Pazyryk Its Use Origin:

Euripides and the Language of Craft Mary C. Stieber, 2011 This first in depth account of Euripides relationship with the visual arts demonstrates how frequently the tragedian used language to visual effect whether through allusion or actual references to objects motifs built around real or imaginary objects or the use of technical terminology The Origins of Ancient Vietnam Nam C. Kim, 2015-10-01 The Origins of Ancient Vietnam explores the origins of civilization in the Red River Delta of Vietnam and how related studies can inform our understanding of ancient societies generally and the foundations of Vietnamese culture specifically Long believed to be the cradle of Vietnamese civilization this area has been referenced by Vietnamese and Chinese writers for centuries many recording colorful tales and legends about the region s prehistory One of the most enduring accounts relates the story of the Au Lac Kingdom and its capital of Co Loa Founded during the third century BC according to legend the fortified city s ramparts still stand today However there are ongoing debates about the origins of the site the validity of the literary accounts and the link between the prehistoric past and later Vietnamese societies The Han Empire s later annexation of the region combined with the problematic accounts found in the Chinese chronicles further complicates these questions Recent decades of archaeology in the region have provided new perspectives for examining these issues The material record reveals indigenous trajectories of cultural change throughout the prehistoric period culminating in the emergence of a politically sophisticated society Specifically new data indicate the founding of Co Loa by an ancient state centuries before the Han arrival In The Origins of Ancient Vietnam Nam Kim synthesizes the archaeological evidence for this momentous development placing Co Loa within a wider global setting of emergent cities states and civilizations Pazyryk Culture Up in the Altai Katheryn M. Linduff, Karen S. Rubinson, 2021-12-30 This book reconsiders the archaeology of the Pazyryk the horse riding people of the Altai Mountains who lived in the 4th 3rd centuries BCE in light of recent scientific studies and excavations not only in Russia but also Kazakhstan Mongolia and China together with new theories of landscape Excavation of the Pazyryk burials sparked great interest because of their wealth of organic remains including tattooed bodies and sacrificed horses together with superb wooden carvings and colorful textiles In view of this new research the role of the Pazyryk Culture in the ancient globalized world can now be more focused and refined In this synthetic study of the region the Pazyryk Culture is set into the landscape using recent studies on climate technology human and animal DNA and local resources It shows that this was a powerful semi sedentary interdependent group with contacts in Eurasia to their west and to their east in Mongolia and south in China This book is for archaeologists anthropologists art historians social and economic historians as well as persons with general interests in mobile pastoralism the emergence of complex societies the social roles of artifacts and the diverse nature of an interconnected ancient world Threads of Empire Dorothy Armstrong, 2025-06-17 Carpet specialist Dorothy Armstrong tells the stories surrounding twelve of the world s most fascinating carpets Dorothy Armstrong s Threads of Empire is a spellbinding look at the history of the world through the stories of twelve carpets Beautiful sensuous and enigmatic great carpets follow power Emperors shahs sultans and samurai crave them as symbols of earthly domination Shamans and priests desire them to evoke the spiritual realm The world s 1% hunger after them as displays of extreme status And yet these seductive objects are made by poor and illiterate weavers using the most basic materials and crafts hedgerow plants for dyes fibers from domestic animals and the millennia old skills of interweaving warps wefts and knots In Threads of Empire Armstrong tells the histories of some of the world s most fascinating carpets exploring how these textiles came into being then were transformed as they moved across geography and time in the slipstream of the great She shows why the world s powerful were drawn to them but also asks what was happening in the weavers lives and how they were affected by events in the world outside their tent village or workshop In its wide ranging examination of these dazzling objects from the 5th century BCE contents of the tombs of Scythian chieftains to the carpets under the boots of Stalin Roosevelt and Churchill at the 1945 Yalta Peace Conference Threads of Empire uncovers a new hitherto hidden past right beneath our feet

