Grollman, 1990 Why do people die How do you explain the loss of a loved one to a child This book is a compassionate guide for adults and children to read together featuring a readalong story answers to questions children ask about death and a comprehensive list of resources and organizations that can help

Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving considers how secondary English language arts teachers and teacher educators can sensitively and thoughtfully teach pieces of literature in their classrooms in which large scale deaths are a significant if not central aspect of the texts As mass shootings and violence against black and brown bodies increase and issues such as AIDS war and genocide remain important to discuss as part of a shared critical and social consciousness this book provides resources for educators to directly tackle and discuss these topics through the texts they read in their ELA classrooms Whether it is canonical or contemporary literature middle grades or young adult literature fiction nonfiction or graphic novels literature provides a vehicle to have these difficult but needed conversations about not only the personal but social effects of death and grief in our society Each chapter in this book focuses on 1-2 texts and provides practical activities that ask students to engage with death dying and loss through writing assignments projects activities and discussion prompts in order to build empathy understanding and develop critically minded and engaged students Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving will be of interest to English language arts teachers teacher educators librarians and scholars who wish to explore with their students the complex emotions that revolve around discussing deaths that occur in literature

Lessons in Loss and Living Michele A. Reiss,2010-11-02 Dr Michele Reiss an expert in the field of death and dying specializes in helping clients cope with life threatening illnesses and helping their families through the grieving process A highly respected therapist she counseled Randy Pausch author of The Last Lecture and his wife Jai as Randy was dying of pancreatic cancer Now Dr Reiss provides comfort and counsel for readers who are coping with the challenges of serious illness or grief Through real life examples of people who have dealt with cancer and other illnesses she has given us a book about hope and the art of living and loving well despite significant adversity This beautifully written inspiring book reminds the rest of us that time is precious and that we should live our lives fully generously and with joy Play Therapy Interventions to Enhance Resilience David A. Crenshaw,Robert Brooks,Sam Goldstein,2015-04-23 The importance of therapeutic play in helping children recover from adversity has long been recognized This unique volume brings together experts on resilience trauma and play therapy to describe effective treatment approaches in this key area The book begins by providing guiding principles for intervention and describing the specific properties of play that promote resilience Subsequent chapters delve into clinical applications including such strategies as storytelling and metaphors sand play art therapy play therapy adaptations for school settings group interventions and the use of therapeutic writing Rich case studies and vignettes demonstrate creative ways to bolster at risk children s strengths and enhance their natural capacity to thrive

Dying, Death, and Bereavement Inge Corless, RN, PhD, FAAN,Inge B. Corless,Barbara B. Germino,Mary A. Pittman, DrPH,2006-06-02 Based on practice knowledge of the authors rather than on research this book may be particularly useful for those professionals who have not had hands on experience with people at the last stages of dying It is a resource that can be referred to time and again by those who care for people facing the final stage of life Mending the Torn Fabric Sarah Brabant,2016-11-03 The analogy of the torn fabric was first used by the author in response to a bereaved mother s cry I know what grief feels like I don t know what it looks like In Mending the Torn Fabric For Those Who Grieve and Those Who Want to Help Them the author expands the metaphor to include earlier and future or potential losses as well as losses associated with the death that may be unrecognized or minimized This book includes chapters that examine complications that may be present or may arise suggestions for mending even the most torn fabric and a chapter dedicated to friends who want to help Stories bereaved persons have shared with the author through the years are interspersed throughout the book to provide examples of loss and mending Bereavement and Support Marylou Hughes,2013-11-12 In the early 1970s bereavement support groups were almost unknown However the obvious benefits of the group process for recovery the mutual support and understanding that helps mourners to a better outlook has created a demand for people who can organise and facilitate these groups Addressing the basis and need for support groups for the bereaved this book presents a theoretical overview examines benefits and variety of support groups structured and unstructural special populations and specifics for initiating organising and running them such as publicity It differs from other treatments in that theory and practice are moulded into a how to approach with all procedures presented equally for the widest range of choices Also included is a comprehensive book bibliography for adults children children s helpers and parents This text is intended to be of use as a resource for professionals in the field of thanatology including psychologists psychiatrists gerontologists therapists group counsellors hospice workers educators funeral home directors home health employees hospital staff and volunteer organisations that work with survivors

Death and Dying John F. Szabo,2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Trauma and Expressive Arts Therapy Cathy A. Malchiodi,2020-02-12 From pioneering therapist Cathy A Malchiodi this book synthesizes the breadth of research on trauma and the brain and presents an innovative framework for treating trauma through the expressive arts The volume describes powerful ways to tap into deeply felt bodily and sensory experiences as a foundation for safely exploring emotions memories and personal narratives Rich clinical examples illustrate the use of movement sound play art and drama with children and adults Malchiodi s approach not only enables survivors to express experiences that defy verbalization but also helps them to transform and integrate the trauma regain a sense of aliveness and imagine a new future Purchasers get access to a companion website where they can download and print reproducible tools from the book in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size as well as full color versions of 26 figures

Raising Lumie Joan Bauer,2021-05-04 A poignant hopeful story of a girl and her puppy from

