Viking Poems on War and Peace Russell Gilbert Poole,1991-01-01 The Old Norse and Icelandic poets have left us vivid accounts of conflict and peace making in the Viking Age Russell G Poole s editorial and critical analysis reveals much about the texts themselves the events that they describe and the culture from which they come Poole attempts to put right many misunderstandings about the integrity of the texts and their narrative techniques From a historical perspective he weighs the poems authenticity as contemporary documents which provide evidence bearing upon the reconstruction of Viking Age battles peace negotiations and other events He traces the social roles played by violence in medieval Scandinavian society and explores the many functions of the poet within that society Arguing that these texts exhibit a mind style so vastly different from our own present individualism Poole suggests that the mind set of the medieval Scandinavian could be termed non individualist The poems discussed are the Darradarlj d where the speakers are Valkyries Lidsmannaflokkr a rank and file warrior s description of Canute the Great s siege of London in 1016 Torf Einarr s Revenge Egil s Duel with Lj tr five verses from the classic Egils saga Skallagrimssonar A Battle on the Heath marking the culmination of a famous feud described in a very early Icelandic saga the Heidarviga saga and two extracts from the poem Sexstefia one describing Haraldr of Norway s great fleet and victory over Sveinn of Denmark and the other the peace settlement between these two kinds The texts are presented in association with translations and commentaries as a resource not merely for medieval Scandinavian studies but also for the increasingly interwoven specialisms of literary theory and anthropology

Buck, 2015-04-03 This book reframes British First World War literature within Britain's history as an imperial nation Rereading canonical war writers Siegfried Sassoon and Edmund Blunden alongside war writing by Enid Bagnold E M Forster Mulk Raj Anand Roly Grimshaw and others the book makes clear that the Great War was more than a European war Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen, 2024-09-05 Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war
