An Autumn's Journey Craig D. Lounsbrough, 2017-11-15 WE LIVE IN A CULTURE THAT IS DESPERATE TO AVOID LOSS We choose to fight it because we assume that it has come only to unfairly steal and inflict terrible pain Loss is seen as the rogue enemy and heartless foe rather than an opportunity for immense and improbable growth It s in loss that some of the richest and rarest of life s lessons lay buried eagerly waiting to be deeply mined and unearthed In the deepest pain God does the deepest work An Autumn s Journey Deep Growth in the Grief and Loss of Life s Seasons does not loosely gloss over loss or provide shallow prescriptions and weak formulas for our grieving Rather it aggressively embraces both grief and loss bringing fresh eyes to these times in our lives in order to draw out of them the marvelous riches that we all too often miss

Your child will get through this and so will you Superlative Natalie Kristina Goldstraw,2004 Superlative depicts the expectations and uncertainties that are at the forefront of life at the end of the twentieth century and into the contemporary moment This impressive volume of verse utilises traditional ideologies and forms and yet at the same time it also establishes a unique postmodern style that is cutting and opinionated setting the poetry a league ahead of all other modern verse There is a multitude of unparalleled themes that are confronted in this 100 plus collection of verse alongside established forms and topics The list ranging from life to death and ambition to failure is too varied and extensive to list in its entirety Humour is a primary objective of the book and one that is recurrent one fantastic example The damage is already done basks in its own self glory and is truly postmodern in its awareness of its own aptitude and magnitude Love poems are prevalent too within the collection although this is not to say that all of the love poetry is traditional The last ounce Modern day love and Oh don't get pissed again reject the style and content of the canonical love poem for something a little more postmodern As well as a variation in themes forms both traditional and original also vary to best depict or satirise the situation For example A child for the millennium uses free verse and elaborate language to parody its content that is the degenerate youth culture The result is that ironically the uneducated youth is unable to comprehend the issues that are in fact so pertinent to their lives as is the case in real life also This book is guaranteed to taunt you haunt you and leave you questioning your position in the contemporary situations that the author so ingeniously presents The White Tree: The Blacksmith Mark C. A Walking Distance Robert Ortiz, 2007-10. A Walking Distance is an autobiography that takes you from a small growing border town in south Texas to the Middle East. Along the way, the story derives from growing up in the hardships of a low income family and the dream of a young man searching for a purpose while divided between religion, race, and the choices in life. He learns and grows by staying away from the constant drugs and gangs in school, only to find the association he wanted in the football team. After being a part of an up and rising successful Texas high school football program, his experience in the football stardom takes him one step higher to the hardest task he had ever come across as he joins the elite fighting force in the United States Marines. He quickly learns that the Marine Corps is not at all what he expected as he lives the life of a marine and is flown overseas to fight in the Iraq War. A Walking Distance truly takes you for a ride as the road twists and turns towards an indefinite conclusion. The author carries you from Laredo to the Middle East, then back again in a constant cycle as he walks towards what is needed to be successful and the simple pursuit of happiness in an unseen future.
