Peaceable Witness Among Muslims:

Peaceable Witness Among Muslims Gordon D. Nickel, 1999 This book provides a unique treatment of Christian engagement with Muslims The author offers provocative innovative proposals for drawing on the Anabaptist peacemaking heritage to develop a peaceable method for communicating the gospel of peace among Muslims For many centuries relations between Christians and Muslims have been stormy at best What would happen if Christian speaking and action among Muslims flowed from the gospel Christians profess That gospel is a song of great beauty suggests Nickel which deserves to be sung faithfully enough for its loveliness to be heard And that is precisely the song Nickel aims to sing as in eleven chapters backed up by an extensive bibliography he explores its details and shadings Toward a Healthier

Contextualization among Muslims Wonjoo Hwang, 2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God's Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant Encountering the World of Islam Keith E. Journeys of the Muslim Nation and the Christian Church David W. Shenk, 2003-10-12 Islam and Christianity seem to be at opposite and unbridgeable poles both committed to world mission Given the political tension and violent acts that sometimes surround these two major world religions it is essential for both sides to understand the other its history beliefs traditions and vision for the future This invaluable resource from David W Shenk an expert in comparative religious studies examines Islam and Christianity at their deepest spiritual cultural and communal levels It explores the similarities and yet unavoidable differences found in Isaac and Ishmael Jesus and Muhammad the Bible and the Qur an Jerusalem and Medina the Eucharist and the Hajj the Church and the Ummah Reflecting years of conversations and dialogue with Muslim friends this is narrative theology full of anecdote and personal experience that bridges the poles and builds understanding Part of the Christians Meeting Muslims series Effective Discippling in Muslim Communities Don Little, 2015-07-14 Muslims who come to Christ face momentous spiritual psychological and social obstacles that drive many to abandon their faith Missiologist Don Little draws on New Testament principles historical practices and interviews with seasoned disciplers ministering in Muslim countries to effectively disciple believers from Muslim backgrounds

Prophets in the Qur'an and the Bible Daniel S. Baeq, Sam Kim, 2022-05-24 The theme of prophets and prophecy is a central area of theological research and discussion in both Christianity and Islam While academic researches on the prophets of Islamic tradition do exist it is rare to find studies which compare them with the biblical accounts based on evangelical theology This book provides theological analysis of the biblical prophets which appear in the Qur an and the Islamic literature The selection of prophets includes Adam Nuh Noah Ibrahim Abraham Yusuf Joseph Musa Moses Dawud David Ezekiel Dhul Kifl Zakariya Yahya John the Baptist and Mary the Mother of Jesus The contributors are a distinguished group of international scholars who combine impressive academic credentials with extensive ministry among Muslims Moreover the international nature of the contributors lends credibility to the work as an exercise in global theology This book lays a good foundation for the comparison of scriptural and theological traditions of two world major religions and for generating further discussions

The New Anabaptists Stuart Murray, 2024-01-30 What does it look like to be an Anabaptist community in the modern world And why does it matter A new incarnation of Anabaptism is emerging but not where we might expect In the United Kingdom a post Christendom context with little historical Anabaptist presence Christian communities are embodying fresh expressions of Anabaptist faith and practice In this companion to The Naked Anabaptist author Stuart Murray identifies 12 common practices of such churches and communities that are shaped by an Anabaptist vision Murray explores how these practices which include encouraging economic radicalism in the face of rampant consumerism truth telling in a post truth society and accountability in an individualistic culture that knows little about the Christian story might shape emerging Christian communities and inspire those seeking fresh expressions as cultural changes accelerate The book concludes with three one the ground reports from ministry leaders pursuing this Anabaptist vision in their own post Christendom contexts The New Anabaptists provides foundational resources for followers of Jesus in many different settings as they rise to the challenge of faithful and radical discipleship in local communities

Culture of Peace Alan Kreider, 2005-11-01 Why is peace such a divisive issue even among Christians Why is it so hard to practice right here right now Why is peace often considered an extra rather than an essential to faithful Christian living The three authors decided to write this book when the Indonesian member of the team remarked to the other two If the Christian church is to make any impact on Indonesia it must address itself to the biggest peace issue reconciliation with Muslims But before the writers could honestly consider that explosive possibility they first had to ask why Christians find it so difficult to live peaceably with other Christians They ve discovered that conflict is often a prerequisite of peace They grant that peace is a continuum easier to live in some areas of life than in others They ve learned that peace has two parents hard work and grace Living in peace is muscular activity The authors suggest how to develop peacemaking reflexes how churches can learn to handle conflict well and how to cultivate vulnerability and humility two essential attitudes of peacemakers True stories from communities around the world support this hopeful but strenuous call to faithful living towards just peacemaking The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA Sharing Lives Bert de Ruiter, 2013-10-12 This book argues that the single greatest hindrance to Christian witness amongst Muslims in Europe is fear Many European Christians fear that Europe will gradually turn into Eurabia or Islamic domination of Europe and they ignore the efforts of Muslims to adapt to the European context a situation pointing to a future scenario of Euro Islam or Islam being Europeanized The author argues that instead of an attitude of fear which leads to exclusion Christians should develop an attitude of grace which leads to embrace After analyzing books and courses developed to help Christians relate to Muslims he concludes that these mostly concentrate on providing information and skills instead of dealing with one s attitude Because of this the author developed a short course to help Christians overcome their fear of Islam and Muslims and to encourage Christians to share their lives with Muslims and to share the truth of the Gospel with the purpose of attracting them to Christ Bert de Ruiter 1958 works with OM Europe as Champion Muslim Ministries in Europe Bert obtained a Master of Arts in World Evangelization and a Doctor of Ministry in Muslim Christian relations During the past 25 years Bert has been ministering in almost 50 countries around the world to help Christians share their lives with Muslims Bert and his wife live in Amsterdam the Netherlands and have two children and one grandchild Jesus Christ in World History Jan A. Sanneh, 2016-08-19 Over the course of the last 1400 years Islam has grown from a small band of followers on the Arabian peninsula into a global religion of over a billion believers How did this happen The usual answer is that Islam spread by the sword believers waged jihad against rival tribes and kingdoms and forced them to convert Lamin Sanneh argues that this is far from the whole story Beyond Jihad examines the origin and evolution of the African pacifist tradition in Islam beginning with an inquiry into the faith's origins and expansion in North Africa and its transmission across trans Saharan trade routes to West Africa The book focuses on the ways in which without jihad the religion spread and took hold and what that tells us about the nature of religious and social change At the heart of this process were clerics who used religious and legal scholarship to promote Islam Once this clerical class emerged it offered continuity and stability in the midst of political changes and cultural shifts helping to inhibit the spread of radicalism and subduing the urge to wage jihad With its policy of religious and inter ethnic accommodation this pacifist tradition took Islam beyond traditional trade routes and kingdoms into remote districts of the Mali Empire instilling a patient Sufi inspired and jihad negating impulse into religious life and practice Islam was successful in Africa Sanneh argues not because of military might but because it was made African by Africans who adapted it to a variety of contexts
