Peace In A Nuclear Age Bishops Pastoral Letter In Perspective:

Peace in a Nuclear Age Charles J. Reid, 1986      Public Witness Camilla J. Kari, 2004 In 1792 the Catholic bishops of the United States began issuing joint pastoral letters at periodic intervals intending the letters to be missives directed to validating patriotism and gathering the support of the faithful Today the U S bishops continue to issue such letters which along with the letters that preceded them explain the historic conditions confronting American Catholics Public Witness The Pastoral Letters of the American Catholic Bishops allows readers to learn of the highlights and obscure portions of the letters without reading through several volumes of Victorian prose While viewing the letters as a stable genre that evolves to accommodate change in form and purpose Kari provides historical background a summary and a rhetorical analysis of the pastoral letters The origin of the practice the production of the letters and the reception of the letters by the public and press are explained Well documented and accessible Public Witness is suited for the scholar and the general audience Chapters are Frontiers and Foreigners 1792 1884 The Twentieth Century 1919 1980 The Challenge of Peace Economic Justice for All The Pastoral That Wasn't and Contributions to Public Discourse      Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1984-02      Caesar and the Lamb, Second Edition George Kalantzis, 2025-05-30 Through the available patristic writings Caesar and the Lamb focuses on the attitudes of the earliest Christians on war and military service Kalantzis provides the reader with many new translations of pre Constantinian texts and tells the story of the struggle of the earliest church to bear witness to the nations that enveloped them as they transformed the dominant narratives of citizenship loyalty freedom power and control Kalantzis examines writings on war and military service in the first three centuries of the Christian church in an organized manner but the ways the communities of Christ at the margins of power and society thought of themselves and the state are not presented here through the lens of antiquarian curiosity At the heart of Caesar and the Lamb is a desire to understand the world in which Christianity arose and to ask questions of the past that may help us understand the early character of the Christian faith with the hope that such an enterprise will also help us evaluate its expression in our own time      The Role of Arms Control in U.S. Defense Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1984      OUR UNFINISHED BUSINESS Phillip Berryman, 2013-02-20 What human ends are served by our economic policies To whom is what owed in our country today Is there an acceptable argument for just wars or for the proliferation of nuclear weapons In the final years of the Reagan era The U S Catholic bishops emerged as articulate sources of dissenting wisdom publicly testing our foreign and domestic policies against the principles of morality and humanity With the same succinct style of Liberation Theology Phillip Berryman analyzes two recent and widely circulated texts the 1982 Challenge of Peace on nuclear arms and the 1986 Economic Justice For All Drawing on debate in and beyond church circles over these letters Berryman argues that as we search for acceptable answers to urgent political questions we must use ethical and moral traditions if we are to confront them squarely Only then can we promote peace and prosperity for all      Unfailing Patience and Sound

Teaching Rembert Weakland, 2003 Unfailing Patience and Sound Teaching approaches the contemporary episcopacy from a variety of perspectives and theological disciplines is appreciative of Vatican II while looking to the future and pays tribute to Archbishop Rembert G Weakland O S B a leader of the post conciliar church in the United States

Justice, Responsibility and Reconciliation in the Wake of Conflict Alice MacLachlan, Allen Speight, 2012-12-04 What are the moral obligations of participants and bystanders during and in the wake of a conflict How have theoretical understandings of justice peace and responsibility changed in the face of contemporary realities of war Drawing on the work of leading scholars in the fields of philosophy political theory international law religious studies and peace studies the collection significantly advances current literature on war justice and post conflict reconciliation Contributors address some of the most pressing issues of international and civil conflict including the tension between attributing individual and collective responsibility for the wrongs of war the trade offs made between the search for truth and demands for justice and the conceptual intricacies of coming to understand just what is meant by peace and conflict Individual essays also address concrete topics including the international criminal court reparations truces political apologies truth commissions and criminal trials with an eye to contemporary examples from conflicts in the Middle East Africa and North and South America

