Season Of The Witch Border Lines Marginal Notes:

Season of the Witch Gail B. Griffin, 1995 Griffin's provocative reflections on the art and philosophy of teaching and the still marginal position of women in academe are a must for all those interested in the state of higher education The Chicago Guide to Your Academic Career John A. Goldsmith, John Komlos, Penny Schine Gold, 2010-04-15 Is a career as a professor the right choice for you If you are a graduate student how can you clear the hurdles successfully and position yourself for academic employment What's the best way to prepare for a job interview and how can you maximize your chances of landing a job that suits you What happens if you don't receive an offer How does the tenure process work and how do faculty members cope with the multiple and conflicting day to day demands With a perpetually tight job market in the traditional academic fields the road to an academic career for many aspiring scholars will often be a rocky and frustrating one Where can they turn for good frank answers to their questions Here three distinguished scholars with more than 75 years of combined experience talk openly about what's good and what's not so good about academia as a place to work and a way of life Written as an informal conversation among colleagues the book is packed with inside information about finding a mentor avoiding pitfalls when writing a dissertation negotiating the job listings and much more The three authors distinctive opinions and strategies offer the reader multiple perspectives on typical problems With rare candor and insight they talk about such tough issues as departmental politics dual career marriages and sexual harassment Rounding out the discussion are short essays that offer the inside track on financing graduate education publishing the first book and leaving academia for the corporate world This helpful guide is for anyone who has ever wondered what the fascinating and challenging world of academia might hold in store Part I Becoming a Scholar Deciding on an Academic Career Entering Graduate School The Mentor Writing a Dissertation Landing an Academic Job Part II The Academic Profession The Life of the Assistant Professor Teaching and Research Tenure Competition in the University System and Outside Offers The Personal Side of Academic Life diverse disciplines and cultural perspectives to reflect a more contemporary viewpoint that motherhood and mothering is not limited by the stages of life or chronological age It echoes distinct voices speaking about experiences that represent a global reality for midlife mothering practices In essence this collection demonstrates that everything can transpire in the middle period of a woman s life Thus in midlife we encounter a broad range of mothering experiences and practices and ways of representing and expressing them

It has a twofold purpose. First, it facilitates K-12 and university faculty in situating Arboleda's book within the fields of race relations, multicultural education, and related disciplines. Second, it is intended to critique and problematize the book's content so that it can be used to stimulate critical thought, debate, and action oriented toward increasing social justice among its readers both inside and outside of the classroom. To facilitate use of In the Shadow of Race as a course text, topics for discussion included in this Teacher's Guide include the social construction of race, racial separatism versus diversity, racial/ethnic and cultural identity development, the politics of racial categorization, mixed race peoples, cultural identity vs. identity by heritage, the concept of a cultural home, and changing identities within cultures. The Teacher's Guide is free to college faculty who adopt Arboleda's In the Shadow of Race. On Mothering Multiples: Complexities and Possibilities Kathy Mantas, 2016-01-01 Demeter Press took on the challenge of discussing multiples through On Mothering Multiples: Complexities and Possibilities, a book that promised to re-explore, re-present, and make meaning of the process of conception, pregnancy, childbirth, and mothering experiences with multiples. Under the editorship of Kathy Mantas and through diverse contributions of research, artwork, and narrative pieces, this topic is explored with diverse voices that elicit nuance towards a subject that often suffers from cliché and overt charm. Daring to taunt the reader who may be beguiled by the blessing of multiples with an unflinching look at subjects such as fetal demise, disability, postpartum depression, the beauty and the beast of the post-twin maternal body, and the society's obsession and derision with multiples conceived through assistive reproductive technology, this book is a foundational text on the topic of the messiness of multiple births and mothering. This collection manages to be both intensely personal while maintaining the scholarly distance necessary to offer an important contribution to the field of motherhood studies, as well as intersecting with grief work and disability studies. Published in 2016, this book remains provocative and stealth in how it unfurls its wisdom, providing both clarity and further. Blue Mesa Review, 2003 September 11, 2001 William Heyen, 2002 Over 125 American writers reflect on September 11 in its immediate aftermath. Doing Feminism Mary Anderson, 1997 This collection of papers from the conference on Revisioning Knowledge and the Curriculum exemplifies the variety of women's studies as a transformative movement. Topics covered include feminist reframings of knowledge and the process of teaching and institutional change. Women Faculty of Color in the White Classroom Lucila Vargas, 2002 What is it like for women of color to teach in predominantly white college classrooms? This anthology is about the pedagogical implications of diversifying the faculty of higher education. It compiles narratives by women professors of color who interrogate their classroom experiences in predominantly white U S campuses to examine the impact of their social positions upon their classroom practices and their teaching learning selves The authors reflect upon their unique classroom challenges and talk about the teaching learning strategies they use to find rewards in their interactions with students This anthology explores the larger question of how social distinctions shape classroom social life and will be a resource for those concerned with enabling the diversification of the faculty of institutions of higher learning Jo's Girls Christian McEwen,1997-06-30 From her classic novel LITTLE WOMEN Louisa May Alcott s energetic and androgynous character Jo March has inspired generations of tomboys but eventually Jo submitted to the role of wife and mother Here an assortment of women writers push the tomboy narrative beyond the boundaries of children s literature to reveal the determined tomboy spirit and the variety of paths taken by real life tomboys as they navigate adolescence and adulthood Feminist Periodicals ,1998
