Peace After Abortion Sydna Massé, Linda Perry, 2002

In today's contentious political environment surrounding abortion, clinicians, counselors, and social workers need a clear framework for providing skilled, compassionate decision counseling. They need help working with the hard stuff: What do I do when my patient asks me if God will forgive her, or what do I say when a woman says that she feels like she's killing her baby? These are the questions asked by clinicians and mental health professionals everywhere; these are also the questions for which this book offers answers. The fields of healthcare and counseling psychology have long awaited a manual for conducting pregnancy decision counseling across the spectrum of patient issues, employee skill levels, and clinic resources. Using case examples, individual and group exercises, guided self-reflection, and values clarification, the reader will develop the necessary skills to provide compassionate and informed pregnancy decision counseling. This book will define the gold standard for decision assessment and counseling for all pregnancy options and will be cited as the definitive guide for learning, teaching, and providing high-quality, compassionate counseling in abortion and family planning clinics nationwide.

My Secret Loss Sheila M. Luck, 2015-02-15

A ministry must

My Secret Loss is personal, biblical, insightful, purposeful, helpful, truthful, useful, and full of grace and truth for those struggling with such a loss. Laurie McIntyre, Pastor of Creative Arts, Elmbrook Church, Brookfield, WI. Sheila has opened the pages of her heart to all women who need to know their story is able to be shared. In writing this workbook, she has provided an opportunity for hurting women to find the source of all comfort: our Lord Jesus Christ. May the participants experience the freedom of knowing reconciliation is possible and be aware of God's healing blessings. Jeannie Hannemann, M.A., Founder and Executive Director of Elizabeth Ministry International. We were told it would be easy. We thought it was the best choice, but now we suffer with the consequences: the regular reminders, a sense of guilt, and a sense of shame. Through abortion, we now face the death of our babies, death by choice. We try to hide our choice, and we try to escape the emotional pain. We seek forgiveness, acceptance, and consolation, yet we find no solace. Our fears drive us into a life of secrecy, hiding our loss. We suffer a secret loss. My Secret Loss will enable the reader to accept the truth about abortion. Provide permission and encouragement to grieve the loss of your baby. Validate your emotional and psychological harm that has been caused by abortion. Discover the path to peace, healing that is only possible through the saving grace of Jesus. Catholic Bioethics for a New Millennium Anthony Fisher, 2011-11-17. Can the Hippocratic and Judeo-Christian traditions be synthesized with contemporary thought about practical reason, virtue, and community to provide real-life answers to the dilemmas of healthcare today? Bishop Anthony Fisher discusses conscience, relationships, and law in relation to the modern-day controversies surrounding stem cell research, abortion, transplants, artificial feeding, and euthanasia, using case studies to offer insight and illumination What emerges is a reason based bioethics for the twenty first century a bioethics that treats faith and reason with equal seriousness that shows the relevance of ancient wisdom to the complexities of modern healthcare scenarios and that offers new suggestions for social policy and regulation Philosophical argument is complemented by Catholic theology and analysis of social and biomedical trends to make this an auspicious example of a new generation of Catholic bioethical writing which has relevance for people of all faiths and none The Charles Colson Collection: The Good Life / How Now Shall We Live?
