The green cards clearly contrast the verb forms and appropriate contexts for using formal Ud Uds and informal t commands. The yellow cards feature side by side conjugations of 18 commonly used verbs in the Present Indicative and Present Subjunctive. This will help the student remember the subjunctive forms that are based on the first person singular yo form of the Present Indicative and those that are irregular. Sample sentences demonstrate correct usage of both modes. Past Subjunctive forms are based on the third person plural ellos ellas form of the Preterite. This is clearly illustrated on the goldenrod cards with sample sentences and verb conjugations that highlight the Preterite stems and Past Subjunctive suffixes.      LSC Spanish 1 Verb Cards Holly Colville,2008-07-28 These review cards are very useful when studying the numerous stem changes spelling changes and irregular forms of verbs conjugated in the present and past indicative tenses. The verbs featured in this collection are common to most beginning Spanish grammar programs. Each verb card includes a Spanish infinitive its meaning in English and five conjugated forms with any changes or irregularities highlighted. In addition there is a sample sentence that shows one conjugated form of each verb in context. All cards are color coded by tense and laminated. The pink cards feature verbs that are not regular in their Present Indicative conjugation reflexive pronouns are included where appropriate. The blue cards contrast the Preterite and Imperfect forms of irregular or stem changing verbs by listing them side by side the sample sentences at the bottom of each blue card illustrate the differences in meaning and usage between these two principal past tenses in Spanish. Repetition is the key to mastering verb conjugation and gaining proficiency in the target language. This user friendly pack of verb cards is designed to help the student utilize short periods of practice throughout the day to improve verbal and writing skills in Spanish.      Spanish Verbs Cards Visual Education,1997-04
