was an epic event of huge proportions that lasted over four years and involved the armies of more than twenty nations resulting in 30 million casualties including more than 8 million killed. Set against the backdrop of this massive carnage, The Search for Negotiated Peace is the gripping story of the events that moved high-profile American and European citizens, particularly women, into the international peace movement. This small transatlantic network put forth proposals for changing the international system of negotiation. They supported non-annexationist war aims and attempted to discredit nations' secret diplomacy, militarism and narrowly nationalistic practices. Instead, they wanted to develop a new diplomacy. David Patterson skillfully develops the interactions of many of the notable leaders of the movement, including Jane Addams, Aletta Jacobs and Rosika Schwimmer, into an absorbing narrative that brings together the various strands of women's history, international diplomatic history and peace history for the first time. The Search for Negotiated Peace is an essential read for anyone interested in the social history of World War I and the foundations of citizen activism today Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace Laura Zittrain Eisenberg, Neil Caplan, 2025-04-22 Fifteen years since the publication of its second edition, this foundational text in the history of Arab-Israeli peacemaking endeavors has been updated to include developments from the past twenty-five years. Thoroughly revised and expanded, the third edition of Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab-Israeli conflict since the 1970s and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that repeatedly derail peacemaking efforts In addition to updating all of the book's existing chapters with post 2010 sources and developments authors Eisenberg and Caplan have added new chapters on the Arab Peace Initiative the Annapolis Conference the Kerry mission and the Abraham Accords as well as a conclusion that questions several core notions regarding the nature of the conflict the possibility of its resolution Arab Israeli normalization and the viability of the two state solution An epilogue extends the book's framework into present day crises in the region specifically Hamas's 7 October 2023 attack on Israel and Israel's war against Hamas in Gaza A companion website comprises nine appendices among them 145 primary source documents expanded notes links to websites for maps data and analysis peace activities and additional visual and documentary sources Also online is a robust instructor's guide offering supplementary resources and ideas for assignments research and classroom exercises all of which draw upon and complement the themes running throughout the text By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the historical pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace makes possible a coherent comparison of some eighty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and offers readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future

The Search for Peace in the Middle East Samuel Merlin, 1969 Contracts and Peace Treaties Pieter Nicolaas Drost, 2012-12-06 Recent origin of subject A study on Contracts and Peace Treaties does not require a historical introduction because the problem is of a very recent origin With regard to its present day importance it is remarkable that the subject found hardly ever expression in any Peace Treaty before 1919 One has only to go back to the Peace Treaties of World War I to find the first detailed provisions relating to contracts between enemies The text of the relevant articles of the Treaties of the Versailles group is identical Art 299 Treaty of Versailles corresponds with art 251 Treaty of St Germain with art 180 Treaty of Neuilly with art 234 Treaty of Trianon The Treaty of Lausanne of 1923 with Turkey which replaced the unratified Treaty of Sevres was similar in outline but differed in some material aspects Presently we shall see that the Treaty of Brest Litovsk and the other eastern Peace Treaties did not prescribe any alterations in the municipal law of the Signatory Powers The Peace Treaties of World War II concluded at Paris in 1947 with Italy Roumania Bulgaria Hungary and Finland contain also a number of identical provisions on contracts Annex XVI of the Treaty with Italy corresponds with Annex V of the other Treaties Anglo Saxon origin of Treaty provisions