Symbol, Pattern and Symmetry Michael Hann,2013-11-21 Symbol Pattern and Symmetry The Cultural Significance of Structure investigates how pattern and symbol has functioned in visual arts exploring how connections and comparisons in geometrical pattern can be made across different cultures and how the significance of these designs has influenced craft throughout history The book features illustrative examples of symbol and pattern from a wide range of historical and cultural contexts from Byzantine Persian and Assyrian design to case studies of Japanese and Chinese patterns Looking at each culture s specific craft style Hann shows how the visual arts are underpinned with a strict geometric structure and argues that understanding these underlying structures enables us to classify and compare data from across cultures and historical periods Richly illustrated with both colour and black and white images and with clear original commentary the book enables students practitioners teachers and researchers to explore the historical and cultural significance of symbol and pattern in craft and design ultimately displaying how a geometrical dialogue in design can be established through history and culture Edward P. The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 1 Christopher Breward,Beverly Lemire,Giorgio Riello,2023-08-17 Volume I surveys the long history of fashion from the ancient world to c 1800 The volume seeks to answer fundamental questions on the origins of fashion challenging Eurocentric explanations that the emergence of fashion was a European phenomenon and shows instead that fashion found early expressions across the globe well before the age of European colonialism and imperialism It sheds light on how fashion was experienced in a multitude of ways depending on class gender and race and despite geographical distance fashion connected populations across the globe Fashions flowered and were reseeded through entanglements of empire forced and voluntary migration evolving racial systems burgeoning sea travel and transcontinental systems

Transcending Patterns Mariachiara Gasparini, 2019-11-30 In Transcending Patterns Silk Road Cultural and Artistic Interactions through Central Asian Textiles Mariachiara Gasparini investigates the origin and effects of a textile mediated visual culture that developed at the heart of the Silk Road between the seventh and fourteenth centuries Through the analysis of the Turfan Textile Collection in the Museum of Asian Art in Berlin and more than a thousand textiles held in collections worldwide Gasparini discloses and reconstructs the rich cultural entanglements along the Silk Road between the coming of Islam and the rise of the Mongol Empire from the Tarim to Mediterranean Basin Exploring in detail the iconographic transfer between different agents and different media from Central Asian caves to South Italian churches the author depicts and describes the movement and exchange of portable objects such as sculpture wall painting and silk fragments across the Asian continent and across the ages Gasparini's history offers critical perspectives that extend far beyond an outmoded notion of Silk Road studies Her cross media work shows readers how certain material cultures are connected not only by the physical routes they take but also because of the meanings and interpretations these objects engage in various places Transcending Patterns is at once art history material and visual cultural history Asian studies conservatory studies and linguistics Bulletin, 1950 Griffinology A. L. McClanan, 2024-06-05 Feathered with illustrations a deep dive into the meaning of this half lion half bird creature over millennia of human history Griffinology is a fascinating exploration of the mythical creature's many depictions in human culture Drawing on a wealth of historical and literary sources this book shows how the griffin has captured the imagination of people for over five thousand years representing power transcendence and even divinity It explores the history and symbolism of griffins in art from their appearances in ancient Egyptian magic wands to medieval bestiaries and from medieval coats of arms to modern corporate logos The use of the griffin as a symbol of power and protection is surveyed throughout history and into modern times such as in the Harry Potter series Beautifully illustrated this book should appeal to all those interested in monsters magic and the mystical as well as art and history Social Orders and Social Landscapes Charles W. Hartley, Laura M. Popova, Adam T. Smith, 2021-02-10 Social Orders and Social Landscapes marks a new direction in research for Eurasian archaeology that focuses on how people lived in their local environment and interacted with their near and distant neighbours rather than on overarching comparisons of archaeological culture complexes Stemming from the 2005 University of Chicago Eurasian Archaeology Conference the papers collected here reflect this new research agenda though the way in which each author addressed the theme of the conference and thus the book was strikingly varied This diversity arises out of the field's intellectual flux driven by the principled engagement of the rich analytical traditions of the Soviet CIS Anglo American and European schools Despite the variability in approaches and subject matter several key themes emerged 1 the reinterpretation culture categories by examining particular aspects of social life 2 the role social memory plays in the production of landscape and place 3 the influence of the built environment on societies and 4 the ways in which economic considerations affect social orders and landscapes The result is a book that helps to re image Eurasia as a complex landscape fragmented by historically contingent and shifting ecological and social boundaries rather than a bounded mosaic of culture areas or environmental zones Scholarly research on Eurasia was transformed by the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 Entire areas and fields of research became accessible to European and American scholars for the first time resulting in the emergence of new centers specializing in primary field investigations throughout the vast politically transformed landmass of Eurasia One such center is the University of Chicago that has recently sponsored two large international conferences on Eurasian archaeology Social Orders and Social Landscapes is the product of the second Chicago conference held in spring 2005 The editors of the volume should be proud of their efforts that have resulted in such a broad ranging and prompt publication The articles encompass a variety of disciplinary perspectives including archaeology history art history palynology and zooarchaeology extend chronologically from Neolithic and Bronze Age times to the formation of national identity in Turkey in the early 20th century and range geographically from Europe to China Several articles reconstruct basic subsistence activities others analyze distinctive settlement types and political and cultural frontiers including the assimilation and emergence of new self defined ethnic groups and the selective adoption of new systems of religious belief What unites this diverse collection is their consistent emphasis on the social construction of reality and the production of social landscapes and memories that altered perceptions of the physical world and mediated the practical activities that here have been convincingly reconstructed from the archaeological record In so doing rigid stereotypes are questioned and novel interpretations persuasively advanced Early Bronze Age pastoralism on the south Russian steppes did not consist exclusively of herding animals nor was it combined as it was later in the Iron Age with the pursuit of agriculture rather D Anthony and D Brown suggest that at least in the Samara river valley the herding of animals occurred along side the intensive gathering of wild nutritionally rich plants The kalas of ancient Chorasmia are not cities nor even proto urban formations but rather are large heavily fortified enclosures meant to repel attacks of armed nomadic cavalry They represent a continuation of a distinct Central Asian settlement pattern that began in the Bronze Age and that formed the center of a landscape divided into contiguous self contained oases The Mongols not only herded livestock but also farmed fished hunted and traded throughout the vast area that they had conquered uniting most of Eurasia into a single economically integrated system New perspectives proliferate throughout this richly detailed and extremely broad ranging collected volume Phil Kohl Professor of Anthropology and the Kathryn W Davis Professor of Slavic Studies at Wellesley College Social Orders and Social Landscapes is a stimulating addition to the still small literature in English making the rich datasets from the archaeology of Eurasia widely accessible to Western scholars The authors of the eighteen chapters analyze data from China to the Mediterranean from the fourth millennium BCE through the fourteenth century CE with the tools of art and architectural history text analysis paleobotany and paleozoology and anthropological theory among others The product of a conference at the University of

