Payback The Logic Of Retribution In Melanesian Religions:

Payback G. W. Trompf, 1994-07-14 In this ambitious study the first monograph on religion and the logic of retribution Professor Trompf shows how various aspects of payback both negative and positive provide the best indices to an understanding of Melanesian views of life The book explores the reasons why people pay back and opens up a whole new dimension in the cross cultural study of human consciousness The author conducts his readers through the most complex anthropological pageant on earth illustrating his arguments from western New Guinea to Fiji

Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji

New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984-85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24 Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life Rituals are determinate in form but not static They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future

The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond John Barker, 2016-04-01 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond examines how Melanesians experience and deal with moral dilemmas and challenges Taking Kenelm Burridge's seminal work as their starting point the contributors focus upon public situations and types of people that exemplify key ethical contradictions for members of moral communities While returning to some classical concerns such as the roles of big men and sorcerers the book opens new territory with richly textured ethnographic studies and theoretical reviews that explore the interface between the values associated with indigenous village life and the ethical orientations associated with Christianity the state the marketplace and other facets of modernity A major contribution to the emerging field of the anthropology of morality the volume includes some of the most prominent scholars working in the discipline today including Bruce Knauff Joel Robbins F G Bailey Deborah Gewertz and Frederick Errington

Population and Global Security Nicholas Polunin, 1998-04-16 This book examines the implications of rapid human population growth for global stability and security

The Manipulation of Custom Jon Fraenkel, 2004 An account of the 1998-2003 crisis a critical review of the major interpretations and an investigation of the underlying causes and analyses the post coup period up to the arrival of RAMSI in July 2003

Cargo Cults and Millenarian Movements G. W. Trompf, 2012-10-25 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

I Will Repay Dennis Oh, 2018-02-15 How can Christianity continue to rejoice over a redemption that came at the cost of the violent suffering and death of Jesus Christ In the wake of increasing revulsion toward oppression and abuse both historic and contemporary traditionally Protestant and evangelical theology is in the precarious position of defending one of its cardinal doctrines amidst a host of compelling critiques and alternatives In I Will Repay Dennis Oh explores how soteriology rooted in Scripture and resonant with tradition can also be conversant with the cinematic experience offered by popular films It proposes a narrative reenvisioning of the mechanism of atonement that both supports and extends traditional theological categories and vocabularies while retaining the cross centered conviction of an evangelical gospel Dark Traces of the Past Jürgen Straub, Jörn Rüsen, 2011-12-01 The relationship between historical studies and psychoanalysis remains an open debate that is full of tension in both a positive and a negative sense In particular the following question has not been answered satisfactorily what distinguishes a psychoanalytically oriented study of historical realities from a historical psychoanalysis Skepticism and fear of collaboration dominate on both sides Initiating a productive dialogue between historical studies and psychoanalysis seems to be plagued by ignorance and at times a sense of helplessness Interdisciplinary collaborations are rare Empirical research formulation of theory and the development of methods are essentially carried out within the conventional disciplinary boundaries This volume undertakes to overcome these limitations by combining psychoanalytical and historical perspectives and thus exploring the underlying unconscious dimensions and by informing academic and nonacademic forms of historical memory Moreover it puts special emphasis on transgenerational forms of remembrance on the notion of trauma as a key concept in this field and on case studies that point the way to further research Religious Categories and the Construction of the Indigenous Christopher Hartney, Daniel Tower, 2016-10-18 This volume significantly advances the academic debate surrounding the taxonomy and the categorisation of indigenous religion Developing approaches from leading scholars in the field this edited volume provides the space for established and rising voices to discuss the highly problematic topic of how indigenous religion can be defined and conceptualised Constructing the Indigenous highlights the central issues in the debate between those supporting and refining current academic frameworks and those who would argue that present thinking remains too dependant on misunderstandings that arise from definitions of religion that are too inflexible and from problems caused by the World Religion paradigm This book will prove essential reading for those that wish to engage with contemporary discussions regarding the definitions of religion and their relations to the indigenous category Contributors are Zoe Alderton Steve Bevis James L Cox Christopher Hartney Graham Harvey Milad Milani Björn Ola Tafjord Daniel J Tower Garry W Trompf and Jack Tsonis Handbook of Religion Terry C. Muck, Harold A. Netland, Gerald R. McDermott, 2014-11-04 This comprehensive handbook provides a Christian perspective on religion and its many manifestations around the world Written by top religion scholars from a broad spectrum of Christianity it introduces world religions indigenous religious traditions and new religious movements Articles explore the relationship of other religions to Christianity providing historical perspective on past encounters and highlighting current issues The book also contains articles by adherents of non Christian religions offering readers an insider's perspective on various religions and their encounters with Christianity Maps timelines and sidebars are included Masculinity, Motherhood, and Mockery Eric Kline Silverman, 2001 An important ethnographic analysis of motherhood in one Melanesian society Youth Ministry in Papua New Guinea Danijela Schubert, 2013-07-12 Papua New Guinea is experiencing changes that grow in significance and accelerate in pace Although the majority of its population are still subsistence farmers the postmodern world is fast making an impact That means that at the same time they are strongly influenced by firmly ingrained tradition where animism is binding and a pervasive element as well as Western media with its consumerism and worldview The most impacted are youth who are caught between the traditional and postmodern culture In a country that is Christian by constitution pastors are looked upon with high esteem They need to find a way to bridge the gap to make sense of the world youth are living in and find a meaningful way forward Although this book is aimed at pastors and youth workers in PNG other sectors can benefit from the research politicians educators health workers clergy especially if they are coming from a different culture be that from PNG or another country