Forbidden Drew Christiansen, Carole Sargent, 2023-02-01 Moral theologians defense analysts conflict scholars and nuclear experts imagine a world free from nuclear weapons At a 2017 Vatican conference Pope Francis condemned nuclear weapons This volume issued after the 60th anniversary of the Cuban Missile Crisis presents essays from moral theologians defense analysts conflict transformation scholars and nuclear arms control experts with testimonies from witnesses It is a companion volume to A World Free from Nuclear Weapons The Vatican Conference on Disarmament Georgetown University Press 2020 Chapters from the perspectives of missile personnel and the military chain of command industrialists and legislators and citizen activists show how we might achieve a nuclear free world Key to this transition is the important role of public education and the mobilization of lay movements to raise awareness and effect change This essential collection prepares military professionals policymakers everyday citizens and the pastoral workers who guide them to make decisions that will lead us to disarmament The New Conscientious Objection Charles C. Moskos, John Whiteclay Chambers

II, 1993-04-08 Although conscientious objection is a long standing phenomenon it has only recently become a major factor affecting armed forces and society The only comprehensive comparative scholarly study of conscientious objection to military service this book examines the history of the practice in the Western world and state policies that have grown up in response to it It shows how the contemporary refusal to bear arms is likely to be secular and widespread rather than religious and marginal now including service people as seen in the 1991 War in the Persian Gulf as well as conscription resisters No account of civil military relations or peace movements in advanced industrial countries is complete without reference to conscientious objection and this book will be the standard text on the subject Catholic Bishops in American Politics

Timothy A. Byrnes, 2014-07-14 Over the past twenty years the American Catholic bishops have played a leading role in the antiabortion movement published lengthy and highly detailed pastoral letters on nuclear weapons and on the American economy and involved themselves collectively and individually in several national election campaigns What is the source of the sometimes controversial political role of these religious leaders Timothy Byrnes proposes a new answer in this lucid description of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and its activities He demonstrates that the key to the political role of the bishops and other modern American religious leaders has been political change rather than religious revival Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

War and Peace Ulrich Goebel, Otto Nelson, 1988 From their various vantage points historians theologians and literary scholars explore disparate viewpoints confirm convictions and challenge misconceptions about war in our nuclear age In concert the authors express the need for seeking harmony not only among voices from both East and West but also among the cadences of the past present and future Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Scripture: A Very Theological Proposal Angus Paddison, 2009-10-10 To identify the biblical texts as Scripture is to make a series of specific claims about this text that it is drawn into the activity of the triune God of Israel that its ultimate destination is the worshipping church and that it has a ministry in shaping Christian thinking and acting Scripture A Very Theological Proposal advances that the resources for reading Scripture understanding its claims and acting upon them will be found by looking to the church's life and doctrines Reading Scripture with a host of theologians Paddison proposes a hermeneutic appropriate to reading Scripture both as divine address and the book of the church The book positions itself by resisting accounts in which Scripture's relationship to God and its life within the church are understood competitively as if the more we attend to one the less we are attending to the other Chapters further explore a doctrine of Scripture and the relationship of ethics doctrine and preaching to Scripture A final chapter asks can or should Scripture be read in the university

Ethics and Weapons of Mass Destruction Sohail H. Hashmi, Steven Lee, Steven P. Lee, 2004-07-19 Publisher Description

The Catholic Case against War David Carroll Cochran, 2024-03-01 The Catholic Case against War demonstrates how the Catholic mantra Never again war reflects a set of powerfully realistic teachings on war and peace Over the last five decades the Catholic Church has emerged as a powerful critic of war and as an advocate for its alternatives At the same time researchers of armed conflict have produced a considerable body of scholarship on war and its prevention The Catholic Case against War compares these seemingly disparate lines of thought and finds a remarkable harmony between the two Drawing on years of Vatican documents and papal statements political scientist David Carroll Cochran clearly presents the key elements of the Church's case against war Far from a naive optimistic call for peace these teachings are consistent with the empirical research on the realities of contemporary warfare The result is a look not only at the explicit moral case against war developed by the Vatican but also at its remarkable realism and relevance to world conflict today

A Partisan Church Todd Scribner, 2015-03-26 In the wake of Vatican II and the political and social upheavals of the 1960s disruption and disagreement rent the Catholic Church in America Since then a diversity of opinions on a variety of political and religious questions found expression in the church leading to a fragmented understanding of Catholic identity Liberal conservative neoconservative and traditionalist Catholics competed to define what constituted an authentic Catholic worldview thus making it nearly impossible to pinpoint a unique Catholic position on any given topic A Partisan Church examines these controversies during the Reagan era and explores the way in which one group of intellectuals well known neoconservative Catholics such as George Weigel Michael Novak and Richard John Neuhaus sought to reestablish a coherent and unified Catholic identity