Chicago this book fulfils the goal of the graduate student organizers to apply interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the archaeology and history of the Eurasian landmass in local terms through a focus on how people lived in their local environments In the decade and a half since the end of the Soviet Union scholarly communication has broadened and the mutual influences have stimulated many new and thought provoking views on the Eurasian past This book is an exemplary product of the new scholarly discourse Karen S Robinson Research Scholar Department of Anthropology Barnard College Columbia University History of Central Asia, The: 4-volume set Christoph Baumer, 2018-04-18 This set includes all four volumes of the critically acclaimed History of Central Asia series The epic plains and arid deserts of Central Asia have witnessed some of the greatest migrations as well as many of the most transformative developments in the history of civilization Christoph Baumer's ambitious four volume treatment of the region charts the 3000 year drama of Scythians and Sarmatians Soviets and transcontinental Silk Roads trade routes and the transmission of ideas across the steppes and the breathless and brutal conquests of Alexander the Great and Chinghiz Khan Masterfully interweaving the stories of individuals and peoples the author's engaging prose is richly augmented throughout by colour photographs taken on his own travels This set includes The Age of the Steppe Warriors Volume 1 The Age of the Silk Roads Volume 2 The Age of Islam and the Mongols Volume 3 and The Age of Decline and Revival Volume 4 The Horse in History Emma Louise Herbert-Davies, Anastasija Ropa, 2025-03-01 John Clark's groundbreaking work in medieval equestrian history has shaped and inspired generations of scholars transforming our understanding of horses in the past A pioneer of archaeological and historical research on the medieval horse Clark's influential 1995 work The Medieval Horse and its Equipment set the stage for much of the academic exploration that followed In this celebratory volume international scholars come together to honor his legacy with new perspectives on the history culture and significance of horses across the medieval world Spanning from Roman Britain to the Elizabethan court this interdisciplinary collection covers a diverse range of topics including equestrian equipment horse training folklore and the symbolic role of horses in literature Featuring in depth studies on archaeological finds and providing innovative approaches to equestrian practices and the gendered dynamics of horse riding the essays in this book reflect the profound influence of John Clark's work This Festschrift provides a fitting tribute to a scholar whose pioneering research continues to inspire and shape the field of equestrian history Each chapter not only reflects John Clark's enduring influence but also showcases the breadth of scholarly engagement with the historical horse from its practical use to its deeper cultural and symbolic meanings Woven from the Soul, Spun from the Heart Carol Bier, 1987 This first integrated study of the role of textiles in the development of the Persian nation now Iran reveals their unique importance to international trade and economics and to the cultural environment The result of extensive scholastic research the touring exhibition traces the evolution of the art through the major textile producing eras of the Safawid and Kajar dynasties from the sixteenth to early twentieth century Masters of the Steppe: The Impact of the Scythians and Later Nomad Societies of Eurasia Svetlana