Christianity in the Twentieth Century Brian Stanley, 2018 This book charts the transformation of one of the world's great religions during an age marked by world wars genocide nationalism decolonization and powerful ideological currents many of them hostile to Christianity Amazon.com

My God, My Land Dr Jacqueline Ryle, 2012-12-28 Examining the multifaceted nature of Christianity in Fiji My God My Land reveals the deeply complex and often paradoxical dynamics and tensions between processes of change and continuity as they unfold in representations and practices of Christianity and tradition in people's everyday lives The book draws on extensive multi-sited fieldwork in different denominations to explore how shared values and cultural belonging are employed to strengthen relations As such My God My Land will be of interest to anthropologists of Oceania as well as scholars and students researching into social and cultural change ritual religion Christianity enculturation and contextual theology

Heaven on Earth Richard Landes, 2011-08-04 Millennialists through the ages have looked forward to the apocalyptic moment that will radically transform society into heaven on earth They have delivered withering critiques of their own civilizations and promised both the impending annihilation of the forces of evil and the advent of a perfect society And all their promises have invariably failed We tend therefore to dismiss these prophets of doom and salvation as crackpots and madmen and not surprisingly historians of our secular era have tended to underestimate their impact on our modern world Now Richard Landes offers a lucid and ground-breaking analysis of this widely misunderstood phenomenon This long-awaited study shows that many events typically regarded as secular including the French Revolution Marxism Bolshevism Nazism not only contain key millennialist elements but follow the apocalyptic curve of enthusiastic launch disappointment and often catastrophic re-entry into normal time Indeed as Landes examines the explicit millennialism behind such recent events as the emergence of Global Jihad since 1979 he challenges the common notion that modern history is largely driven by secular interests By focusing on ten widely different case studies none of which come from Judaism or Christianity he shows that millennialism is not only a cultural universal but also an extremely adaptive social phenomenon that persists across the modern and post-modern divides At the same time he also offers valuable insight into the social and psychological factors that drive such beliefs Ranging from ancient Egypt to modern-day UFO cults and global Jihad Heaven on Earth both delivers an eye-opening revisionist argument for the significance of millennialism throughout history and alerts the reader to the alarming spread of these ideologies in our world today Sufism in the Secret History of Persia Milad Milani, 2014-10-14 Sufism formed one of the cultures of resistance which has existed in the social fabric of Persia since antiquity Such resistance continues to manifest itself today with many looking to Sufism as a model of cooperation between East and West between traditional and modern Sufism in the Secret History of Persia explores the place of Sufi mysticism in Iran's intellectual and spiritual consciousness through traditional and contemporary Sufi thinkers and writers Sufism in the Secret History of Persia examines the current of spirituality which extends from the old Iranian worship of Mithra to modern Islam This current always contains elements of gnosis and inner knowing but has often provided impetus for socio political resistance The study describes how these persisting pre Islamic cultural and socio religious elements have secretly challenged Muslim orthodoxies and continue to shape the nature and orientation of contemporary Sufism Biomedical Entanglements Franziska A. Herbst, 2016-10-01 Biomedical Entanglements is an ethnographic study of the Giri people of Papua New Guinea focusing on the indigenous population's interaction with modern medicine In her fieldwork Franziska A Herbst follows the Giri people as they circulate within and around ethnographic sites that include a rural health center and an urban hospital The study bridges medical anthropology and global health exploring how the biomedical is imbued with social meaning and how biomedicine affects Giri ways of life Paul's Language of Grace in its Graeco-Roman Context James R. Harrison, 2017-01-03 Paul's Language of Grace in Its Graeco Roman Context was originally published by Mohr Siebeck in 2003 and is now reprinted by Wipf and Stock with a new introduction by its author James R Harrison The book was the first major investigation of charis (grace) favor in its social political and religious context since G P Wetter's pioneering 1913 monograph on the topic Focusing on the evidence of the inscriptions papyri philosophers and Greek Jewish literature Harrison examined the operations of the eastern Mediterranean benefaction system probing the dynamic of reciprocity between the beneficiary and benefactor whether human or divine Before Paul's converts were first exposed to the gospel they would have held a variety of beliefs regarding the beneficence of the gods The apostle therefore needed to tailor his language of grace as much to the theological and social concerns of the Mediterranean city states in his missionary outreach as to the variegated traditions of first century Judaism In terms of human grace although Paul endorses the reciprocity system he redefines its rationale in light of the gospel of grace and transforms its social expression in his house churches The explosion of grace language that occurs in 2 Corinthians 8-9 regarding the Jerusalem collection is unusual in its frequency in comparison to the honorific inscriptions underscoring the apostle's distinctive approach to giving Regarding divine beneficence Paul accommodates his gospel to contemporary benefaction idiom But he retains a distinctiveness of viewpoint regarding divine charis it is non cultic it is mediated through a dishonored and impoverished Benefactor it overturns the do ut des expectation I give so that you may give regarding divine blessing in antiquity Harrison's book still remains the authoritative coverage of the Graeco Roman context of charis
