Pony Friendship Is Magic 17 and 65 My Little Pony Micro Series 8 and My Little Pony Friends Forever 38 Pippa Funnell

Pippa Funnell, 2012-08-16 Pippa Funnell is the golden girl of the British equestrian scene but it hasn't always been so. She seemed doomed to be a misser in the really big competitions lacking that special ingredient that makes a true champion. Everything began to change for her in 1999 when her results including her first European title were excellent but it was at the Sydney Olympics that she really came of age winning a silver medal. Since Sydney Pippa went from strength to strength. She completed the double of European Championships in 2001, she won Badminton in 2002 and in 2003 won the Rolex Grand Slam and was awarded Sportswoman of the Year by the Sunday Times. In 2004 Pippa was a double Olympic medallist in Athens and this autobiography includes her Olympic diary as she records the ups and downs of the competition, the triumph of the dressage, her cross country round and the showjump down that cost her a gold medal. As if all this were not enough there was the controversy of the medals being reallocated on appeal meaning Pippa won both a silver and a bronze. First and Again Jana Richards, 2013-10-07

A Determined Yankee Frank Elliott Sisson II, 2014-10-30 The photo on the cover of the book is thoughtful, looking Frank Elliott Sisson II at age nineteen just prior to his admission to West Point as a new cadet in July 1947. Frank was determined to better himself in spite of the fact that the family simply did not have money to further his college education. He was determined to take care of this challenge by himself. Although Frank came from a family that was well known by its accomplishments during the Civil War years, Frank's father died in late 1940 when Frank was thirteen years old and with four children to support by his widowed mother, there was little extra money to provide for more than basic needs of the family. The book tells the rest of the story which encompasses many exciting adventures in growing up and later on military and private life challenges. Along with the challenges were the many travels along the way that took Frank to many different cities and schools around the country while he was growing up as well as many countries around the world.

during his later years In spite of these challenges and travels Frank was always the gentleman and representative of Christian morals honorable dealings and high minded ethics He founded an aviation marketing company from scratch that became quite successful and demonstrated his skill in business management He was a product of a West Point education that molded his life to be a role model for people who knew him You will find the story fascinating fast moving and exciting