Newbery Honor winning author Joan Bauer now in paperback Olive Hudson desperately wants a dog But that doesn't seem to be a possibility right now Newly orphaned she's moving in with the half sister she hardly knows and their life is too chaotic to include a dog But then something wonderful happens Olive gets a chance to raise Lumie a guide dog puppy Discipline Rules Lots of hugs Only the best of the best puppies continue on to become guide dogs and of course Olive wants Lumie to be chosen But if she is that means that Olive will lose her Once again the incomparable Joan Bauer tells a touching story that is full of heart and warmth and unabashed idealism Fostering Empathy Through Museums Elif M. Gokcigdem, 2016-07-19

Fostering Empathy through Museums features fifteen case studies with clear take away ideas and lessons learned by vividly illustrating a spectrum of approaches in the way museums are currently employing empathy a critical skill that is relevant to personal institutional economical and societal progress The need is rapidly growing for empathy to serve as a lens through which we find our purpose and connection in a complex world This demand brings with it an appetite to cultivate it through safe and trusted platforms Museums are uniquely equipped to undertake this important mission This book will help museum staff and leadership at all levels working at a variety of museums from animal sanctuaries to art museums from historic house museums to children's and science museums to better understand the multitude of ways how empathy can be cultivated and employed in museum setting Fostering Empathy through Museums will provide inspiration examples and lessons learned from a balanced spectrum of museums currently employing empathy in museum setting as an educational tool to better connect their content with the audience as an integral element of a museum's institutional values and behavior and as a phenomenon that is worthy of exploration on its own and as an intentional outcome This publication provides museum professionals as well as formal and informal learning educators to receive an overview of the variety of approaches to empathy in museums and to create a shared language and methodologies that could enable them to utilize and nurture empathy as a shared vision that would serve not only their organizational mission but also the greater good Empathy can be a tool or an intentional outcome depending on the institution's objectives Regardless of the choice the ideas presented in this book are intended to inform and inspire institutions to unlock exciting possibilities in the areas of improved visitor experience creative community partnerships and contribution to social progress by bringing empathy to public discourse through institutional strategies exhibitions experiences and programs The book also provides ideas for future strategies where empathy is considered as a shared vision by museums and a product of a museum experience that might lead to positive social impact Widow To Widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg, 2024-09-24

From a widow and therapist a guide to life after losing a husband with reflections on grief and practical advice A wise practical and eminently useful guide for a woman struggling to rebuild her life after the death of her husband Highly recommended Nathan Branden PhD author of Honoring the Self The death of a husband is devastating and such a loss prompts a wide range of questions about everything from the big issues to the small details Will my emotional wounds ever heal Will I feel like myself again How do I begin to tackle the finances Will my friends treat me differently Do I need to move out of the house Author therapist and fellow widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg offers you as well as your family and friends sage advice for coping with the loss of a husband With testimonials from other widows Ginsburg walks you through the many challenges both expected and unexpected from learning to travel and eat alone to surviving holidays and anniversaries from starting a community support group to dating again An essential resource for a trying period of life Widow to Widow equips you with the gentle encouragement and practical strategies you need to start along the path to building a new life Ms Ginsburg has written the most useful practical and compassionate guide to surviving widowhood This is must reading not only for widows but also for their family and friends Harold Bloomfield MD author of How to Survive the Loss of a Love Helping Children Grow Up in the 90's National Association of School Psychologists,1992 Addresses many areas that place children at risk for social and educational failure Music of the Soul Joy S. Berger,2012-10-12 Music of the Soul guides the reader through principles techniques and exercises for incorporating music into grief counseling with the end goal of further empowering the grieving person Music has a unique ability to elicit a whole range of powerful emotional responses in people even so far as altering or enhancing one s mood as well as physical reactions This interdisciplinary text draws in equal parts from contemporary grief loss theory music therapy research historical examples of powerful music case studies and both self reflecting and teaching exercises Music is as much about beginnings as endings and thus the book moves through life s losses into its new beginnings using musical expression to help the bereaved find meaning in loss and hurt and move forward with their lives With numerous exercises and examples for implementing the use of music in grief counseling the book offers a practical and flexible approach to a broad spectrum of mental health practitioners from thanatologists to hospice staff at all levels of professional training and settings Books to Help Children Cope with Separation and Loss Joanne E. Bernstein,Masha Kabakow Rudman,1989 Here are some 750 fiction nonfiction books from folklore to poetry focusing on separation loss themes for young people Arranged by topic each annotated entry provides a review of plot theme interest age level suggestions for use complete bibliographic information This is the ideal reference guide for those who have the opportunity to help children through separation loss ranging from going away to camp to the death of a sibling Put Yourself in Their Shoes Barbara Meltz,2011-04-27 Wouldn t parenting be easier if you could see into the mind of your child Learn to hear what your child can t or won t tell you and Understand Behavior Build Values Nurture Closeness Solve Problems In her popular Boston Globe column Child Caring Barbara Meltz has been writing about real life parenting issues for more than a decade She has found that instead of divorce or moving the situations parents think of as stressful children s concerns are often linked to commonplace events such as sleepovers or the first day of school In this wise compassionate book Meltz offers parents a unique window into their child s inner life She includes candid illuminating observations from kids themselves and offers advice on what to ask listen for or observe to decode puzzling behavior how to get a child to talk about his or her problems and how to find the best way to solve conflicts By focusing on developmental trouble spots not age her approach is as helpful to the parents of a two year old as to those of a twelve year old From keeping secrets to going to camp to larger issues such as stealing or death in the family Put Yourself in Their Shoes offers a way to see inside a child s world and help to make it safe and strong From the Trade Paperback edition