Pankova, St John Simpson, 2021-01-21 This book presents 45 papers presented at a major international conference held at the British Museum during the 2017 BP exhibition Scythians warriors of ancient Siberia Papers include new archaeological discoveries results of scientific research and studies of museum collections most presented in English for the first time

The Cambridge History of Capitalism: Volume 1, The Rise of Capitalism: From Ancient Origins to 1848 Larry Neal, Jeffrey G. Williamson, 2014-01-23 The first volume of The Cambridge History of Capitalism provides a comprehensive account of the evolution of capitalism from its earliest beginnings Starting with its distant origins in ancient Babylon successive chapters trace progression up to the Promised Land of capitalism in America Adopting a wide geographical coverage and comparative perspective the international team of authors discuss the contributions of Greek Roman and Asian civilizations to the development of capitalism as well as the Chinese Indian and Arab empires They determine what features of modern capitalism were present at each time and place and why the various precursors of capitalism did not survive Looking at the eventual success of medieval Europe and the examples of city states in northern Italy and the Low Countries the authors address how British mercantilism led to European imitations and American successes and ultimately how capitalism became global

A Brief History of Archaeology Nadia Durrani, Brian M. Fagan, 2021-12-30 A Brief History of Archaeology details early digs and covers the development of archaeology as a multidisciplinary science the modernization of meticulous excavation methods during the twentieth century and the important discoveries that led to new ideas about the evolution of human societies Spanning more than two thousand years of history this short account of the discipline of archaeology tells of spectacular discoveries and the colorful lives of the archaeologists who made them as well as of changing theories and current debates in the field Early research at Stonehenge in Britain burial mound excavations and the exploration of Herculaneum and Pompeii culminate in the nineteenth century debates over human antiquity and the theory of evolution The book then moves on to the discovery of the world's pre industrial civilizations in Egypt Mesopotamia and Central America the excavations at Troy and Mycenae the Royal Burials at Ur Iraq and the dramatic finding of the pharaoh Tutankhamun in 1922 The book concludes by considering recent sensational discoveries and exploring the debates over processual and post processual theory that have intrigued archaeologists in the early twenty first century The third edition updates this respected introduction to one of the science's most fascinating disciplines A Brief History of Archaeology is a vivid narrative that will engage readers who are new to the discipline drawing on the authors extensive experience in the field and classroom

Cannabis Robert Clarke, Mark Merlin, 2016-06-28 Cannabis Evolution and Ethnobotany is a comprehensive interdisciplinary exploration of the natural origins and early evolution of this famous plant highlighting its historic role in the development of human societies Cannabis has long been prized for the strong and durable fiber in its stalks its edible and oil rich seeds and the psychoactive and medicinal compounds produced by its female flowers The culturally valuable and often irreplaceable goods derived from cannabis deeply influenced the commercial medical ritual and religious practices of cultures throughout the ages and human desire for these commodities directed the evolution of the plant toward its contemporary varieties As interest in cannabis grows and public debate over its many uses rises this book will help us understand why humanity continues to rely on this plant and adapts it to suit our needs Problems of Style Alois Riegl, 2018-12-04 Written at the height of the arts and crafts movement in fin de siècle Vienna Alois Riegl's Stilfragen represented a turning point in defining art and understanding the sources of its inspiration Demonstrating an uninterrupted continuity in the history of ornament from the ancient Egyptian through the Islamic period Riegl argued that the creative urge manifests itself in both great art and the most humble artifact and that change is an inherent part of style This new translation which renders Riegl's seminal work in contemporary readable prose allows for a fresh reexamination of his thought in light of current revisionist debate His discovery of infinite variation in the restatement of several decorative motifs the palmette rosette tendril led Riegl to believe that art is completely independent from exterior conditions and is beyond individual volition This thinking laid the groundwork for his famous concept of Kunstwollen or artistic intention Something that the translation will I hope convey is the passion invested in Riegl's enterprise We are made to feel that the issues he discussed mattered vitally to him it was the very nature of art and its relation to human life that were at stake art as an absolute necessity From the preface of Henri Zerner Alois Riegl 1858-1905 was Curator of Textiles at the Museum of Art and Industry in Vienna during most of his career and wrote many influential works on the history of art including Spätromische Kunstgeschichte Evelyn Kain is Associate Professor of Art History at Ripon College Ripon Wisconsin David Castriota is Assistant Professor of Art History at Sarah Lawrence College Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
